marques on the lawn. Dancing was kept up till nearly two o'clock, when the pretty lights began to fade and thus ended a most successful and enjoyable social function upon which the gentlemen of the club are to be congratulated.

The residence of Mr. James Tibbits presented a very gay appearance on Friday evening on the occasion of the party given by Miss Frankie Tibbits in honor of her guest, Miss Wood, of Boston. The house is so well adapted for a summer party with its verandas on three sides, making many cozy and unique sitting out corners, which are all hung with burning and lighted with prettily colored Japanese lanterns.

The double parlors have a splendid floor for dancing and will be used for the purpose, the music being made the music perfect throughout. The charming hostess, who at all times is possessed with the happy faculty of making her guests feel thoroughly at home, and a dainty supper made the party a delightfully successful affair. Miss Tibbits received her guests with her father and Miss Wood and Mr. Archie Tibbits standing in the bay window at the end of the drawing-room. The invited guests were Mr. and Mrs. W. S. A very pretty wedding was today solemnized at the residence of Mr. Thos. Strangar when his daughter, Miss Annie Davidson, was united in marriage to Mr. Harry E. Harrison, son of Chas. Harrison, M. P. F., of Marguerite. The best man was Mr. Wm. Thos. Strangar, brother-in-law of the groom. Mrs. Oswald Crockett presided at the piano and played the wedding march as the bridal party entered the drawing room. The bride was gowned in a beautiful dress of white silk trimmed with white lace and ribbons and carried a bouquet of white roses. She was attended by her sister, Miss Agnes (Dot), who wore white helix and lace and carried a bouquet of pink roses and the groom had the support of Mr. George S. Strangar.

The groom's gift to his bride was brooch set in diamonds and rubies, and to the bridesmaid a pretty ring of rubies and pearls. The bride's father gave her a handsome piano, and the groom's father a cheque. The groom's present was a very handsome silver tea service.

The newly wedded couple took the afternoon train, and showers of rice and old shoes, for a wedding journey to Halifax and through Nova Scotia.

The going away gown was of brown cloth and hat capote match.

Mrs. Harrison will receive her bridal calls at her home in Marguerite the third week in September and at her father's in Fredericton during the fourth week in September.

On Thursday afternoon Mrs. Geo. F. Gregory gave an "at home" between five and seven, at which a large number of ladies were present and spent a pleasant hour. SER. 4.—The dedication of the new baptist church, Victoria street, on Sunday brought a great many visitors from outside places to be present at the ceremony. The church is the finest in town and one of the finest in the province. The services were very largely attended and in the evening many were present.

At the morning service Rev. A. W. Sawyer, D. D. president of Acadia university was the preacher. In the afternoon Rev. Geo. O. Gates of German street baptist church, St. John, preached a very eloquent sermon and Rev. W. W. Weeks of Moncton occupied the pulpit in the evening. Among the other ministers who assisted at the services were: Rev. Dr. Kierstead of Acadia, Rev. S. McCully Black of St. John, Rev. Mr. Corey of Charlottetown, P. E. I., Rev. Mr. White, Rev. Mr. Varley of Sydney, C. B. Rev. Mr. Palmer, Rev. Mr. H. W. B. Rev. Mr. Parker, Rev. Mr. G. J. Estabrooks who is assistant pastor with Dr. Steele. The church was beautifully decorated with flowers. In front of the pulpit and baptistry were arranged some very choice house plants loaned by different ladies of the congregation. The music was under the leadership of Prof. W. E. Rosendale, Mrs. C. O. Tupper presiding at the piano. The opening chorus Gloria in Excelsis, Mozart, was rendered by a large choir composed of Mrs. N. A. Rhodes, Misses Adams, Miss Wilson, Mrs. N. Cully, Misses Christie, Miss George, Miss Freeman, as sopranos, Mrs. Lawson, Mrs. Whittier and Miss Hattie Black as altos, Mr. S. L. Lawton and Mr. Cadwallader as tenors and the bass voices were Mr. J. A. Christie, H. P. R. L. Lushy and Mr. Whittier, Mr. H. W. Rogers assisted with the organ. The solo "For ever with the Lord" which was rendered by Mrs. C. O. Tupper accompanied by Prof. Steine, in a manner that elicited much praise. The quartette, "How long will Thou forget me of Love" by Mrs. N. A. Rhodes, Mrs. Louise George, Messrs Whittier and Cadwallader was sung very nicely, and the quartette was sung by Miss Wilson, Mrs. Lawson, Messrs Lawson and Lushy. The beautiful solo, O Calvary was rendered in a highly artistic manner by Miss Anna Christie, and Mr. John N. Curry sang in his usual style a solo entitled "The Holy City." To Rev. Dr. Steele's untiring efforts the credit of having such a fine building is largely due.
