Nov. 20 -Mrs. Deinstead on Friday evening entertained at her home the Pansy club of which her daughters Edith and Grace are members. On Friday evening Mrs. Frederic Hamm invited the Boys club to enjoy an evening at her residence, as her son Willie is an interested member. Refresh ments were served at ten o'clock, and the evening was a noisy but a most congenial one. An extremely pretty entertainment was given last Thursday evening in Christ Church school room by the Young Womans Guild of that church. The entertainment consisted of recitations, tableaux readings, and at the last a short play dramatized from the old famil ar fairy tale Jack and the Bean Stalk, which was most amusing and well acted winning many pleasant comments for those who took part. The entertainment was large'y patron ized and the treasury of the guild is enriched with a goodly sum which is to be used for charity at Christmas time. These entertainments are to be given every month during the winter.

The "Harmony" club will meet at the residence of Mrs. Hazen Grimmer on Tuesday evening Nov. 26. A fine musical programme has been prepared and much pleasure is anticipated. Mr. and M1s. J. M. Murchie on Thursday even ing invited a party of intimate friends to enjoy a game of whist at their residence.

The I. T. Y. T. whist club which was so popular last winter is to be revived again this season.

Several society ladies are interesting themselves. in selling tickets for a silk quilt which will be ?raffled The quilt is a handsome piece of work and was made by an invalid to whom the proceeds will be given. The ladies of the seven-handed euchre club, met with Mrs. W. F. Todd, on Monday evening and as usual hal an exceedingly pleasant time. "Commerce" parties are now fashionable among those who delight in games of cards and a very enjoyable one was given by Mrs. George A. Curran,
