HALIFAX NOTES.

PROGRESS is for sale in Halifax at the following prices: KNOWLES' BOOK STORE, 24 George street; C. L. SMITH, 111 Hollis street; MAYER & SUTHERLAND, Morris street; BROWN'S BOOK STORE, George street; BROWN'S DRUG STORE, Spring Garden road; FOWLER'S DRUG STORE, Opp. I. C. R. Depot; P. J. GRIFFIN, 17 Jacob street; BRADY NEWS CO., Railway depot; KENNEDY & CO., Granville street; F. J. HORNESMAN, Spring Garden road; W. E. HEBB, 139 Hollis street; N. S. BARKER & SON, George street; H. SILVER, Dartmouth N. S.; J. W. ALLEN, Dartmouth N. S.

Last Tuesday afternoon was band day at the polo, and an unusually large number made their way to the riding grounds during the afternoon to watch the game. Mrs. Alexander was hostess, it being her day to have the tea, and she looked very charming in white relieved with black ribbons. The King's band was present and played a number of pretty selections.

Tuesday evening Mrs. J. Taylor Wood gave a small, but very pleasant dance at her residence on Morris street, which was kept up till quite a late hour. It was a perfect night and the seats which had been arranged out of doors were very much appreciated, especially towards the latter part of the evening.

Mrs. Borden's "at home" at Pinehurst was a particularly pleasant one, in spite of a few showers which fell during the earlier part of the afternoon, just as the guests were beginning to arrive. Refreshments were served out of doors, and very pretty and tempting tables looked up, at intervals among the trees, and loaded with all the good things of the season in the way of fruits and sweets. Mrs. Borden received the guests on the lawn and looked remarkably well in green and black, the white being made entirely of a beautiful shade of green silk, with a tiny stripe. Seats were arranged everywhere out of doors for those who preferred resting to strolling about the grounds.

The tennis court, which is prettily situated, was constantly occupied during the afternoon; and what is always needed more on a private court than anywhere else—it is well surrounded by a netting, to keep the balls from straying off their own sweet will about the grounds. If the grounds are anywhere large it is sometimes a serious matter. When one serves a ball or two, and then has to spend the best part of an afternoon searching up hill and down dale for missing balls, it ceases to be a joke and takes not a little from the enjoyment of the game.

A number of light and pretty dresses were worn; but owing to the dullness of the afternoon, the majority had put on thick or dark tresses. It is very curious among the guests Sir Charles Hibbert and Lady Tupper. Both Sir Charles and Lady Tupper are looking remarkably well. Lady Tupper was handsomely dressed in black. At the general and Mrs. Longley were also among the guests, as were Judge, Mrs. and Miss Graham, who have been spending the summer out of Halifax, and who have just returned. Judge and Mrs. Sedgewick, Ottawa, were also present.

Miss Troop's wedding on Thursday afternoon, was one of the prettiest of home weddings possible. The bride wore a very handsome gown of plain white satin, and had for bridesmaids her sister, Miss Bessie Troop, and her twin niece, Miss Nicholson. Miss Troop wore a very lovely gown of deep yellow silk, and little Miss Nicholson was in white and pink. Both bridesmaids carried lovely bouquets, one of yellow roses and the other of pink carnations. The house was decorated altogether with goldenrod, which was very pretty and effective. Mr. Hugh Hartsborne was best man. The guests, as will have been seen from the lists already published, were chiefly near relatives and connections of the bride and groom, and the presents were very numerous, among them being several cheques. After the ceremony tea was served and the usual speeches made in a maudlin way on the lawn, which was a very sensible and delightful innovation. Mr. and Mrs. Shireff drove to Bedford, where they took the evening train for the upper provinces.

There were a number of small theatre parties last week and this week I hear of one very large one. The ships will soon be here again. The Green Gables will leave Quebec for Halifax the end of this week. I hear they are to be here unusually late this year but then the cold weather begins early it will put them to flight.

Mrs. R. L. Borden gave an "at home" at her residence, "Pinehurst," N. W. Arm, on Wednesday afternoon. The weather was delightful, which enabled the ladies to "appear out" in their hand-some dresses. The company were royally entertained, and the occasion has been described as one of the pleasantest of the season. The grounds are beautifully laid out, and the situation is one of the most desirable in the suburbs.

There was a nice little garden party on the beautiful grounds of E. Morrison, Esq., Bedford, on Saturday afternoon. Miss Morrison knows how to make her friends feel at home, and the ladies and gentlemen present enjoyed themselves to the utmost. The rain, which made its appearance in the evening, rather interfered with outside enjoyment, nevertheless the affair was in every respect a success. Herr and Frau Doering, Herr Bruno Siebeck and Herr Karl Doering arrived this (Fri) evening from a most successful concert tour through the province. Miss Minnie Doyle also returned from her vacation. They all begin Monday, Sept. 2, their work at the Conservatory. Applications for pupils will be received every day at 13 Church street.

There are to be three weddings in St. Paul's during the month of September—one on the 10th, another on the 12th, the date of the third has not yet been announced to me, but it is rumored on the 26th. A merchant, a well-known and enterprising steamship agent and a clergyman are the happy marriage participants. The coming brides are favorites in the community, and I am sure will receive the best wishes of a very large number of our citizens.

Ald. Mosher is to be married today (Wednesday) to Mrs. Lucy Wright, No. 27 East Yung street. The wedding will take place at the bride's residence at 4 o'clock. The happy couple who will take the 5 o'clock train—during their bridal trip will visit Canada and the United States, going as far as Washington. Rev. Mr. Hokin, pastor at Kaye street church, will perform the ceremony.

PELTICODIA.

SEPT. 3.—Mr. Gilbert Davidson of St. John was the guest of Mr. Keith on Monday. On Thursday evening Mrs. D. L. Trites gave a dance in honor of Miss Trites' guest, Miss Helen Seely of St. John. IMITATION IS THE SINCEREST FORM OF FLATTERY. The best proof that MINARD'S LINIMENT has extraordinary merits, and is in good repute with the public, is that it is extensively imitated. THE IMITATIONS RESEMBLE THE GENUINE ARTICLE IN APPEARANCE ONLY. They lack the general excellence of the Genuine. This notice is necessary as injurious and dangerous imitations, called WHITE LINIMENT &c., liable to produce chronic inflammation of the skin, are often substituted for MINARD'S LINIMENT by dealers, because they pay a large profit. They all sell on the merits of MINARD'S one in particular claiming to be made by a former proprietor of MINARD'S LINIMENT, which simply is a lie.
