

Social and Personal.

St. John. There is not a general chronicle this week in the way of social news, as no doubt everybody is saving themselves for the exhibition. There have been two large receptions given this week, one by Mrs. (Sheril) Sturdee on Tuesday afternoon and the other by Mrs. C. E. L. Jarvis on Thursday. Both ladies dispensed hospitality in the most graceful and charming manner so that the receptions could not be other than pleasant. Mrs. Sturdee was the more fortunate in regard to weather as the afternoon was very bright and fine, but Mrs. Jarvis's was not quite so well off as on Thursday the weather was not all that could be desired. However I believe both are spoken of as among the most successful events of the season.
