The choice of Miss Chesley as matron of the Gen. eral Public Hospital is one that should give general satisfaction. Miss Chesley is a graduate from a class of the training school which has had an especially good record, and during the last few years has had valuable experience in private cases. In her new position the will have a thorough knowledge of the duties devolving on her, and has so many pleasant ways that she can hardly fail to succee in having matters run smoothly in the departments under her charge. The marriage of Miss C. Maie Cole daughter of Capt. C. Cole, and Mr. Richard S. Hood of Waltham, Mass., took place on Thursday evening at 8 o'clock Rev. L. G. MacNeil officiating; the wedding guests included only intimate friends and the bridal party was unattended; the bride who is a very charming young lady was elegantly attired in cream moire silk, made very plain; she wore a long veil fast-ned with lilies of the valley and a very handsome brooch set with a diamond and pearls; after the ceremony a very elaborate supper was served to the guests after which Mr. and Mrs. Hood left Montreal and other cities in the Upper provinces. The brides travelling costume was of brown cloth, with fur waist, and sieeves of brown cloth, with hat trimmed with brown ribbon, buckles and wings. The bride received many beautiful presents from her friends; as Miss Cole she was much esteemed among her many friends here and she will no doubt be equally popular in Waltham in which city the happy couple will reside.

There were about forty present and all voted it a delightful evening.

Mr. Harry Rourke of St. Martins was in town a few days this week; he came to take his young brother Allan home who has been ill here.

Tuesday was the twenty first anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hilyard's marriage, and the members of the family gave them a genuine surprise by going to their home on Douglas avenue at half past five and having tea. About thirty relatives were present and all erjoyed the evening to the fullest extent, and wished Mr. and Mrs. Hilyard many happy returns.

Miss Lilie Snow left on Friday to spend three weeks visiting friends in New York.

Mrs. McDonald is still confined to the house from the injuries she received a week or two ago, by being knecked down on the street by a horse.

but Sleepless Tired

Is a condition which gradually wears away the strength. Let the blood be purified and enriched by Hood's Sarsaparilla and this condition will cease.

"For two or three years I was subject to poor spells. I always felt tired, could not sleep at night and the little I could eat did not do me any good. I read about Hood's Sarsaparilla and decided to try it. Before I had finished two bottles I began to feel better and in a short time I felt all right and had gained 21 pounds in weight. I am stronger and healthier than I have ever been in my life." JOHN W. COUGHLIN, Wallaceburg, Ontario.

FREDERICTON.

[Progress is for sale in Fredericton by W. T. H. Fenety and J. H. Hawthorne.

This has been an extremely busy week, and with 'At homes," luncheons, teas, whist parties etc., we have been very gay.

On Thursday afternoon Mrs. Maunsell enter. tained her friends to an at home at the Barracks from four to six o'clock. Over fifty invitations had been issued and I believe all must have been ac cepted for although Mrs. Maunsells rooms are large they were well filled from the start, and later on there was scarcely standing room, while the con stant of buzz of conversation and merry laugh showed that all were enjoying themselves to the

The Military band had been stationed in a room at the head of the stairs and the sweet strains of the music floating gently down and softened by the distence gave an added charm to an altogethe pleas ant entertainment. Refreshments were served all the afternoon and in this Mrs. Maunsell was assisted by Miss Bodkin, Miss Nan Maunsell and Miss Clements. The invited guests were Mrs. Fraser, Mrs. Kingdon, Mrs. Gordon, Mrs. Powys, Mrs Delaney Robinson, Mrs. Harrison, Mrs. Dixon. Mrs. D. F. George, Miss George, Mrs. Gregory' the Misses Powys.
