A small but very erjoyable "At Home" was given by Mrs. Longley one afternoon last week, chiefly in honor of the numerous friends of the hostess from B ermuda, the United States and other places, who are now visiting the city. Cne of the seatures were readings by Miss Pauline Johnson, the Canadian poetess, from her own dramatic writings, which were greatly appreciated and enjoyed by the whole company.

Iam sure that it is seldom there have been general, unaffected good wishes for all happiness, from so many sources tendered for the acceptance of the newly married, as in the case of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Chipman. It is conceded to be better to success than even to achieve it, and Harry Chipman has done both, and has won popularity and esteem by the force of qualities which cannot be gainsaid. The fair bride comes from a long line of upright men and honored women, and the congratulations bestowed upon the groom were no empty phrases. I feel that it would be commonplace to endearor to supplement what has already appeared in the daily press, regarding the incidentia of the ceremony, at which so many of our leading people were present; but the very best of the wishes are expressed for the young couple.

Now that cricket and tennis are very nearly over, I suppose the different teams of the Wanderers, Garrison, Dalhousie, etc., will soon be on football thoughts intent. The Wanderers held a meeting in order to araange matters io connection with the coming season's football, which will ns doubt be a good one, as more interest seems to be taken in the game each year.

Mrs. Daly has cards out for a "ball poudre" on the twenty-fourth," and as the invitations are out two weeks beforehand, there wil. be plenty of time

Colonel Isaacson as d officers of the R. A. have cards out for an "at home" to be held on their new cricket ground on the Citadel on Wednesday next from three until six, in order to witness their annual sports, which have bitherto always taken place at the riding ground. It will certainly be an improvement, as far as distance is concerned, for a tramp to the riding ground possesses a terror all its own for the unlucky one who has to trudge there. Then too, everything will seem much nearer and one will be able to watch the events more closely, than at the riding ground, which is so much larger.

Several Halifax families, or members of families, purpose spending the coming winter in Europe; among them Hon. M. H. Richey's. We shall be sorry to have to miss them; but would like all the same to be included in the number of those who are enabled to take such a pleasant tour. The more facilities that are afforded for crossing the big pond the greater liability to hankering to do so; but yet in mine, and hundreds of ambitious instances like mine, it is a case of "so near and yet so far"-the nearer it seems to approach to us in point of compassabilty, the gulf between seems to take on a deeper yawn. I am hoping the day will yet tawn on my vision when we will have excursions to Europe at one first class fare; or even when picnics will be started across the Atlantic, after the style of that which was, parts of last month and this such a great success to Boston. As it is, we must rest in the contemplation of it.

One of the prettiest weddings of the week was that of Miss M. Ritchie to Mr. H. Chipman. The rich white dress oi the bride, together with the dainty ones of the bridesmaids, which were also white, made a very pretty effect entering the church. Among the guests, some very pretty and strking effects in millinery were noticeable.

The ships are not to arrive here, after all, unt] the twehty-first of the month, which will be first Saturday. They have remained over for the exhibition in Montreal, which began on the twelfth-Quite a rrmber of people have left here for the exhibiticn, among whem are the General and Mrs. Montgomery Moore and Colonei North.

It has been decided that the King's regiment wil le ave some time between the first and third of December.

Very pretty and interesting was the ceremony which united on August 23, at St. Mary's church, Drogheda, Miss Nay St. George Smith, daughter of Frederick St. George Smith, of The Grove, Drogheda, to Mr. William L. Payzant, son of Mr. J. ; W. Payzant, 1Q. C., Halifax, N. S. The Rev. John Archer and Dr. Francis E. Clarke performed the marriage rite. The bride was given away by her father, and looked charming in a lovely gown of white satin with court train of brocade, the bodice being trimmed with Limerick lace, pearl embroidery, and white chiffon Her veil was of white embroidered tulle, caught by a bunch of myrtle, and fastened with a diamond and pearl pin, and she carried a bouquet of white exotics. Miss Florence St. George Smith (the bride's sister) Miss M. Nixon, Miss M. Komcke, and Miss E. Battersby acted as bridesmaids. They wore white port. muslin frocks, trimmed with butter colored insertion and lace over colored linings of mauve, pink, and yellow, and they wore hats to match, and also hardsome gold combs, which were the gifts of the brideg: oom. The best man was Mr. Theodore Komcke. A novel feature of this wedding was the attendance of four ushers-Messrs. St. George and him home on his vacation. W. P. Smith, Mr. W. Halpin. and Captain Prowse -ppon the bride. Mr. and Mrs. Payzant left in the afternoon for London, the bride wearing a pretty and most becoming gown of silver grey town, P. E.
