gardens or extensive grounds are entertaining their friends in this way, by the hundred. Last Tuesday Mrs. Willoughby Anderson gave a delightful open air tea at her lovely place out at the Arm. The day was perfect and tea was served on small tables on lawn which is beautifully shaded with many large trees. Seats were comfortably arranged every. where and as people were coming and going all the afternoon there was not a great crowd at any time. Every one was especially well gowned. Mrs. Anderson was assisted in attending to her guests by Miss Anderson a debutante of this season.

On Thursday afternoon Mrs. George Franklyn entertained a very large garden party at "Emscote" at which the guests of honor were the officers from the French ship Laclocheterie. The guests were received by the hostess on the tennis ground, tea and ices being served in the house; there were hundreds of guests and some beautiful gowns were worn by the ladies. Mrs. Francklyn looked stately in a shot silk and Miss Francklyn was in white; there was one lovely dress of duil blue and white and many pale colored muslins, the prettiest of them being worn by Mrs. M. Morrow and Miss Worsley. It was after seven when the vast throng left.

There were no less than four large events on Monday of last week. First there was a large dinner at the government house given for the commodere and officers of the French ship, and which I hear passed off very pleasantly. Then there was Mrs. Woods dance which attracted only young people; it was a delightful affair and it was very late when the guests h'ied homeward. On the same evening Ad miral and Mrs. Erskine gave a dinner at Admirality house and as usual the hospitality of the house wan greatly enjoyed. The fourth was a large picnic given conjointly by several hostesses on the other side of the Arm. After dinner a large bonfire was lighted and the guests either sat around it or t was eleven when the party got back to town as the night was perfect and a lovely

On Tuesday there were also several events going on, besides Mrs. Anderson's at home. There were several tennis parties and two dinners one of which was given by Mr. and Mrs. Kenny and the other by Mrs. Montgomery-Moore; at both the guests were magnificently entertained and at the latter I hear the ladies toilettes were especially lovely.

On Wednesday Mrs. Erskine gave a large dance at Admirality house-which by the way is a splendid place for a dance. The evening was too damp for the gardens to be as much enjoyed as they would otherwise have been. The large verandah at the tack was covered in with flags, and was delightly cool and pretty with its many seats, after the warmth of the house, as the evening was very close and there was very little air to be had in spite of all Halifax, are spending a few weeks in town with the open windows. The decorations were unusually their aunt, Mrs. Drysdall, "Av nhurst." pretty, great quantities of flowers being used everywhere, especially in the drawing room, which was used altogether for sitting out. The plants and happy effect, and the shaded lights were most

Mrs. Erskine received in the dining rooms, which was also used for dancing, the floor being admirable, while the room was lit with quantities of electric lights. Supper was in the room adjoining and was served at small tables.

Mrs. Erskine wore a very pretty gown of cream color with colored and jewelled embroideries, and showed herself to be a very excellent hostess. Mrs. Montgomery Moore was in pale heliotrope with yellow, and much lace. Mrs. Stewart was in pink, and Mrs. O'Dwyer's white gown, slightly trim med with black, was much admired.

Mrs. Kent wore a very pre ty dress of pale chillgold, with some white about it and little knots of violets, and Mrs. Hartley looked very handsome in white, as did Miss Harvey.

In fact so many lovely gowns were worn that the beholder was quite dazzled.

There were several other dances this week. One given by Mrs J. T. Wood on Monday. One by Mrs. Arthur Wiswell on Tuesday, and one by Mrs H. Stairs, South Park street on Wednesday. Mrs. Montgomery-Moore has cards out for a large at home tomorrow (Thursday) from five til seven o'clock.

THE BLICKENSDERFER TYPE-WRITER.

See this Machine at the Exhibition. FINE ART PRINTING is the word to describe the clear and beautiful writing without ribbon. A Clear Saving of $5.00 to $10.00 a Year. VISIBLE WRITING ---- AND----

DIRECT INKING, GOOD DUPLICATOR.

The Visible Writing is Worth the Money. A Full Key Board Machine, 84 Characters, Capitals, Figures, Fractions, French, German and English, Change Wheels. It will do all that can be done on the $120 Ribbon Machines. For years a large majority of the people have been looking for a practical low-priced, portable, key-board machine. A machine that equals any of the high-priced ones in capacity and quality of work, and excels them all in convenience. This is the purpose of the Blickensderfer No. 5.

MANIFOLDING.

Heretofore it has been found impossible to manifold satisfactorily on a typewriter of the wheel class.

The Blickensderfer No. 5, while possessing every desirable feature of the wheel machine, has the direct powerful stroke of the lever class, thereby manifolding with unequalled force and clearness.

DUPLICATING.

This machine will do excellent Mimeograph work. The annoyance of cleaning the type can be avoided by having an extra type wheel for this pur-

DURABILITY.

The Blickensderfer is a marvel of simplicity and strength. From 1,000 to 3,000 parts in other key-board machines. The Blickensderfer has about

Our automatic power machine for operating the No. 5 makes 480 strokes a minute, 28,800 an hour, 288,000 a day. One of our No. 5 machines has been operated by this automatic power machine for months, making many millions of strokes, and yet no preceptable wear is apparent.

EXTRACT FROM JUDGE'S REPORT CHICAGO COLUMBIAN EXPOSITION, 1893. BLICKENSDERFER SMALL LYPE-WRITFR.

Excellence of a small typewriting machine, designed to meet the requirements of general office and clerical work.

It is a type-wheel machine; the wheels are interchangeable and inexpensive, writing is always in sight; has very few parts; can be adjusted to any width between lines; is a good manifolder, and has a light, well arranged key-

It shows lightness, simplicity, scope, inexpensiveness and strength.

When Should a Man Swear?

Man is not only a reasoning but a swearing ani mal. Sometimes his feelings are expressed audibly and at others they are so deep down in his nature that nothing less than a volcano would thrust them to the sur ace. If man should swear at all when should that time be? The church is silent on this important matter and the law gives no sanction to important matter and the law gives no sanction to cuss words. Stovepipes are provocative of feeling, but corns are far worse. Wives shauld see that their husband's corns are kept down. This may be done quite easily, Painlessly, and with absolute certainty by Putnam's Corn Extractor. Beware of flesh-eating substitutes offered for Putnam's Corn Extractor.
