Johnson's ANODYNE LINIMENT

It was invented in 1810 by the late Dr. A. Johnson, an old-fashioned, noble hearted Family Physician. It is recommended by physicians everywhere. All who use it are amazed at its power and praise it forever after. It is used and endorsed by all athletes. It is the best, the oldest, the original. It is unlike any other. It is superior to all others. It is not merely a liniment, it is the Universal Household Remedy from infancy to old age. There is not a medicine to day which possesses the confidence of the public to so great an extent. Every Mother should have it in the house, dropped on sugar suffering children lower to take it. It produces an increase of vital activity in the system. Its electric energy everlastingly eradicates inflammation without irritation. Generation after Generation Have Used and Blessed it.

For INTERNAL as much as EXTERNAL Use.

I, S. JOHNSON, Esq., My Dear Sir—Fifty years ago this month your father, Dr. Johnson, called at my store and left me some Johnson's Anodyne Liniment on sale. I have sold Johnson's Anodyne Liniment ever since. I can most truly say that it has maintained its high standard and popularity from that time to this. It is doubtful if you have many customers who remember the good old doctor who first compounded this medicine, and received it direct from his hand fifty years ago. JOHN S. JOHNSON, No. 24, Waterford, Me. Jan. 1891.

Cures Croup, Colds, Coughs, Sore-Throat, Cramps and Pains.

It is marvellous how many complaints it will cure. Its strong point lies in the fact that it acts quickly. It cures all Cuts, Burns and Bruises. Relieves all Bowel Complaints. Taken in water or dropped on sugar. It positively Cures Catarrh, La Grippe, Asthma, Bronchitis, Lameness of Muscles, Stiff Joints, Strains and Sprains. Retail price, 35 cents, SIX $2.00, express prepaid. If you can't get it near home, ask for it. Sold by all druggists. Full information sent free. I. S. JOHNSON & CO., 24 Custom House St., Boston, Mass.

Much to the regret of those who were invited, Miss Katherine Copeland's picnic has been postponed for several days on account of the cold unpleasant weather.

The play "Sowing the Wind," which I mentioned in my last letter, was presented to the public in a most charming manner on Thursday evening. Miss Ella Harmon as Rosamond quite distinguished herself with her fine acting, and fetching costumes.

She was supported by Mr. Leo. D. La Mondes as Brabazon, who for an amateur, is really a wonderful actor. Miss Fay Harmon, as Mrs. Fretwell was excellent, her manner and style were irresistible.

Miss Annie Fitzpatrick as Maude Fretwell, was lively and vivacious, and also very amusing. Mrs. Fred Hill took her part most cleverly.

Mark Mills, who personated Ned Ammersey, Rosamond's lover, acquitted himself finely, it being a most difficult part in every way. Mr. Joe Jones, as Lord Crutator, Mr. Fred Hill, as Watkins.

John Oliver, as the attorney Deakin, all received many pleasant comments upon the excellent way they assumed their parts. It is the first time Miss Ella Harmon has appeared upon the dramatic stage, which she has decided to choose for her profession, and if she continues to be as pleasing as on Thursday evening, her success will be assured.

After the entertainment all who took part, with several others, friends, were entertained at a supper by Mrs. F. H. Stoddard, Miss Harmon's mother, at their residence on Church avenue, Calais.

Miss Harmon's friends united in wishing she will at an early date give them another dramatic treat.

THINGS OF VALUE.

There are five "tasters" in the Sultan's kitchen at Constantinople, whose special duty it is to sample every dish previous to its being placed before the royal master.

It is a fortunate day or a man when he first discovers the value of Ayer's Sarsaparilla as a blood purifier. With this medicine, he knows he has found a remedy upon which he may rely, and that his life-long malady is at last conquered. Has cured others, will cure you.

Barrels of wine, anchors, scythes—in fact, all kinds of merchandise—are conveyed by the Swiss Post-office Department.

Pulmonary consumption, in its early stages, may be checked by the use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It stops the distressing cough, soothes irritation of the throat and lungs, and induces much-needed repose. Hundreds have testified to the remarkable virtues of this preparation.

The total number of men in the world's navies is estimated to be 237,000.

The use of Hall's Hair Renewer promotes the growth of the hair, and restores its natural color and beauty, frees the scalp of dandruff, to ter, and all impurities.

It is doubtful if there would be any enjoyment for good people in this world if there were no bad people with whose bad actions they could contrast their own goodness.

Health and happiness are relative conditions: at any rate, there can be little happiness without health. To give the body its full measure of strength and energy, the blood should be kept pure and vigorous, by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

It is more blessed to give than to receive; and the fact that so many people are willing that others should have the blessing shows that people are not so selfish as so we would have us believe.

Most coughs may be cured in a few days, by the use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. With such a prompt and sure remedy as that at hand, there is no need of prolonging the agony for weeks and months. Keep the remedy in the house.

When you see a man taking advice good-naturedly, you may put it down that he has somebody picked out to whom he is going to give it.

Some persons have periodical attacks of Canadian cholera, dysentery or diarrhea, and have to use great precautions to avoid the disease. Change of water, cooking, and green fruit, is sure to bring on the attacks. To such persons we would recommend Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial as being the best medicine in the market for all summer complaints. If a few drops are taken in water when the symptoms are noticed no further trouble will be experienced.

No fewer than 1,173 persons have been buried in Westminster Abbey.

Fever and Ague and Bilious Derangements are positively cured by the use of Parmentier's Kidney and Bladder Pills, which cleanse the system of all bilious matter, but they open the excretory vessels, causing them to pour copious effusions from the bladder to the bowels, after which the corrupted mass is thrown out by the natural passage of the body. They are used as a general family medicine with the best results.

Mr. Thomas Ballard, Syracuse, N. Y., writes: "I have been afflicted for nearly a year with that most-to-be-dreaded disease Dyspepsia, and at times worsted with pain and want of sleep, and after trying almost every remedy recommended, I tried one box of Parmentier's Valuable Pills. I am now nearly well, and believe they will cure me. I would not be without them for any money."

Once every year the Emperor of China, amid great pomp and ceremony, ploughs a furrow in order to dignify agriculture in the eyes of his people.

Mad La Grippe—Mr. A. Nickerson, Farmer, Dutton, writes: "Last winter I had La Grippe, and it left me with a severe pain in the small of my back and hip that used to catch me whenever I tried to climb a fence. This lasted for about two months when I bought a bottle of Dr. Thomas' Eclectic Kidney and Bladder Pills, and after using them internally, morning and evening, for three days, at the expiration of which time I was completely cured."

You Don't Have to Swear off.

says the St. Louis Journal of Agriculture in an editorial about No-To-Bac, the famous tobacco habit cure. "We know of many cases cured by No-To-Bac, one, a prominent St. Louis architect, smoked and chewed for twenty years; two boxes cured him, so that even the smell of tobacco makes him sick. No-To-Bac sold and guaranteed no cure no pay. Book free. Sterling Remedy Co., 374 St. Paul St., Montreal."

Dr. Carson's Cough Drops.

Mrs. Henderson, 32 Cameron St., Toronto, writes: "I was suffering from pleurisy and bad cough. I was weak and very weak, having had to be propped up in bed. I was told to try Dr. Carson's Cough Drops. Six bottles restored me to perfect health. For sale by druggists everywhere. Price 50 cents. Allan & Co., proprietors, 43 Front St., E. St. C. 1010."
