May 29 .- The reception at governm Friday evening, was a most brilliant affair and was greatly enjoyed by everybody present. It would be impossible to find a more charming host and hostess than the Lieutenant Governor and Mrs. Daly and every one thinks the same. There were over nine hundred invitations issued, of those some seven hundred were accepted. The rooms are so large at government house that there was little or no crowding except just at the door when everyone was arriving. The Governor, Mrs. and Miss Daly received on this occasion in the usual dining room, you passed through to the drawing room and so on to the ball room. The supper table was [a particularly pretty one being bright with flowers and silver. The room was decorated with plants and cut flowers and a quantity of red and blue draperies. There were three rooms thrown open up stairs where one could sit and have a quiet chat with a famular friend. In one of the rooms here was a table with ices and coffee and tea, so if you were lazily inclined you had not to go down stairs for some refreshment. The ladies wore bright and many colored dresses and as the officers of the army and navy were in full dress, they added to the beauty of the scene.

Mrs. Daly word a handsome gown of peacock blue satin, with steel trimmings. Miss Daly was in pale Mrs. W. B. Ferrie had one of the most handsome white gowns of the evening, a heavy white satin with pearl embroidery, most becoming to the tall | t and graceful wearer.

There were three debutantes, Miss Robertson, Miss F. Anderson and Miss L. Cady, they of course wore the regular white and all three looked particularly fresh and pretty. The bride, Mrs. Hardey wore a pink brocade with the bodice trimmed with a darker green velvet.

Mrs. Farrel bad on a very smart black satin trim med with a profusion of irridescent sequios, which | A. Forsythe spent the 24 in Kentville. made a pretty jingling sound as she moved. Her two daught rs were with her one in white the other in yellow. Ars. Krabbe whom one is delighted to welcome back again, was in a bright blue satin with velvet sleeves. There were a great many new faces among the men as a great number of the officers of the new flag ship "The Crescent" were there, and several of the fairer sex, among them I noticed Mrs. Erskin, wife of the Admiral, in a handsome gown of yelle w satin, and Mrs. Dwyer, wife of the new P. M. O. had a very pretty gown of old blue, trimmed with deep yellow lace. Miss Uniacke, Miss Cady and Miss Bullock all looked well and Miss Ella Secton remarkably so in a gown of pale green satin with enormous black satin sleeves. Miss Blanche Wis well in black and pink looked well. There were a great many black gowns worn, noticeably Mrs. Geoffrey Morrows, Mrs. Trotman's, Mrs. James Stairs' and Mrs. C. Jones, and Mis. Walther's. The 66th Ppincess Louises fusiliers band played during the evening a pretty programme of music several delightful waltzes were smong the selections which made the younger guests long "to trip the light fantastic."

There is not any society news to write about this week, the theatre is the only attraction for the evenings, the plays being acted this week are "Men and Women" and "Joseph."

The last of three historical concerts given under the auspices of the Doering, Brauer conservatory of music took place on Tuesday night in the Orpheus hall, it was perhaps the best of the series.

Lady |Aberdeen held a brilliant "At Home" at Toronte on Monday night. Mrs. Mackintosh, Miss Henry, and Miss Creighton of Halifax, were present. They are in Toronto to attend the second annual convention of the National council of women for

One of the saudest accidents which has ever occurred here, was that by which Mr. I. Fred Carver, his little son Ralph and Mr. Will Graham, lost their lives on Friday. On Thursday evening they went to Stillwater for the holidays fishing on the lake, and it is supposed that the boat in which they were was struck by the squall which came up suddenly on Fri. day morning. There were no eye witnesses of the accident, but in the afternoon a man walking on the shore noticed the prow of a boat just above the water entangled in the ropes of which, when it was drawn to the shore the body of young Graham was found. The other bodies were recovered the next afternoon within thirty feet of the shore. The triple funeral on Monday was the largest ever witnessed in Hants County, being about a mile in length.

Mr. Carver who was a native of Windsor was a man highly respected and well known throughout the county, and will be much missed in the town, as well as in the presbyterian church, of which he was a prominent member. Young Graham was the second son of Mr. Jas. E. Graham, of this town, and had but lately returned from New York where he was engaged in business, and also attended a school of art, as he was very clever with his pencil. He was a great favorite in the town and his death which is the first break in his family is much regretted. Much sympathy is felt for both families in their
