MAY 29.—The town has been literally thronged with visitors since Friday last when the closing of the Mount Allison college commenced. On Thursday a splendid musical recital took place, all the numbers on the programme being played with marked ability. The great social event of the closing took place on Saturday evening when the conversation of the Alumni and the Alumnae societies occurred. This function always takes place at the Ladies' college, but this year the new college residence was the scene of the festivities. The guests on entering the drawing room were received by Mrs. Wood, the first vice president of the Alumnae society and Mr. William C. Miller the president of the Alumni society. The large drawing-room, the parlor and the reception room were thronged with guests.

In the Eucharistic room an excellent programme was carried out, which was listened to with deepest attention. The evening was an exceedingly pleasant and was much enjoyed by all present. LADIES' COLLEGE NOTES.

SACKVILLE, May 29.—The great event of the month, indeed, I might say of the year, has been the closing exercises of the university, those in connection with the ladies' college being especially bright and interesting. Every year the exercises in connection with these institutions increase in brilliancy, both from the social and educational standpoint, and this year the staid old university town was more than usually lively. Yesterday Lingley hall was packed to its utmost capacity and the effect produced by the pretty dresses of the graduates, the quantities of flowers which were used, and the bright, animated audience, was strikingly brilliant. The music by the orchestra and chorus was exceedingly grand, both in power and expression, and I do not think that his pupils, are deserving of

CURED BY TAKING
AYER'S Sarsaparilla

"I was afflicted for eight years with Salt Rheum. During that time, I tried a great many medicines which were highly recommended, but none gave me relief. I was at last advised to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and before I had finished the fourth bottle, my hands were as as ever they were. My business, which is that of a cal-driver, requires me to be out in cold and wet weather, often without gloves, but the trouble has never returned."—THOMAS A. JOHNS, Stratford, Ont.

The Only Sarsaparilla

Admitted at the World's Fair.

Ayer's Pills Cleanse the Bowels.

All the praise bestowed upon them. Miss Deacon, much to the regret of the visitors, was suffering from severe cold and was in consequence, unable to sing her solo.

Miss Chesley's essay on "Woman as Patriots" was a masterpiece and gave evidence of careful study and observation on the part of the talented young essayist. I regret that in the space to which I am confined it is impossible for me to reproduce the clever effort. Miss Chesley's essay won the prize.

Governor Fraser, who together with Mrs. Fraser, was present presented the diplomas to the graduates, but did not make any extended remarks as he was suffering from a severe cold and wished to reserve himself for the formal opening of the Art Gallery.

The various prizes were presented, Miss Bessie McLeod, of Pointe du Lac, winning a silver medal, Donald's prize of $25.00 for the best original painting. The gentlemen who presented the prizes were, Rev. Mr. Day, of Acadia Mines, Rev. Dr. Hearty, of Truro, and Mr. J. Wesley Smith, of Halifax, the last named always presenting in person the prizes which he awards yearly for excellence in the various departments. Mr. Mack former Professor of music at St. John, has announced his intention of awarding a prize of $10 to be given to the young lady who has won most diligently.

The resignation of Miss Shredler was heard with universal regret, as she has motivated herself to pupils and teachers and has been a faithful and efficient teacher.

The meetings of the alumni and alumnae took place in the afternoon, and the usual business was conducted; the formal opening of the Art Gallery also took place.

The annual convocation which was held in the beautiful new college residence was one of the most successful and brilliant ever held here. The rooms were beautifully decorated and the scene was a very brilliant one; the guests were received by Mrs. Joseph L. Wood, vice president of the Alumni society, and Mr. C. W. Miller, president of the Alumni. The greater part of the evening was spent in social intercourse, former pupils, teachers and professors pleasantly renewing old acquaintances.

The following are the graduates in arts, on which degrees were conferred on Tuesday evening—S. B. A. degree—Thomas Dickson Archibald, Halifax; Daniel Busby, Bayley, Egmont; Mary Agnes Rice, Dorchester; Walter Alison Black, Dorchester; George Miles, Blackney, Petitcodiac; William Whitford, Coston, Bala Verre; Roland Davidson, Tignish; Lillian Jane May Denstad, Yarmouth; Frederick Brecken Day, Acadia mines; Mary Fisher Duncan, Woodstock; Jacob Chilton, Yarmouth; Miss Helen May Denstad, Yarmouth; Apohqui, M. A. degrees in course—Rev. A. P. Borden, B. A. St. J. D. St. M. A. Hingual James M. Palmer of the male academy, B. A. University of N. B. The graduate in divinity is Rev. Samuel Howard, B. A. St. J. of Hampton.
