

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

(CONTINUED FROM FIFTH PAGE.)

Prof. A. W. Duff at one time of the University of New Brunswick, but now of Lafayette, Ind., is in the city accompanied by Mrs. Duff; they will spend some weeks at the Bay Shore.

Mrs. McKewen and Mrs. Campbell and child returned home Friday after a pleasant visit to St. Stephen.

R. V. Mc. Golliver spent part of last week in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dearborn are home again; they spent the past winter in the south.

Miss Minnie McLeod, of Amherst, is visiting her friend, Miss Hawker, Charlotte street.

Mrs. Scott, of Boston, and her child, are visiting Mrs. Scott's mother, Mrs. Cronin, of Carmarthen street.

Miss Lizzie Hawker entertained a number of her friends at a picnic in honor of her guest, Miss McLeod, at the Bay shore on Tuesday afternoon. Quite a large party were present and a very delightful afternoon was spent.

Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Dowling are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a daughter.

Mr. John Morrison, brother of Dr. J. H. Morrison, of this city, has accepted a position in St. Sinai, hospital, New York. He lately graduated from the New York college of physicians and surgeons.

Mr. and Mrs. D. McManis and family have come to St. Andrews to spend the summer.

Alderman Waring went to Halifax this week where he will take the Taymouth Castle for St. Kitts.

Miss Forence Young who arrived from Bermuda on the Taymouth Castle last Monday, is the guest of her friend, Miss Daisy Outram, Goodrich street.

Mr. and Mrs. Hendershot spent a short time in Fredericton lately visiting friends.

Mrs. Edward Sears removed this week to her summer residence at Westfield.

The garden party given by the Kings' Daughters on Wm. Kerr's grounds at Mount Pleasant, on Thursday evening was without doubt one of the very nicest events that has taken place yet this season. The grounds are very attractive and interesting and the surrounding scenery is most beautiful. A large number of persons were present and both from a social and financial standpoint the affair was most successful.

Miss Dearborn and Mr. Dearborn, are in Shediac for a short time.

Miss Downing, of Marysville, is in the city to spend Sunday with friends.

One of the prettiest weddings of the season was that of Miss Grace Kenney (formerly of St. John N. B.) and Mr. Frank K. Kane, which took place at the church of the Holy Sepulchre New York June 12th. The church was beautifully decorated, palms and lilies were massed in profusion around the altar and the ceremony was witnessed by hundreds of likes and friends. A full choral service, beautifully rendered, made the event one long to be remembered by all who attended.

The bride wore a magnificent gown of white satin and a point lace; Miss Edna Margeson, a little fairy in white attended the bride as flower girl; Miss Hattie Kenney, a sister of the bride, as maid of honor, was beautifully gowned in pink lilies, with white leghorn hat trimmed with pink roses and chiffon. Mr. Harry Cranfield, formerly of Montreal, N. B., was best man. The ushers were Messrs. Frank H. Hall, George Thompson, Francis (St. John N. B.), and Messrs. Elwin Hewitt and Hewitt, of New York City. After an elaborate wedding lunch served at the home of the bride, the happy couple sailed for Old Point Comfort, Va., where they will spend the honeymoon; from there they intend going to Halifax to spend a few weeks with Mr. W. L. Kane, brother of the bridegroom.

Among the guests were Mrs. Margaret Kenney, Mr. and Mrs. Fred K. Kenney, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Allen and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. James Price and Miss Nellie Price, Mr. and Mrs. William Price, Mr. and Mrs. Margeson, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Nevins, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Montfort, Mr. and Mrs. J. Dawson Purdy, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Buzby, Maj. and Mrs. John H. Stock, Capt. and Mrs. N. B. Thurston, Hon. and Mrs. C. F. Brown, Dr. and Mrs. Richardson, Judge Brandt, Misses Brandt, Rev. R. I. McNeil, D. D. Prof. C. W. D. Coffin, Prof. Wm. J. and Mrs. Kichen, Mrs. Hewitt and daughter, Mrs. Thompson, Miss Nellie Thompson, Miss Carrie Price, Miss Kate Price.

Mr. Kane, formerly a Truro boy, is the junior member of the firm of "The 14th St. Publishing House," and is also president of the N. Y. Church Pub. Co., a firm interested in the publication of some 70,000 church monthlies in the cities of New York, Brooklyn, Philadelphia and Chicago.

Mrs. James Scribner is the guest of Mrs. O. Emery, of King street (East).

Mrs. Gardiner Taylor expects her niece, Miss Drinkwater, of Montreal, to pay her a lengthy visit this summer.

Mr. Lucien de Bury is home from St. Francis Xavier college Antigonish, having completed his law course in that institution.

Mrs. Morris Robinson has returned from Fredericton where she was staying for the benefit of her daughter's health, which is much improved by the change.

Mr. Harry Scovill is out of town on a fishing trip but will return this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee are expected to return from their wedding trip today. They will live on Wright street next to George A. Schofield's residence.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Herbert Noel are also expected home this week.

Mrs. deWolfe Spurr spent Sunday with friends in Robesay.

There was quite a large dance at Robesay one evening this week; a number of St. John people went out in the afternoon to be present at it.

Mr. Alfred S. Black, formerly of this city, but now of New York, is visiting his mother on Elliott Row.

Rev. L. G. and Mrs. MacNeill returned from their European trip on Thursday morning. They report an exceedingly pleasant two months. Mrs. MacNeill will receive her callers next week. Mr. and Mrs. MacNeill are at present at the Clifton.

Mr. and Mrs. Nase are home again from their wedding trip and will also receive their friends next week.

The marriage took place Wednesday at St. Peter's church, north end, of Mr. Charles Lamb and Miss Mary Shea. The bride was attended by Miss M. Shea of Bangor while Mr. P. Shea lent assistance to the groom. Mr. and Mrs. Shea received many beautiful and useful presents from their friends.

Miss Kate Hopper who has been visiting friends in Fredericton, has returned home. Miss Hobbs returned with her and will spend a short time here.

St. John—North End.

June 19.—Mrs. William Harding and Master Lawrence Harding, of Yarmouth, Nova Scotia, are visiting Mrs. Harding's parents Mr. and Mrs. James Price.

Miss Helen Godard is visiting her sister Mrs. Vaughan.

Miss Louise Murray, has returned from a vacation at St. Francis, (not San Francisco as the comic made my last notes state).

Dr. Stewart accompanied by his son passed through the city en route for Marysville, this week. Messrs. Hobbs, Rudbeck, Holly, Fiewelling are enjoying a fishing party at the South Branch.

Miss Florence Gale has returned from Fredericton, where she has been pursuing her studies.

Rev. Wm. Penna will represent north end at the conference held at Marysville.

Mrs. Sam Vaughan is suffering from a severe attack of tonsillitis.

Mr. Waring has gone to Halifax, Nova Scotia, where he will take passage for the West Indies.

Miss Godard, daughter of Mr. Fred Godard, has returned from Fredericton, where she has been a student of the normal school.

Miss Hazel Smith has been spending a few days with Miss Lena Rivers at Pleasant Point.

The Rev. Wm. Dobson and family, of Bermuda, are the guests of Miss Henderson. On Sunday last Mr. Dobson's many old friends had again the pleasure of listening to his preaching.

Miss Gertrude Forbes who has returned from Fredericton has her friend, Miss DeWolfe, of St. Stephen, visiting her.

Mr. A. U. Shaw spent a few days in Fredericton, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. March have issued invitations to their friends to spend Friday as their guests at the Island.

Mrs. Wm. McLean is visiting friends at Fredericton.

NYDIA.

FREDERICTON.

[PROGRESS is for sale in Fredericton by W. T. H. Fenety and J. H. Hawthorne.]

The air is filled with the merry jingle of wedding bells. Scarcely a day has passed since the rosy month of June began but there has been some pleasant event of this kind to chronicle.

On Thursday morning last at St. Ann's church at an early hour, was solemnized the marriage of Mr. Arthur M. Gibson to Miss Kathleen G. second daughter of ex-mayor Harry Beckwith, the bride who is a bright charming girl and a great favorite among all her associates was gowned in a costume of cream with trimmings of cream lace and carried a bouquet of white roses. She was attended by her sister, Miss Ethel Beckwith and her cousin, Miss Minnie Godkin, who wore pink with cream lace and large flower hats. The gift of the groom to the bride was a handsome gold watch and to the bridesmaid a pretty stick pin. The bride's going away gown was of navy blue with hat to match. Mrs. Gibson will be at home to her friends on the 24th and 25th June at the residence of ex-mayor Beckwith.

Another pleasant event will take place in St. Paul's church on Wednesday next at high noon, when one of St. John's medical fraternity will lead to St. John's altar one of our sweetest girls.

Col. and Mrs. Mammell have returned from a two weeks visit to the Bay shore, the Col. is much improved in health.

Mrs. Donald Fraser is here from Maine, visiting her sister Mrs. Fred Robinson at Nashwaakiss.

Miss Inch is here from Boston, and is the guest of her uncle, Dr. J. R. Inch.

Mr. Machum, of St. John, has been spending a few days with friends here.

Prof. and Mrs. Duff, are here from Lafayette Ind. and are the guests of Mrs. Duff's mother, Mrs. McIntosh at Kingscliff.

Picnics and outings parties seem to be the order of the day during this warm weather or rather of the evenings, for most of the outings parties are held in the evening.

The Misses Powys are this evening entertaining a picnic party at the Hermitage.

Miss Nan Ross, of the U. N. B. who has been spending a few days the guest of Miss Annie Tibbitts, left to day for her home in Woodstock.

Mrs. Fisher, of Halifax, is the guest of her sister Mrs. Harry Beckwith.

Thursday last a large party of picnickers chaperoned by Mrs. T. C. Allen, Mrs. T. Loggie and Mrs. McLearn, canoed up the Nashwaakiss, where after a pleasant time spent in games and supper gaily fished on the green, they canoed home in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Hendershot of St. John have been spending a few days here.

Mrs. Boone of Boston is visiting at Mrs. Walter McFarlane Nashwaakiss.

Miss Downing of Marysville will spend Sunday in St. John with friends.

The Misses Bourne, McDermott Whitlock and Murray have returned to their homes for the vacation.

Miss Carrie Seely of St. John, graduate of the Newport Hospital, is the guest of her friend, Mrs. Odour Sharpe.

Miss Winter McAllister is the guest of Mrs. Ned Murdoch.

Mrs. F. B. Edgecombe and Mrs. Edwards are having a small picnic to-day at Sewell's farm.

Captain Hugh McKenzie, who has been taking a special course at the military school, returned to his home at Beddick to-day.

The Misses Taylor gave a small picnic party on Thursday last in honor of their guests, Mrs. Charles Harrison and Miss Amy Fellows.

Miss Winnie Godkin has returned home from Boston.

Mr. Byron Coulthard and Mr. Archie Tibbitts are building a summer camp on the river bank above St. John's Camp Comfort, which will be named the name of Beach Knoll. It is expected the first outing party of the season will go to Beach Knoll on Saturday. The camp comfort boys are building a log cabin next to Beach Knoll and they have named their place, Pine Bluff.

Miss Fannie Phair is visiting friends at St. John. Miss Annie Nixon, of St. John, is visiting Mrs. McCready.

Miss McManley had a small company on Friday evening.

Mrs. Marshall Richey and daughter, Miss Louise of Havelland are here to spend the summer.

Mrs. Fred Hayward has issued invitations for a large picnic for Saturday, the party to take the Aberdeen for down river.

Mr. Johnson, of Charlottetown, has arrived here and with Mrs. Johnson is the guest of Mrs. Leonard.

Miss Frankie Tibbitts had a small tea party on Saturday evening.

Dr. and Mrs. Atterton, of Toronto, are expected here about the 1st of July and will probably stay here permanently.

Miss Myrtle Gutter who has been quite seriously ill, is at present to say much improved.

It will be interesting to many to know that Mrs. W. H. Todd so long interested in the W. C. T. U. in this town and who is now in England attending the great international meeting of the W. C. T. U. in London, was selected to read a chapter from the bible at a service held in the city Temple.

A select and cultivated audience greeted Mr. Wadsworth Harris, in St. Croix hall, Calais, last evening to listen to his dramatic readings which were most interesting, and as of old given in a most spirited style. The programme was carefully selected and Mr. Harris held the attention of his audience throughout the evening.

The friends of Mrs. George W. Lord are pleased to see her able to drive out, after so many weeks of serious illness.

Mrs. Susan Balkam, who has been the guest of Miss Alice Pike has returned to her home in Robinston.

While driving from Hotel DeMonts on Friday evening, where with a party of friends he had been dining, Mr. Julius T. Whitlock's carriage was struck by a passing team, and Mr. Whitlock and two young ladies with whom he was driving were thrown out. Fortunately with the exception of a few bruises, which fell to the lot of Mr. Whitlock, they escaped without injury.

Mrs. W. B. Wetmore is this afternoon entertaining her Sunday school class at her residence. A picnic supper will be served under the fine old oak trees in her grounds.

Major A. J. Hill is making extensive improvements to the grounds surrounding his residence which he recently purchased on Main street, Calais.

Mr. E. B. Snow is in town and is a guest of Captain L. T. Smith.

Mrs. A. L. Drake is visiting friends in St. John.

Mr. George W. Beals, of Boston, is visiting Calais this week.

Mrs. O. S. Newham entertained the Pansy club at the Rectory, on Friday evening, her daughter, Miss Edith Newham being a member of the club. Ice cream and cake was served at ten o'clock.

Mrs. Mabel Marchie is in Cambridge, Mass., to attend commencement at Harvard.

Mr. Edward Harris, who is summering at Red Beach, has been spending a few days in Calais, with his mother, Mrs. Harris.

Mrs. John Hodgins of Ottawa, arrived in Calais on Saturday, and will visit her father, Judge Downes.

Mr. George Green is at home again, after several weeks' absence in the Western States.

Mrs. George Hinds will leave this week for an extended visit in Boston and other cities.

Dr. Fred Gunter returned to Boston, he having been called here on account of his sister's serious illness.

Mrs. Wilson of St. John is visiting her son Mr. Angus Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. Otty and daughter Miss Fannie of Hampton are visiting friends here.

Pleasant rumors are afloat regarding a wedding to take place very soon; the bride elect resides on York street and will make her home in Halifax.

Mrs. Anne Thompson (St. Louis) is here visiting at Mrs. Wm. Coopers.

Mr. Roy Wheeler of St. John is also a guest at Mr. Coopers.

Mr. Geo. F. Beverly paid a short visit here this week and was a guest with relatives at Grape Cottage this week.

Miss Barber of St. John is the guest of Mrs. Wm. Wilson, Waterloo row.

Miss Archie Lynch and Miss Eva Wright of Lowell Mass. are here visiting friends.

Mrs. Arthur Edgecombe of St. John is visiting her friends in town.

Rumors are afloat of a marriage soon to be solemnized in which the groom is a prominent member of the Presbyterian church.

CRICKET.

SHEDIAK.

[PROGRESS is for sale in Shediac by Fred Ingles SHEDIAK, June 19.—Mr. O. L. Melanson and Dr. Belliveau drove to Memramcook and spent a day last week.]

Miss Laura McFadden is spending a few weeks at her brother's home in the Annapolis Valley.

Miss Lottie Deacon, who has been in Moncton during the spring months, has returned home, and is the guest of her cousin, Mrs. George Klinear, at Shediac Cape.

Mr. Arthur Rodgers, of Montreal, was in town the guest of D. S. Harper, this week.

Mr. Harry Sprague, who has been in New York for the past year, returned on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Hamilton, accompanied by Mrs. Baxter, of Moncton, left Monday, on a driving tour, through Nova Scotia.

Miss Thea, accompanied by her sister Mrs. T. Hicks, of Charlottetown, arrived home Tuesday.

Mr. W. A. Russell spent Tuesday in Sackville.

Mrs. Diamond, of Halifax, is the guest of Mrs. James Webster, Riverside.

Rev. Mr. Balderston, left on Monday, for Fredericton, to attend the Methodist conference, which meets there this week.

Mrs. Borden, of Halifax, is the guest of his brother, Mr. Borden, of the Halifax banking company of this place.

Mrs. F. J. White who for some time has so ably filled the position as organist of Knox church, was presented by the choir, with a very handsome, and useful souvenir in silver, on the eve of her departure for Moncton, where she will reside in future. The address accompanying the presentation, gave expression to the good wishes of the choir, and their appreciation of her untiring efforts to make it a success. Mrs. White carries with her many sincere wishes for her happiness, in her new home.

Miss Dearborn and her brother, of St. John are spending a few days at the Weldon house.

Mr. and Mrs. Irving, of Baie-Comeau, are in town the guests of Mrs. Irving's parents.

The death of Miss Cassie Steadman which occurred last week, was heard of with deep regret by her many friends. Deceased was a resident of Shediac for several years and was a favorite, with both young and old. Her long illness she was nursed and carefully cared for by her cousin, Mrs. Deacon, Sackville street, for whom much sympathy is expressed in this bereavement. The funeral took place Thursday and was largely attended. The remains were taken to Moncton and interred in the cemetery there.

ST. STEPHEN AND CALAIS.

[PROGRESS is for sale in St. Stephen by Master Ralph Trainor, and at the book store of R. S. Daggett, G. S. Wall and J. Vroom & Co. in Calais at C. F. Froese's.]

June 19.—Cards of invitation were given today by Mr. and Mrs. George Owen Dexter, to a reception at their residence in Milltown, on Wednesday, July twenty-fourth and thirty-first.

Mr. Guy Grimmer Marchie, of Harvard, '95, will sail on June 26th, immediately after commencement, for Europe, and will remain abroad for a year, visiting all cities of note.

Dr. and Mrs. W. T. Black have moved to their pretty villa on the river bank some four miles from Calais. The villa has recently been built by Dr. Black, is most picturesque, and has every modern convenience.

Mrs. Bradlee Eaton, of Mott Haven, New York, and her family will spend the summer months in Calais, and are expected to arrive at an early date.

Mr. Samuel Johnson, of St. George, has been making a brief visit in town.

A number of relatives and friends were invited to Dover Hill, the residence of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Kome, last evening, and were entertained most charmingly by the children of their host and hostess who with their governess Miss Sanson, assisted by Miss Winnie Ford, gave a programme of pretty recitations, songs, and a wand drill. After the entertainment, supper was served. The whole thing was a surprise to Mr. and Mrs. Young, planned by the children and Miss Sanson, and was enjoyed by them and their guests most heartily.

Miss Jessie Campbell, Whitlock, has given invitations to St. John's church to take place at her residence tomorrow (Thursday) evening, to which all the parents and friends of her pupils are invited.

The ladies of Trinity church have arranged an ice cream party to be given on the grounds surrounding the residence of Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Todd on the evening of June twenty-fifth. There will be a band in attendance and the grounds and piazzas will be lighted with Chinese lanterns and coloured lights, and no pains will be spared to make it a success.

It will be interesting to many to know that Mrs. W. H. Todd so long interested in the W. C. T. U. in this town and who is now in England attending the great international meeting of the W. C. T. U. in London, was selected to read a chapter from the bible at a service held in the city Temple.

A select and cultivated audience greeted Mr. Wadsworth Harris, in St. Croix hall, Calais, last evening to listen to his dramatic readings which were most interesting, and as of old given in a most spirited style. The programme was carefully selected and Mr. Harris held the attention of his audience throughout the evening.

The friends of Mrs. George W. Lord are pleased to see her able to drive out, after so many weeks of serious illness.

Mrs. Susan Balkam, who has been the guest of Miss Alice Pike has returned to her home in Robinston.

While driving from Hotel DeMonts on Friday evening, where with a party of friends he had been dining, Mr. Julius T. Whitlock's carriage was struck by a passing team, and Mr. Whitlock and two young ladies with whom he was driving were thrown out. Fortunately with the exception of a few bruises, which fell to the lot of Mr. Whitlock, they escaped without injury.

Mrs. W. B. Wetmore is this afternoon entertaining her Sunday school class at her residence. A picnic supper will be served under the fine old oak trees in her grounds.

Major A. J. Hill is making extensive improvements to the grounds surrounding his residence which he recently purchased on Main street, Calais.

Mr. E. B. Snow is in town and is a guest of Captain L. T. Smith.

Mrs. A. L. Drake is visiting friends in St. John.

Mr. George W. Beals, of Boston, is visiting Calais this week.

Mrs. O. S. Newham entertained the Pansy club at the Rectory, on Friday evening, her daughter, Miss Edith Newham being a member of the club. Ice cream and cake was served at ten o'clock.

Mrs. Mabel Marchie is in Cambridge, Mass., to attend commencement at Harvard.

Mr. Edward Harris, who is summering at Red Beach, has been spending a few days in Calais, with his mother, Mrs. Harris.

Mrs. John Hodgins of Ottawa, arrived in Calais on Saturday, and will visit her father, Judge Downes.

Mr. George Green is at home again, after several weeks' absence in the Western States.

Mrs. George Hinds will leave this week for an extended visit in Boston and other cities.

CORNWALL'S BICYCLE AGENCY.

Controlling the largest line of wheels represented in Canada, including English, American and Canadian Wheels.

The following are prices of some of our leading lines of Wheels;—

|                                  |                  |
|----------------------------------|------------------|
| Junior                           | $35.00          |
| Empire, (Royal Mail)             | 50.00            |
| Prince and Princess              | 50.00 each       |
| Crescents                        | 55.00 to $80.   |
| Spartan                          | 70.00            |
| Duke and Duchess                 | 75.00            |
| Fleet, Ladies and Gentlemen's    | 90.00            |
| Road King                        | 90.00            |
| Davies "Uptodate"                | 100.00           |
| Keating, Ladies' and Gentlemen's | 110.00           |
| Hyslops                          | 110.00           |
| Whitworths'                      | 110.00           |
| Beeston Humber                   | 120.00 to $125. |

We can meet all demands both in quality and price.

REPAIRS PROMPTLY ATTENDED TO.

We have Second Hand Wheels for Sale.

Also full assortment of Cycle Accessories.

See our samples and get our catalogue before purchasing and you will not make a mistake.

IRA CORNWALL, General Agent,

I. E. CORNWALL, Special Agent.

Board of Trade Building
ST. JOHN, N. B.
Send for Catalogue.

Rev. W. C. Goucher arrived from Campbellton on Monday.

Mr. John D. Chipman made a flying visit to Petitoctod during this week.

Miss Ellen Todd, who has been in Boston for several months has decided to accompany any lady friend who with her daughters will visit Europe and remain several months. Miss Todd's numerous friends will be pleased to hear of the pleasure she will enjoy, and wish her bon voyage.

Mrs. Fredric A. Pike, arrived on Tuesday from Plainfield, New Jersey, and will spend the summer in Calais, the guest of Miss Alice Pike.

Mrs. Frank Corey left on Tuesday evening for Portland, Maine, to spend a fortnight in that city with relatives.

Miss Isabelle King, returned on Saturday from Boston, where she has been engaged in Kindergarten work.