of Miss Katie Cavertill-Jones and Mr. Frank Usher, a native of Scotland; Mr. Jones and his family, who have been travelling in Europe are expected to arrive here from New York, tomorrow morning.

Mr. and Mrs. James Gilbert made many personal friends during their sojourn in St. John. Both of them are old acquaintances in a professional way, and now that they are expected to arrive again, Mrs. Gilbert does not deem it her pleasant home in Boston to go "upon the road" with her husband, but the recollection of the cordial reception extended to them while in the Maritime provinces years ago, induced her to make the trip this time. She leaves the company at Bangor. Mr. Gilbert is a thorough Scotchman, and in spite of the fact that the United States is his home, is glad that he came from the land of Burns. While in this city Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert were entertained by Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Green, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Carter, and other friends. The Banjo Harmonie club met with Miss MacMillan on Monday evening of this week and had an excellent practice.

A very large number of persons attended the sale in S. John's church on Thursday and Friday of this week. Some elegant fancy work was displayed, an efficient corps of ladies being in charge of this department. The art table seemed to be the centre of attraction for many of the visitors; on Friday afternoon a five o'clock tea was held in connection with the sale and the ladies were kept constantly at work, attending to their many patrons.

The cantata given in St. David's church on Thursday evening drew a very appreciative audience. The solo work was excellent, and on that account any little weakness in the chorus could be easily overlooked; the soloists were Mrs. Burroughs, Miss Young, Miss Lamb, soprano; Mrs. Manning, alto; Mr. Titus, tenor; Mr. A. M. Smith, bass.

The residence of Mr. and Mrs. Taylor, Bridge street, was the scene of a happy gathering last Wednesday evening, the occasion being the tenth anniversary of their marriage; a token of esteem was presented by the assembled guests in the shape of a very handsome parlor lamp; delicious refreshments were served, and the guests had a merry dance until after midnight, when they departed, wishing Mr. and Mrs. Taylor many years of happiness.

The organ recital and concert in Brussels' street church on Tuesday evening was fairly well attended considering the state of the weather. Miss Fanning as upon a previous visit here delighted all with her beautiful voice and her "O Rest in the Lord" was splendidly rendered; Mr. Wootton's work on the organ, perhaps caused more enthusiasm than anything else during the evening. The programme was an excellent one and it seems a pity that so few availed themselves of the chance to hear such a musical treat.

S. Andrews society will celebrate the festival of Scotland's patron saint on Monday evening next by holding "a Scottish night" in the assembly rooms of the Institute on that evening. A Scotch concert will be held, for which an interesting programme has been prepared, to be followed by an elaborate supper, and later a dance; the music will be furnished by Hamilton's orchestra; without a doubt the occasion will be an interesting and enjoyable one. ## MONCTON.

[Progress is for sale in Moncton at the Moncton Bookstore, at the Central Bookstore and by Jones Bookstore.]

Nov. 27.—The worldly minded folk of our city have been endeavoring to have a little harmless amusement lately, but evidently the public mind is not attuned for gaiety yet, as the efforts of the worldly minded ones have not met with marked success. The first essay was a bicycle carnival in Victoria park on Monday evening which was got up by the amateur athletic association, and which it was hoped would prove a brilliant success, as it was the first entertainment of the kind ever given in Moncton, but in spite of its novelty there were not more than 200 spectators present, and the cyclists in costume numbered but 20. The two five dollar prizes for the handsomest and most original costumes were won respectively by Master L. Trites, son of Mr. E. T. Trites, and Master Roy Daniel, son of Mr. George W. Daniel, manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia. The play in the opera house faced little better last evening, as far as audience went, and I only hope the ladies of St. George's Guild, who have been sufficiently courageous to place a social in the school house this evening, in aid of their Sunday school fund, may meet with more encouragement.

Piano Lumber.

Like a precious stone is valuable in proportion as it is flawless. A perfect piano must have perfect wood. Mr. L. E. N. Pratte, manager for this company, spent some time making a personal selection of timber as it stood in the forest. No other piano manufacturers have taken such trouble but the Pratte Piano Company spare no effort to have every detail perfect.

Not only was the wood selected personally by the Pratte Piano Company's manager, but through all the various processes of transformation in addition to the attention of skilled mechanics it has the personal supervision of Mr. Pratte. This insures unequalled results.

You are invited to our warehouses to see our new instruments. Beginning with this number there will be a series of interesting ads. on piano makes, all numbered for convenience.

[Progress is for sale in Fredericton by W. T. H. Fenety and J. H. Hawthorne.]

Nov. 26.—A Rip Van Winkle sort of lethargy appears to have fallen on our usually gay little society circle; that now there is nothing to chronicle in the way of gay society doings, not even a tea or a ladies luncheon, for ever so long and unless society awakens to the fact of the awful stupidity of the times, a society correspondent's occupations, like Othello's will be gone.
