residence. There were a number of guests and tea was served ou the laws, the evening being a particularly flae one. Later in the evening, the guests went into the house, and waltzing was enjoyed in the long drawing room. It was a most charming entertainment, and was given chiefly for the pleasure of Miss Kate Smith of Windsor, who spent a few days with Miss 'iraham, before she returned to Windsor.

Mr. Everitt Barnard gave a buck brard ride on Friday afternoon to Red Beach for the entertainment of his friend and guest, Mr. Sayward of Boston. Those who were on this party were: Miss Lillie Eaton, Miss Dora Rounds, Miss Kate Nelson, Miss Helen Newton, Miss Josephine Hamm, and Miss Mollie Robbins; Messrs. George Downes, Rufus Porter, Henry Vose, and Sayward. Supper was served at the Agnew House, and the party did not return until a late hour in the evening.

The pleasantest event of the week 'as the marriage of Miss Fannie Hayco k,eldest daughter of Mr. Wallace Havcock to Mr. Clarence Trimble, which took place in Cuais at the home of the bride's parents. The marriage ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Padleford of the baptist church and after congratulations and luncheon, which was served immediate y after the ceremony, the happy pair left in the five o'clock train for Bangor, their future home. The presents were most handsome and valuable, the bride being a pronounced favorite among her friends, both in St. Staohan and C dais, who wish her every happineas.
