Nov. 6-The flags on all the public buildings are flying at half mast to day, in token of respect for the memory of the late John A. Humphrey, whose funeral takes place this afternoon. The news of Mr. Humpbrey's death which took place Sunday afternoon, was not unexpected, as it was known in town on Saturday that Drs. Bayard and Holden of St John, who were summoned to Moncton on Friday to consult with Dr. Ross, had given the family little hope, and his illness was likely to terminate fatally; but the tidings that one of Moncton's most public spirited citizens was no more, were received with universal expressions of sor: ow. Mr. Humphrey was one of the wealthiest men in Westmoreland County as well as one of the most generous and charitable but so unassuming in all his h. bits that man of affairs that he will be remembered so much | time. as the kindly country gentleman, the warm friend, the good neighbor, and the devoted husband and father, that he will be remembered. Mr. Humphrey left a widow-sister of Messrs, J. L. and C. P. Harris of this city-and four children, Mrs. L. D. Lockhart of Moncton, the Misses Jane and Mary Humphrey, and Mrs. W. F. Humphrey, all of Moncton. The many friends of Mr. J. J. Taylor will hear with regret that he is prostrated with typhoid fever. Fortunately his case is a mild one, and beyond the tedious confinement incidental to fever, no unpleasant results are anticipated.

Preparations for the ball to which I referred lately, are being carried on; the managing committee have wisely decided to hold the festivity in Enman's hall instead of the Victoria rink, as the latter is too spacious for anything but the largest ball while Euman's hall combines every requisite for a small and informal dance. The floor is excellent, the dressing rooms conveniest and the size ample without being so drearily large as to give the guests an impression of being lost. I understand that the invitations will be limited to Moncton.

Miss Harper of Shediac is spending a few days in town the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Bell of Church Rev. Mr. Bryant of St. John has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Hooper at St. George's Rectory during the past few days. Mr. Bryan: preached in St. George's on Sunday morning. Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Borden left town on Thursday, for St. John, where Mrs. Borden intends spending a month with relatives. Miss Whitney, who is attending the Girl's school

Thursday.

Mrs. Landry, paid a short visit to Moncton on Thursday.

Mr. Walter Summer, formerly of Moneton, bu

now of Truro, spent a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. T. Sumner, of St. George street, last week. Rev. J. Millen Robinson, pastor of St. John's Presbyterian church, and Mrs. Robinson, received a very pleasant token of the affectionate esteem in which they are held by their people on Friday evening last. The congregation had discovered that it was the fifteenth anniversary of their wedding, and shortly after tea the pastor and his wife were waited on by a few of their friends and in_ vited to the basement of the church where they found a number of the congregation assembled Mr. George Younger was called to the chair, and Mr. S. W. Irons at once proceeded to read an address congratulating Mr. and Mrs. Robinson upon the occa-ion of their crystal wedding, expressing the legard in which they are held by their congregation, and begging their acceptance on behalf of the ladies of the church of a number of very hand-some gifts, consisting of a silver teaservice, a very handsome china dinner service, a dezen silver spoons, silver soup ladle, set of carvers, silver banquet lamp, pair of vases and large damask linen

Mr. Robinson replied in appropriate terms, and after an hour spent in music and conversation, re-freshments were served and a very pleasant evening brought to a close.

we k was the large dance given by Mrs. E. Biden for the many friends of Mr. Harry and Miss Helen Biden last Friday evening, at her residence, on Eddy street. The parlors were devoted to dancing and several very cosy sitting out places were found in the upper and lower halls which were well patron zed during the evening. Mrs. Biden, who is an ideal hostess, received her guests in a becoming black gown and Miss Helen was attired in a pretty dress of pink and cream challie with green satin trimmings. The fair young guests were very prettily gowned making one of the prettiest dances of the season. Among the most noticeable toilettes worn by the young ladies was that of Mlss Helen Pipes, being of cream crepe with deep collar of cream chiffon. Miss Jessie McLeod looked very pretty in a gown of white muslin trimmed with narrow hands of lace. Miss Peters of Halifax, looked very nice in a gown of pick crepon, as did also Miss Mable Pugsley, who was gowned in pink silk. Miss Love was in white and Miss Ella Hilison in a pretty dress of pink silk with cream lace trimmings. Miss Munro looked very pretty in a gown of cream with pink trimmings. Among the younger girls Miss Bessie Sutcliffe, Miss Lena Welling, Miss Grace Pipes, Miss Gertie Hillson, who all wore dresses of different white material, looked very nice. The other guests were Miss May Brown, Miss Harris, Miss Helen Sleep, Miss Alice Sleep, Miss Mary Love, Miss Annie Judrey, Misses McKinnon, Lettie Munro, Nellie Chapman, Lidie Moffat, Daisy Hickro, Fisher, Wm. The annual missionary meeting of the methodist church is to be held this evening. An address will be delivered by Rev. F. A. Cassidy from Japan. Miss Fanning and Prof. Worton of Mt. Allison, will also take part in the service.

The death of Mr. Albert D. Chapman, which eccuried very sud enly at the freight house on Saturday, noon, has enlisted the deepest sympathy for the bereaved wife and children so suddenly afflicted. The funeral service was conducted by Revs. Dr. Steele and R. Winiams, at the house on Lawrence street, on Monday afternoon, the large number showing evidence of the high respect they held for the deceased. The interment was in the Highland or metery. The pall-bearers were Sheriff Logan, Chas, R. Smith, M. D. Main, J. C. Pardy, T. S. Moore and J. T. Smith.
