Aug 28.-Invitations were given on Saturday 1 y Mr. and Mrs. W. Henry Maxwell to a dancing party at their residence this evening. There are about one hundred invitations, and much pleasure is anticipated. I hope to describe it in letter next week. Mrs. Willard B. King, on Saturday afternoon entained a party of lady friends with whist from four until nine o'clock. Refreshments and tea were served at six o'clock. It was a most happy affair, greatly enjoyed by the guests, and many pleasant comments have been made on the graceful and delightful way Mrs. King has of welcoming and entertaining her friends. The ladies who enjoyed this pleasant afternoon were: Mrs. Bradlee, L. Eaton, New York city, Mrs. William Murchie, Mrs. Chas. Newton, Mrs. Wadsworth Harris, Mrs. L. P. Gilkie, Baltimore, Mrs. Eilen Holmes Cony, Mrs. W. Trott King, Mrs. Charles Neil:, Mrs. Edward Boutelle, Bangor, Mrs. Jed F. Duren, Mrs. Wilfred Eaton, Mrs. John Clark Taylor, Mrs. Charles D. Hill, Mrs. Henry D. Pike, Mrs. Percy Lord and Miss Elizabeth Jackson.

On Thursday evening Mrs. John Clarke Taylor entertained a party of lady friends at dinner at six o'clock, which was given in honor of her friend, Mrs. Fredric Toller of Ottawa. Among the ladies present were: Mrs. John Chipman, Mrs. Willard King, Mrs. John Prescott and Mrs. Fredric Waite. Rev. J. T. and Mrs. Bryan entertained a party of clergy at dinner at Trinity chur ch rectory on Friday

Miss Harris gave a charming afternoon tea for the entertainment of Miss Grace Eaton of New York on Thursday last, other guests who were there were, Miss Marion Curran, Miss Helen Rounds, Miss Annie Eaton, Miss Mary Hopper, Messrs. Hal Boardman, George and Horace Eaton, and Mr.

Mrs. Skiffington Murchie entertained the members of the F, U. S. club at her residence on Friday evening. Whist was the chief amusement, and the evening was a particularly bright and jovial one, and greatly enjoyed by all who were present. Bovers of music are anticipating a treat during the coming week, when Mr. Whelpley of Eastport gives his organ and piano recital in his Congregational church. One of the prettiest and enjoyable entertainments was a matinee given by Master Walter Nichols and several young school mates on Wednesday af.er-noon of last week. Little | Red Riding Hood was the play given with Walter Nichols as Dobbin, Georgie Tyler, Red Riding Hood, Kate Nichols as Dame Margery, Carrie Wilson, Dame Deborah, Minnie Tapley as Wolf, Walter Wilson as Hodge and Neill Cole and George Gaskell, the two Woodcutters. A miniature stage was erected in the stable, which was decorated for the occasion and seats were provided for a hundred people. It was a very pretty play and well acted and the arrangement of it reflects great praise to the young people who gave it, and those who did not have the pleasure of attending, hope they will, at an early date, give another to the public.

Miss Currie Murchie gave a picnic at Kienes lake one day during this week, that was greatly enjoyed. On Toursday evening a hay cart ride to the Stone House, and a supper and dance on the arrival of the party, was an outing so delightful that it will long be remembered.

Buckboard sides are the fad this summer scarcely: a day but some lady invites a party of lady friends to enjoy a buckboard ride with her. Two very pleasant ones were given during this week, one by Mrs. George Eaton and the other by Mrs. A. E.

On Saturday last, tea and refreshments were ser ved at the Wildwood tennis court by Miss Winter

McAllister and Miss Rosa Bradnee. The family of Mr. C. H Clerke, having grown tired of their summer cottage at the Ledge; it was last week sold by Mr. Clerke, much to the regret of their numerous friends who enjoyed many pleasant and jolly outings at "Rockaway." Doubtless Mr. Clerke will purchase another summer home in a new and more desirable locality, as there are many charming spots on the St. Croix, where one can go to escape the heat and dust of the town.

Misa Louise Purvis of St. John is the guest of Mr. Norman Edgecombe of Fredericton spent a day or two here during the past week. Mr. and Mrs. Hazen Grimmer went to St. Andrews on Thursday to attend the tableaux at the Algonquin Hotel, and the dancing party given by her sister, Mrs. Howard Grimmer.
