On Monday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Clerke invited a party of young people to enjoy a sail in the steamer "Arbutus" to St. Andrews and to dine at the Algonquin. There were some sixty guests and the party was a merry one. After dinner dancing occupied the evening until the whistle of the Arbutus warned them it was time to return up river, and it was not until two o'clock on Tuesday morning that they arrived in St. Stephen. This outing was given for the pleasure of Miss Mabel Clerke, and her guests the Misses Richardson of Nashers, New Hampshire, Miss Warner, of St. John. Collector and Mrs. Graham, on Friday evening entertained a party of friends at tea, at their residence on Marks street.

Miss Georgie Meredith is visiting friends in Kings County. Mrs. Lornar, of St. Andrews, is the guest of her friend Mrs. J. A. Grimmer, during this week.
