Mrs. Wickwire's dance last week was a very pleasant one; it was quite small, not more than forty being present. Miss Rita Almon was a charming debutante in white silk and lace.

Mrs. Farreli's "At Home" was of course the event of the week and was without coubt the most enjoyable function that has taken place so far. The day was a particularly fine one and it was fortunate indeed that it was so for such a large number were present that it was a matter of conjecture as to where the hostess would have stowed them. How. ever the lawn was preferred by many and a beautifully cool and inviting place it was and small refreshment tables were scattered everywhere and one long table under the trees. The medical profession for whom the affair was given was well represented and some of them were very interesting and charming particularly the ladies who graced the fraternity. Among the very many lovely new costumes, worn were the following :

Mrs. Farrell wore a very handsome gown of black silk, and was assisted in receiving by h r two daughters.

Miss Farrell wore a becomming costume of pale pink silk, with a collarette of chiffon and lace.

Miss Daisy Farrell wore cream flowered silk, with cream ribbon.

Little Miss Farrell was ; owned in a pale pink dotted muslin.

Mrs. Erskine, a black silk skirt with green bodice Miss Creighton, a black silk skirt, with green bodice, relieved with cream lace.

Mrs. W. Duffus, black over green.

Mrs. Hartly, black over yellow.

Mrs. W. Anderson wore one of the handsomest dresses present. It consisted of black silk, or one of the new materials which very much resembles it.

Miss Anderson, grey relieved with pink. Among the noticeable of the many blue gowns was one worn by Mrs. Tobin, it was made of striped crepon, the stripes going round, and was relieved with black ribbon, with black hat.
