Social and Personal.

St. John

Now that 'h · evenings are beginning to grow noticeably longer the afternoon tea and picnic will give place to parties, donces and other in door evening amusements, and or course every one will regret the bright summer atternoon, which have slipped so swiftly away, leaving only the memory of pleasant lawn parties, picnics and delightful excursions to the cool resorts. Society seems to be crowding a great deal into these, the last of the summer days, and certainly no one can complain of a dull week. Mrs. Stanley Ritchie gave quite a large progressive eachre party one evening recently. There were six tables and the games evoked great interest. The ladies prize, a cut glass bottle of perfume in a pretty case was won by Mrs. Geo. K. McLeod and the gentlemens prize, a pack of cards in a leather case, was won by Mr. Warner Harrison. After supper Miss Wales and Mr. Ruelsang several beauti ful selections and were accompanied by Mrs. Stratton and Miss Kathleen Furlong. The supper table was tastefully decorated with nasturtiums and looked lovely. Among the gues:s were, Mr. and Mrs. Ruel, Mrs. Geo. K. McLeod, Mr. Gillis Keator. Miss Keator, Mr. E. Jones, Miss Jones, Mr. Burpee, Misses Furlong, Mr. Warner Harrison, Miss Warner, Mrs. Stratton, Mr. Jack Warner, Miss Bayard, Mr. Fred Hartt, Miss Hazen, Miss Wales, Mr. Edwards, Mr. Bob Ritchie, Mr. Kirk. wood, Mr. Coster, Mr. Jack Wetmore.
