The choir of St. Mark's has been busy lately practising the sacred oratorio "Paradise" under the training of Mr. Saunders band master King's regiment and it has been decided to give it in St. Marks church within the next fortnight though the exact date has not yet been announced.

Lady Thompson will go to Ottawa next week and while there will be the guest of Lord and Lady Aberdeen. Her three daughters who have been staying at government house for some time will return to Toronto with her.

The concert given recently in Oddfellows' hall was a very decided success in every way. It was given by the orchestra of Mystic lodge assisted by friends; the accompaniments were played by Miss Hall; Miss Huguenin with her flute contributed largely towards the evening's pleasure. I understand it was also a financial success.

Miss Stubbing has returned from Bermuda, where she spent the winter. She is looking much better than when she went away.

Captain Kent R. E. who was stationed on this garrison a long time ago has again been appointed to Halifax. Mrs. Kent will arrive later in the season.

Mayor Alexander who has been spending the winter at home has returned.

Mr. Jones, of the Kings has also returned after an absence of four months.

May 15.—Perhaps no variety is more often quoted than that of Coopers' "variety is the very spice of life, that gives it all its flavor." I have no doubt that it is true in most cases but not in the one of weather.

Last week, we were basking in summer sunshine and now without any gradual change we are plunged into dampness, coldness and rain. You have to bring your coats down from the attic and you place them for the summer and find the people are cold, but colds at present are not the fashionable epidemic. German measles are to the fore, and attack not the small child only but grown up people. It does seem such an undignified illness and one to be classed along with mumps which you are supposed to have had in early childhood.

Dramatic entertainments are the one form of amusement this week and apparently for several weeks to come.

"Tribe" has been a great success, drawing large houses at each performance. Miss Cecil's Lorraine as "Tribe" was extremely good, though it was a bit unfortunate that she was not blessed with a pretty foot, especially as she has to call attention to it in her lines. As "Svegnail" Mr. W. V. Ranous made the success of the play, he also has the credit of being the adapter of this version of the play.

Friday and Saturday nights, "Hispania" is to take place. I will have to wait till next week to tell you about it, it comes off too late for this one. It promises to be a success in every way, as so end of tick, as have been sold. Saturday night is evidently the most popular night. Miss Blanche Wickwire has a theatre party that night and a supper afterwards and I hear of one or two other parties. One of the attractions of the performance is a skirt dance given by the leading lady (who is a gentleman), as indeed are all the performers. The company had a very good advertisement on Saturday night last. A letter was written to one of the evening papers complaining of the public nuisance that this company was in disturbing people with their practices. A little bird whispers that it was a member of the said company who wrote the letter, and it seems only reasonable, for surely there is no "city club" member who is so thin skinned or whose temper is so easily ruffled.

Next week that popular theatrical manager, Mr. W. S. Harkins opens his engagement at the Academy. "The Lost Paradise" is the play he has chosen for his opening night. The Orpheus club give their third and final concert on Tuesday next. The programme consist of solo work principally and three choruses by the club. The Orpheus are going to sing at the concert given the sixth and seventh of June by Sousa's band. The concert are to be held in the exhibition building which will be a novelty.

Mr. Morrison has styled his new boarding house by the high sounding name of the "rosenover."

Captain Kent, R. E. who has been a while stationed on this garrison, has taken rooms there. Mrs. Kent has remained in New York for a few weeks, but will come to Halifax in the summer.

Miss Blanche Stubbing has returned from Bermuda where she has been spending the winter with Mrs. Rowe. Mrs. Krabbe, Miss Anna Mitchell and Mrs. Longley were passengers by the same steamer.

Capt. and Mrs. Graeme Dallas, who have been for a fortnight's visit to Boston, returned last night. Miss Corbett remained for a few weeks longer.

Mrs. Vizard, after a stay of nearly four years, has returned from England.

Captain and Mrs. Molyneux Seale, of the King's are leaving on Saturday by the "Halifax City". They will not return to Halifax but will join the regiment in the West Indies. Another lady of the regiment who will not return here is Mrs. Mellor. She is much missed, and her delightful singing will often be thought of with pleasure.

Mr. Smith, R. E., has, I hear, received an appointment in Africa; he was there one before. At present he is in England so will not likely return here. He will be missed by the Polo club as he was a most energetic player.

The Bishop has returned and preached twice on Sunday in St. Stephen's in the morning and St. Paul's in the evening.

The long talked of and much longed for dance is expected to come off next week. It is the same old story—waiting for the painters to finish their work.

H. M. S. Canada is in port at present; she will wait till the flag ship arrives. The papers speak of an intended visit of the American fleet, which is greatly hoped will take place.

"The Blake" has arrived in England and the admiral has gone to London to take up an appointment he has received there. MARTHA.

Walking parties are very pleasant diversions for some of our young folk in this dull season. That given on Saturday afternoon by some of our young ladies was particularly enjoyable, the afternoon was spent searching for the beautiful trailing arbutus. At five the party returned well laden with these sweet blossoms.

It is with much regret that I chronicle the sudden death of Mrs. Frank Garret on Tuesday last. Much sympathy is extended to the many bereaved one.

This morning was quite an eventful morning for our school children, it being the day appointed by the school board of New Glasgow as "Arbor day" for the town schools. At ten o'clock the children marched from their respective schools to the high school building, keeping in remarkably good order. A programme consisting of recitations, etc., was carried out. Special mention must be made of the reading by Miss Annie C. Fraser, whose clear and distinct enunciation made the reading doubly enjoyable. An essay on "Trees" by Mr. Wm. Dalrymple was read by Mr. Garnet Sedgewick, it being explained that the young writer's modesty hindered his doing so. The essay was a most instructive one and reflected much credit on Mr. Tait. Many trees were planted. WILLIE.

Seldiac is pleased to welcome Mr. and Mrs. McKay and his family who have recently moved here from Amherst, and taken up their residence in the house vacated by Mr. Woods.

The social given under the auspices of the choir of the new presbyterian church, was quite above the average standard of excellence; judging from the large audience present. Each number of the programme, from beginning to end was well rendered.

Special notice however, might, I think, be given to the quartette "The Old Oakon Bucket," rendered by Messrs. Atkinson, Harper, Russell and Colwell.

An event which has been looked forward to here, for some time, took place on Wednesday evening, when Miss Poirier, eldest daughter of Mr. Andrew Poirier, of this place, and Mr. George Poirier, of Fredericton, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony. Rev. Father Oullette performed the ceremony, assisted by Rev. Father Savage of Fredericton, who were strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, the bride party entered the church. The bride wearing upon the arm of her father, looked very pretty in a beautiful dress of white silk et trane duchesse lace, and ribbon trimmings, veil and wreath of lilies of the valley.

The bridegroom, who was attended by her sister, who wore a lovely dress of cream cashmere, with pale blue silk trimmings, her hat was of cream with cream ups and roses.
