We have had scarcely any teas this reason but now that autumn is here they are in :ull swing and very bright and acceptable they are these cool afternoons. However, Halifax people scarcely regard teas as much of a social gaiety; they are nice now as a sort of rest before our winter whirl begins.

On Tuesday afternoon the officers of the Cleopatra gave a cheery at home. It was on the same afternoon as the football match so the majority watched that intricate game before they repaired to the at home. The deck of the Cleopatra had been well sheltered and covered in with flags; the ship had come to the dockyard wharf for the occasion, so there was bo going off in boats. The ship looked very pretty especially as dusk drew near and the lights were lit. More than half the space was reserved for dancing and a great deal of it was done for an afternoon party. Nobody was arrayed for dancing as most of them were arrayed for anything but dancing -furs being greatly in evidence and many of them very smart and neat in seal skin coats. The men were all in uniform. Tea was served on deck at five o'clock and was acceptable, as the afternoon was chilly. The tea was an early one as the Admiral and Mrs. Erskine were giving a farewell dinner to the officers as, the Cleopatra sailed for England the next morning. Capt. Curzon-Howe and the officers will be much missed in St. John's Nild. where they spent the last three summers, and we hear of the engagement of one of them to a charming and accomplished young lady in that | that evening at their residence, King street. city. A very pleasant event of last week was Mrs. Payzant,s at home. The rooms of her p'easant house on Spring Garden road were very pretty and the tea table was charmingly arranged with flowers and fruit. Mrs. Payzant received in the drawing room and looked extremely well. At one time the drawing rooms and tea room were crowded as people began to drift in from the football match at the eleven when an elaborate supper was served. Those Wanderer's grounds. known people present and a good sprinkling of clergymen.

Major Monteith A. S. C., will be much missed when he goes to England in a few weeks, his term here having expired. He is well known in musical circles. The Major has made a host of friends. All will be sorry when obliged to bid him good bye.

Major and Mrs. Fincham left last week for London where they will spent most of the winter.

An interesting Hallowe'en party was given on the evening of the 31st at a well known house where this charming old custom has always been kept up; all the old tricks even to bobbing and diving for apples were tried and I am told some very curious coincidences happened in regard to the burning of nuts and molten lead. Among the signs was a ship and a ring which ought to be clear enough to satisfy any one.

Halifax has a new engagement to talk about, that of a charming young lady well k town here and an equally well known naval man.

Mrs. Walter Doull has cards out for an at home today (Tuesday) from five to seven o'clock; and Mrs. W. B. Taylor has an at home on Thursday evening; in fact this week will be a very gay one. On Sunday Hon. Mrs. Moore entertained several of the naval officers to dinner at Bellevue.

On Monday the General and Mrs. Montgomery.

Moore gave a very large and select dinner party to the departing officers. The ladies were all hand somely dressed and the evening was a most pleasant one.

Hon. Mrs. Moore had a very charming at home last week, and bad weather notwithstanding, about 150 of our leading society people were present. The party was not a late one and by seven o'clock the roll of the many carriages had died away, and carried the guests homeward to prepare for the opera or some other social function.

The Gilbert Opera Company closed its six weeks engagement on Saturday last. What an opera lov. ing city Halifax is. It is very few cities in Canada that any company plays for so long a time. I hear they play-a week-in St. John, shortly. Ot the pictures I think the Gleaner was generally conceded to be the best, and it never fails to draw en thusiastic encores.

Miss Hector McInnes was among last week's hostesses and a charming one she made at her at home from 4.30 to 6 p.m.

Mrs. John Taylor and her daughter Mrs. Wm. Curry of Windsor, leave this week for J amaica to The ships, by the way, are going to be much missed this year, and every one will be sorry as well when admiralty house is closed for the season. Admiral and Mrs. Erskine have done a good deal in the way of entertaining since they came to Haltfax and have made many friends, so that their absence during the winter will leave a blank. The flagship has also added to the gaiety of the year, by one of the best dances given during the season, and people will see her leave for Bermuda with regret, and will be glad to see ber back in the spring.

WINDSOR.

[PROGRESS 15 for sale in Windsor at Knowles book store and by F. W. Dakin.]

WINDSOR, Nov. 5 .- Football is very much to the front this week and the weather has been the kind to permit one seeing the beginning and ending of a game without being chilled. The Collegiate school and town team have had some pretty games with victory of a few points for the latter, and last Tues day the town and college gave a fine game without: scoring on either side. Saturday the Acacia Villa school and town had a match on the College grounds with an easy victory for the latter.

A delightful party was given on Wednesday evenin~ by Mrs. Norman Dimock, Highfield. It is certainly an ideal house for dancing the large dining room and hall with their polished floors making even the dancers who are only there to look pretty vere unable to resist tripping the light fantastic

Miss Wiggins, looked very well in pink silk. Miss Manners wore a gown of white embroidered silk

Miss Lizzie Smith wore a beautiful dress of pink embroidered silk trima ea with chiffon.

Miss Lawson a very becoming gown of rose colored silk.

Miss MacKintosh, pale green silk silver trimming.

Miss Frances Ouseley looked well in a gown of ellow silk trimmed with lace. Miss Louise Blanchard, white crepon trimmed with lace and ribbon.

Miss Ashworth, gown of white crepon. A foot-ball match was played on Saturday, on Kings College grounds between a team from Acacia Villa Horton, and a team from the Blue acket. A. A. in which the visitors were badly beaten. The score being 10 to nothing in favor of the B. J.

A. A.'s Rev. Dr. Mockridge of Toronto, Ont., took the services in Christ church on Sunday. During the year Dr. Mockridge spent in Windsor as rector of Christ church he made many friends who were glad to see and hear him again.

Rev. Father Kennedy has returned from his trip to Ireland.

The fair held in the drill shed by the Y. W. C. T. U., on Oct. 31st and Nov. 1st and 2nd was a decided success. A novel method in the arrangement was pursued. This was called the Feast of Days, and was quite attractive. A goodly sum was realized to swell the funds of the Y.'s.

A. J. Campbell, G. A. Hall, G. H. Williams, W. P. McKay, A. C. Smith, and E. M. Fulton are to be congratulated throughout. To be sure, they had many willing helpers amoung their lady and genitemen friends, but the most onerous work of the whole affair devolved upon the above men. tioned gentlemen. The arrangements were all in perfect taste exhibiting much happy fore-thought Miss Bowman had on a gown of rose colored silk for the comfort and enjoyment of the guests. There was ample room for sitting out, beside the cardr. oms and spacious supper-room, where a running supper was laid, the tables being loaded with every thing most tempting. The music which was part of the Halifax Amorina band, had a position at one end of the ball-room. The band itself being almost entirely concealed by an artistic arrangement of palms and potted plants. On every hand were heard praises of the very graceful and efficent chaperonage of :-- Mrs. Thos. McKay, Mrs. H. T. Harding and Mrs. A. D Wetmore, who were unceasing in their efforts for the enjoyment of the guests, who were: Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Amstrong, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Crowe, Mr. and Mrs. A.
