The ball given by Mrs. Keith at her residence Keith Hall, was a most brilliant social event. The grounds around Keith Hall were brilliantly illuminated by colored electric lights. The large hall where the light fantastic was tripped looked very bright and pretty with colored electric lights, cut and potted plants. The supper table was beautifully decorated with electric lights and miniature lamps of various colors. The entire house was open to the guests and no pains were spared in the decoration and general arrangements. Music was furnished by the King's band. A few of the elegant gowns worn were:

Miss C. Story, pink satin and lace trimmings. Miss Story, blue satin. Mrs. Cameron, black satin and jet onnaments.

Miss Townshend, gold and blue silk; and pearl ornaments.

ones it is true but nevertueless very enjoyable. Judge Henry gave a driving party in his new turn out, which was very much enjoyed. The party had a very pleasant time of it. There was also the small weekiy party at the Garrison tennis grounds

Tuesday afternoon was band day at Polo, but as the weather was quite dull only a few attended. Those who went however had ainice time and the refreshments served proved very enjoyable.

Tuesday evening Miss Salter gave a dance which I hear was very enjoyable. It was of course only for young people. On Wednesday Mrs. Montgomery-Moore gave a very pleasant dinner party. The table I hear looked exceedingly pretty and the gue ts very smart. There were two or three other dinners given this week, but Mrs. Montgomery Moore's was the largest. There is to be a large ball at Admirality house, sometime next week; Society will be delighted at this as this is one of the most charming places in the city for a dauce. Three or four more dances are also to take place in the near future. On Saturday the Bankers Regatta, one of the pleasantest events of the summer takes place at the northwest Arm.
