I believe I was incorrect in speaking of the bicycle accident of last week as the first of the season, in was the second, and the third of the series which was also the worst occurred on Friday evening on Main street, and resulted very seriously for the bicyclist, who was injured much more severely than his victim. The sufferers were Dr. Cruise, who was crossing the street and Mr. John McLaren, who was riding at a very rapid pace and ran into the doctor with such force as to throw him backwards his head striking the pavement with such force as to stun him. Mr. McLaren was thrown from his wheel, and alighted on his left shoulder which was dislocated by the fail. Fortunately Dr. Myers was on the scene at the time of the accident and attended to both sufferers. Dr. Cruise escaped with a cut on the back of the head, and a bad shaking up but the wonder is that the accident was not more serious

CURE ROSE COLD AND DYSPEPSIA. What might be called "Hot-weather Dyspepsia," is known by weak stomach-a gone, sickish feeling. The head swims-the vitality is low. Correct and strengthen the weak stomach with Dr. Humphreys' Homoeopathic Specific No. 10, and you will pass through the summer with a feeling of buoyancy unknown to Dyspeptics.

says: "Humphreys' Specifics 'act like magic' with me. I could not exist without them. No. 10 is my ideal of Dyspepsia and all stomach troubles. In fact my husband, years before his death, used to prescribe No. 10 for everything."
