In spite of the counter attraction of the Wander, er's sports the South End Tennis caub had a large attendance on pectators, excitement running high, especially regarding the final games of the ladies' singles. Mrs. Long proved victorious and received the first prize, a very pretty little travelling clock, while Miss Devon won the sec. nd prize, a silver manicure set. All the prizes were very pretty and all were silver, and Mrs. Daly presented them in her usual pleasant and charming manner. The Misses Anderson received many congratulations on winning the ladies' doubles, for which the prizes were mother of pearl opera giasses; the second prizes, which fell to Mrs. Alexander and Mrs Moir, were half a dozen souvenir spoons and a silver shoe-horn and button hook.

Of the men's prizes the best fell to Mr. Austen for the men's singles, a very smart little silver match boxes, and were won by Mr. Collins, R. E.

and Mr. Jones, King's Regiment. The tournament was altogether one of the best ever held on the ground, and energetic members of the club can now rest on their laurels for the year.

The concert at the public gardens on Monday night was one of the best we have ever had. The night was perfect and the fireworks would have satisfied spectators any where all over the world. They were really beautiful, and were more than worth the small admission charged, even if there had been no music thrown in. The band, however, played very pretaily and was much enjoyed, and the whole thing was quite delightful. Every one was there except people who had stayed too lase at the various picnics to get there in time, and everyone was loud in their praises of the seally beautiful display. There were several suppers given after the concert and the evening air made hot soups and other comforts most acceptable. Mrs. Montgomery Moore's small dance on Wednesday evening was most successful, and did not break up until half-past two. It was an exceedingly pretty dance, and as the night was delightful the garden was decorated with Chinese lanterns and used for sitting out as well as the drawing room and the small room just added to Bellevue at the south

Dancing was carried on with great spirit, as the floor and the music were both good. There was an excellent supper and the table was very prettfly arranged with fairy lights. The cresses wern were as a rule both pretty and smart, many ladies looking remarkably well. Mrs. Montgomery-Moore wore a very handsome dress of white and mauve brocade and Miss Colbourne looked very well also in mauve. H. M. S. Mohawk arrived in time to allow of nerefficers being invited to the dance, so that there plenty of men, and the whole affair was yery pleasant and full of go.

On Thursday afternoon there was a cricket match on the Garrison ground between the Garrison Athletic club and an eleven of officers of the garrison, and the spectators saw some very pretty play, Mr. Cayley, R. A. in particular distinguishing himself by making the score of the season, while Mr. Austen came next with a very creditable figure. There were a good many people looking on, and the usual tea and cake were provided. Cricket has certainly looked up this season as far as the garrison are corcerned, and it is a pity that the sum mer is so nearly gone when it will be superseded by

A great number of people were invited to the performance given by H. M. S. Mohawk's menstrel troupe on Thursday evening, and they had the pleasure of seeing a very good show indeed. Captain Stewart is most popular on board his ship, and the farewell song in honor was very hearty in it's wishes for his future good luck. People who were staying on for the dance given after the performance by the officers were in evening dress, other people in ordinary attire, and the whole thing was as cheerful and well managed as sailor's entertainments, al ways are. The dance was at the commissioner's house and though not very large was very pleasant, and did not finish till quite late. Some of the sing. ing was exceptionally good and fully deserved the a pplause received from the guests, who numbered quite eight hundred, over a thousand people having been asked. The choruses too were very good, and the whole affair a very great credit to the ship's company, who are very loath to bid tarewell to their popular commander.

Mr. H. L. Chipman and Miss Maud Ritchey are House. to be married temorrow (Thursday) at two o'clock in St. Paul's church. Mr. C. Stayn r is to be married shortly to Miss Helen Jones of Weymouth. Mr. George Cory leaves in a mon.h's time for England on his way to join his regiment in India. Mr. A. Duffus leaves shortly for New York, where he has accepted a permanent position. Mr. Charles Stewart left Thursday evening by the C. P. R. for Winnipeg, where he has also accepted a permanent position. Miss Robertson who has been spending some time with her cousin Miss Richey, at Belmont, returned last week to her home in St. John.

The wedding of Miss Ritchie and Mr. Chipman which takes place this week is also to be a very quiet one owing to the illness of Mr. Chipman's mother, and that the guests will only number relatives of the bride and groom. It is certain to be a pretty wedding however, and Miss Ritchie's wedding dress is to be a very beautiful one.

There have been several very pleasant dinners during the week, the largest at government house on Tuesday, when Mr. and Mrs. John F. S'airs visitors during the early part of the week, and had of course hosts of cailers.

In addition to indoor dinner parties there have been several outdoor ones given this week, two very pleasant p.cnics being given on Tuesday and Wednesday, when the lovely moonlight made them given by the minstrels of H. M. S. Mohawk.

A conple of very pleasant tras were given this week, though the garden party season is over that of teas is ever with us, and with the approach of a utumn they will increase very rapidly.

I hear that we are to have a couple of large dances in the early autumn, soon after the return of the flagship, which is good news, as the summer has been remarkable for its dearth of dancing, at least as regards large parties. On the other hand there has been an unusual amount of dinner giving but that does not appeal to debutantes or indeed young people generally.
