Last Saturday afternoon Mrs. Thomson gave a large garden party at Fernwood and although a large number of guests were present, there was not much of the arrangements were admirable. Mrs. Thomson's plants are always in evidence at her entertainments and on this occasion they certainly looked lovely. There were quantities of cut flowers everywhere and the conservatory was looking lovely, the tea room opened into it and also looked very pretty. Mrs. Andrews assisted Mrs. Thomson in receiving the guests and looked very nice in a pink and black gown; indeed everybody looked very nice.

On Monday Mrs. Wood gave a very pleasant dance at which everybody enjoyed themselves immensely. The floor was excellent and the music was greatly in the majority. There were many new and fresh frocks. Mrs. Wood's arrangements and all the arrangements were admirable. Mrs. Thomson's plants are always in evidence at her entertainments and on this occasion they certainly looked lovely. There were quantities of cut flowers everywhere and the conservatory was looking lovely, the tea room opened into it and also looked very pretty. Mrs. Andrews assisted Mrs. Thomson in receiving the guests and looked very nice in a pink and black gown; indeed everybody looked very nice.

On Tuesday Mrs. Montgomery-Moore gave another at home at Bellevue between five and seven. It was a very brilliant scene, the beautiful lawns, the lovely flower gardens, and the pretty dresses worn forming a pleasing whole. Mrs. Montgomery-Moore who wore a handsome black silk, relieved with mauve, received the guests on the lawn, thus preventing any crowding indoors.

Tea was served on the lawn, where a large table was spread and several small ones, with everything good in the way of eatables. Refreshments were served in the dining-room, where a stairway had been erected, directly under the window, in order to make it more accessible. Rustic seats were placed for those who preferred to be "far from the nodding crowd," and wished to have a quiet chat just by their two selves. Some lovely gowns were worn, and one cannot help thinking that the dressmakers must have had a rather trying time of it this summer turning out so many new gowns; for never before in one season—at least for a long time—have there been so many large "at homes" and garden parties.

Miss Colbourne, who helped to receive the guests, was most becomingly dressed in black, relieved with blue. Mrs. Daly wore a very handsome black dress. Miss Daly looked remarkably well in a peculiar shade of blue.

Mrs. J. F. Kenny wore black relieved with mauve. Miss Howard looked well in a gown of old rose silk, with a tiny black flower.

Mrs. Clarkson looked well in white moire silk. Mrs. Hill wore a beautiful gown of green and black silk.

Mrs. Arthur Troop, who has just returned from England, was wearing one of the most beautiful gowns. It consisted of pale pink silk, relieved with a quantity of cream lace.

Mrs. F. Jones looked well in grey. Miss Nagle wore a lovely gown of pale pink and cream silk.

Miss Worsley looked well in mauve. Numbers of other dresses were noticeable for their pretty effect, among which were Miss Monro-Taylor in pink; Miss Jackson in pale yellow; Mrs. Craib in cream; Miss Wylie in light grey with cream lace; and others. Tennis was played by a few, and as they were all good players it was watched with no small interest.

The tennis tournaments at the Garrison and South end grounds went steadily on all week. The tournaments were on the American system, where every one plays every one else, but in the open tournament next week the good old way, best two out of three will be revived and will be more satisfactory.

Last week there were three large dances on three nights in succession so it cannot be said to have been at all dull.

The summer residence of Dr. Trenaman, on the other side of the North West Arm (The Pines), was beautifully illuminated on Wednesday evening. No prettier grounds than The Pines can be found on the banks of the Arm, where there is such an abundance of attractive spots. The dance given on Wednesday evening by Dr. and Mrs. Trenaman gave great enjoyment to the larger number of young people who were favored on that occasion. Everything had been done by the host and hostess that good taste and generosity could suggest, with the result that the evening will ever remain a pleasurable memory with those who were present on Wednesday evening.

Many went up from Halifax to attend the garden party given by Mr. W. A. Black, M. P., at Bedford on Thursday.

Mrs. Abbott gives an "at home" at Pine Cottage, N. W. Arm, on Wednesday afternoon next.

Colonel Stone and the officers of the King's gave a large "at home" Saturday afternoon from 4.30 to 6.30, and as the day was perfect, people mustered there in great numbers after five, and the slopes of old Wellington presented a very festive appearance.

Mrs. M. J. Sawyer is in Halifax, making a short visit.

Miss M. Wallace left yesterday with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Wallace, for Montreal, where she will spend the next two months.

Mrs. Arthur Wiswell's dance on Tuesday evening though not large was very pleasant and was kept up till quite late. Mrs. Wiswell is an excellent hostess and her dance was capitally managed and very bright.

There were two for three dinners given on the same evening, the prettiest being by Mrs. J. P. Kenny's.

The Rev. W. B. King has arrived from Cambridge and will spend the whole of August in Halifax. Mr. King will be, as usual, very heartily welcomed by his many old friends, and with Mrs. King's likely to be much entertained while here.

The marriage of Mr. W. Payzant, eldest son of Mr. J. Y. Payzant, with Miss St. George Smith, of the Grove, Drogheda, Ireland, is to take place in the latter part of this month. Miss Smith has already many friends in Halifax, where she spent some months the two summers ago.

The marriage of Mr. J. F. Stairs, M. P., takes place this week at Almonte, where Mrs. Gashery resides. Several of Mr. Stairs' relatives will go from here to be present at the wedding, which is, however, to be a quiet one.

Mr. Stairs' and his family will remove permanently to Montreal in the autumn, and will be much missed.

On Saturday Mrs. Charles Archibald received a cablegram from England announcing the sudden death of her sister, after but twenty-four hours illness. Mrs. Archibald had only been home one week from an extended visit to Europe, and this sudden bereavement necessitates her immediate return to England to comfort and console her aged mother. The deceased lady was the eldest daughter of the late Sir Edward Archibald, C. B., for a quarter of a century British consul general in New York. Upon his resignation of that position some years ago, he removed to England, and soon afterward passed away, full of years and honors. Mrs. Archibald spent several weeks with her mother and sister this summer, and left them less than three weeks ago apparently in their usual health. In consequence of her bereavement and return to Europe, Mrs. Archibald has resigned the presidency of the W. C. T. U. of the maritime provinces. She will be accompanied as far as New York by Mr. Archibald, and will be followed across the Atlantic with the sincere sympathy of the people of Nova Scotia.

MINARD'S LINIMENT.

Made by C. C. Richards & Co., Yarmouth, N. S.

Imitation IS THE SINCEREST FORM OF FLATTERY.

The best proof that MINARD'S LINIMENT has extraordinary merits, and is in good repute with the public is, that it is extensively imitated. THE IMITATIONS RESEMBLE THE GENUINE ARTICLE IN APPEARANCE ONLY. They lack the general excellence of the Genuine.

This notice is necessary as injurious and dangerous imitations, called WHITE LINIMENT &c., have been produced in large quantities of the skin, are often substituted for MINARD'S LINIMENT by dealers, because they pay a large profit.

They all sell on the merits of MINARD'S one in particular claiming to be made by a former proprietor of MINARD'S LINIMENT, which is simply a lie.
