EVANDALE-ON-THE-RIVER.

Aug. 14 - One of the most attractive spots on the river is Evandale, Mr. John O. Vanwart's commodious hotel. The scenery around is beautiful while the boating, canoeing, drives, wheeling, etc., is such that none better could be desired. There is a beautiful drive to a little lake where water lilies are in abundance and a favorite canoeirg and boat ing excursion is down the river a short distance to a beautiful creek that is white with lilies.

There have not been as many people here this year as there was last, but all who have come have spent a pleasant time

Mrs. Stark and daughters and Miss Manton of Dorchester, Mass., have been here for several weeks and they express themselves as delighted with the St. John. Mr. O'Brien of Toronto, a well known Canadian artist, has been here a l summer with his wife. He has been reproducing on canvas, characteristic bits of river scenery Among others here at present are the Misses Gurn. Miss Rackine and the Misses Forgey of St. John Miss Thomas of Fredericton and Miss Doyle of Worcester The hall which was built this spring by Mr. Vanwart has been called after the hotel, Evendale hal. The guests of the house have found it of great advantage in their programme of amusements. S. veral musicales and tab leaux have been held there and they became so popular that people were attracted o them from all the country around. At one of them the proceeds, about 5.00, were given to Mrs. Allen of St. John, for the Little Girls' Home. They were usua ly prepared in an impromptu way and Miss Manton had them in charge. She was ably assisted by the Misses Stark, Misses Gunn, Miss Small and Mr. Will Smal. The singing of li tle Mildred Stark was one of the features. A couple of I dian children were also in much request for duets, and at one of the concerts one of the young 1 dies sold some baskets for the Indians, thus repaying them for their services. No doubt the attractiveness of the saleswoman was as efficient in making sales as the excellence of the wares. Miss Gunn's contralto solos were also much enjoyed. At one of the musicales at out seventy were present.
