The ceremony which was a quiet one took place at the residence of the bride's p rents, corner of Queen and Alma streets, and was performed by Rev. J. M. Robinson, pastor of St. John's presbyterian church, who had returned from his summer vacation in time for the event. Only the immediate relatives and friends of the bride and groom were present. After the ceremony luncheon was served, at the conclusion of which Mr. and Mrs. Jarvis took the C. P. R. for their future home in Toronto. The wedding, as I have said, was a quiet one, and no feu de joie announced the event, there was no ringing of bells, no flourish of trumpets to herald the departure of the fair brite, but her loss is one that will be deeply felt in Moncton, and the place . he held in the hearts of the people, from the highest to the lowest will long remain unfilled.
