Society has been, intensely dull of late as there has been nothing going on except two dinners a couple of teas and a concert. The present week will be more lively as there are to be a couple of large functions to bid farewell to the King's Regiment one of which takes place at Government house. In the coming regiment there are many mariied men and I hear there are no less than eleven ladies to be called up n. The regiment from Bermuda will find our frosty climate quite a change from the flowers and perpetual sunshine they have been accustomed to but no doubt like their predecessors they will get so used to our bracing air that they will dislike to leave it. I have heard nothing decided so far shout the private afternoons at the rink but no doubt the pleasant arrangements will be resumed when there is anything to skate on; there were a great many subscribers last year, in fact too many so it was thought as there was scarcely room for five sets of lancers and skaters at the ends, but better that than no rink as would certainly be the case with no patrons.

There was a very good audience at the recital held last night at the conservatory of music, and it is not too much to say that everyone went h me delighted with the excellence of the entertainment. Nearly every number on the programme was redemanded, and the encores were thoroughly hearty and well deserved. The whole programme was on the shoulders of three young ladies, Miss White side, Miss Macdonald, and Miss Lewis each of whom scored a success in a different way.

Miss Macdonald played most artistically and well as she always does, and the audience would have welcomed another number from her. Miss Lewis sang well and sweetly, a charming little song by Mr. Lynes, a rising young composer, whose wife is a Halifax lady, and then Thomas' Evening.

Miss Whiteside's repertoire is evidently most varied, snd she was good in all her numbers. Miss Whiteside was charmingly and simply dre sed in white, and was most graceful in manner and movement. It is to be hoped that another such recital may be given during the winter as it was good in every way.

That was a most excellent concert given by the Band of the King's ERegt., at Orpheus Hall last evening. It was in truth a brilliant spectacle, and

A pleasant change in the order of things is the opening to the public of the debates by the students of Kings college, that held on Thursday evening being very well attended and much enjoyed. The sub. ject was, resolved, "That the execution of Mary Queen of Scots was justifiable." Mr. Cox opened on the affirmative and Mr. Lynds on the negative side of the question, the sympathy of the audience being with the affirmative to the extent of one vote. The dance at "Island Home" on Tuesday evening was one of the pleasantest of the season. The night was stormy but that did not prevent a goodly num. ber being present. Among those invited were Miss Alice Lawson, Miss Alice Wiggins, Miss Ouseley, Miss Georgie Ouseley, Miss Morris, Miss Bertie Locke, Miss Lizzie Smith, Miss Dorothy Smith, Miss Nora Blanchard, Miss Louise Blanchard, Miss Allison, Miss Nellie Paulin, Miss Maggie Willets, Miss Lucy Gossip, Miss Nora Black and Messrs. de Mille, Lynds, Cox, Archibald, Young, Cumming, Tremain, Rowman, Leslie, Longley, Kaulbach, Fred O'Brien, Arthur Blanchard, F. A.G. Ouseley, H. W. Sangster, Ralph Smith.

A progressive euchre party was given by Mrs. E. Norman Dimock at "Highfiela" on Thursday evening. Those favored with invita ions were : Mr. and Mrs. Lawson, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Dimock, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Russell, Dr. and Mrs. Ryan, Dr. and Mrs. Reid, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Dimock, Mr. and Mrs. Reid, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Dimock, Mr. and M s. Aubrey Blanchard, Dr. and Mrs. Moody, Mrs. Jamieson, Miss Machin, Miss Snaver, Miss Ash-worth, Miss Timlin, Miss Dimock, Miss Bertie Locke, Miss Ahce Lawson, Miss Harvey, Rev. Father Kennedy, Mr. Bradford, Mr. Paulin, Mr. Mills, Mr. Cochrane, Mr. John Dimock. Mrs. Dimock received her guests in a handsome dress of black moire with pale blue silk bodice and steele trimmings. The ladies king prize, a mother of pear and silver paper knife was won by Miss Bertie Locke, the gentleman's king prize, three volumes of Oliver Wendell Holmes' works was taken by Father Kennedy. Mrs. Jamieson and Mr. Paulin carried off the booby prizes. The many friends of Mrs. Curry and Mrs. Forsyth who sailed for Jamaica and Bermuda respectively a fortnight ago are glad to learn they have arrived the stage and from this position discoursed sweet music. The class of music was well suited to the capacity of the hall and was at no time too loud. Their selections were as usual perfect.

The Misses Harrington rendered a violin solo with plano accompaniment in splendid style. Professor Currie sang in his usual good form, and his rendition of "The Red Scarf" brought forth greetings of applause to (such an extent that an encore was given. Mr. Gillis, always a favorite with Haltfax audiences, did not disappoint his admirers last evening when he sang "Beauty's Eyes," accompanied by a violin obligato. Mrs. Ellis delighted the audience with the song "Let me dream again," which was rendered in a sweet manner. The palm, however, is easily won by Miss Oliver; she looked exceedingly pretty, attired in cream crepon, and very sweetly and effectively sang "Turnham Toll." This was so thoroughly enjoyed by the audience, that Miss Oliver responded to the encore with "Molly and I and the Baby." The band accompanied Miss Oliver, and in the chorus the male voices assisted. It made a very pretty and harmonious blending.

Of the other male participants the song by Capt. Pollett, "Fudge the Q. C.," took (especially well. It was of a humorous vein, and being the second select on on the programme placed the audience in a merry mood. The legal fraternity, of whom there were quite a number present, enjoyed the gem wi h the rest, although at their expense. Corporal Ellis rendered a very beautiful clarionet solo, in which he was accompanied by the band. [Lieut. Everett gave two comic songs, which were admirably selected for the occasion. They abounded in hits of all sorts, at all classes, and both of his selections were loudly encored. The songs were evidently as popular as this young man is himself.

The concert was admirable throughout, and all will regret that a regiment, possessing such excellent musical talent, is not permitted to remain a longer time with us. The incoming regiment will have a difficult task ahead of them, if they surpass the King's in the aiscoursing of sweet music.

General Laurie and the Misses Laurie have gone to Scotland after having spent the summer and autumn at Oakfield.

There was a small tea at Bellevue this week and on Thursday a small farewell party for Captain and Mrs. Hartley and some of the officers of the King's Farm." regiment. That and a couple of dinners made up the sum of the week's events, for 'just now people are taking more interest in the Church of England mission than in party giving. The services this week have been absolutely thronged, and most of the hearers of the missioners have come away very deeply impressed. People of all denominations seem to go, and as usual the congregations contain fifty women to one man. But the addresses to business men have been wonderfully good and fairly well attended since the hour has been made a little later.
