Last week was very gay with teas, tennis parties and receptions and the loudest grumblers of all had nothing to complain of.

Monday afternoon Miss Ethel Stairs gave a small but pleasant tea for young people which ended in a dance in the evening and was very much

Mrs Ritchey's reception on Tuesday afternoon was very successful notwithstanding the very wet weather: large numbers went out to Belment all the afternoon and though the dulness of the day prevented many from wearing anything very apecial still many smart dresses were noticeable.

On Wednesday society turned out en masse to see and hear "Princess Bonnie" which was given in St. Lukes hall in aid of the organ fund. The peice was not given in costume, those taking part wearing evening dresses only. This was a very sensible move as it not only saved a great deal of unnecessary trouble and expense but the stage was so very small that the effect of good costuming would have been wholly lost. Miss Lewis as Bonnie was in the leading part and did it full justice. Her "Love first Love" was beautifully rendered and her fresh, sweet voice was perhaps never more thoroughly appreciated, Miss Olive as Kitty Clover did her part very nicely and her song "A summer girl's love" in which she took part with Mr. Bennett was one of the triumphs of the evening. Miss Wickwire and Mrs. Thompson were also in excellent voice and sang very well indeed. Mr. A Wylde as a conductor is a great success; Mr. Bennett, Mr. De Mille, Mr. Slayter and Mr. Mitchell all sang well as did all the ladics and gentlemen who formed the chorus. It is said that it is to be repeated shortly in Orpheus hall. A very large sum was realized last Wednesday evening.

Friday was the day of the tennis party given by Admiral and Mrs. Erskine, and that day the grounds were a brilliant spectacle; it really was worth seeing the many elegant dresses worn if one went with no other object. Refreshments were served on the lawn, where many small tables were laid out and a delightful day by the cool sea breezes. On Saturalso in the dining room. Admiral and Mrs. Ers day the teachers of the summer school of science kine make excellent entertainers and everytody | drove to the Joggins Mines and spent the day; and was well looked after. The most noticeable among the elegant gowns worn were: Mrs. James Morrow, pale green striped silk beautifully made, with accordion plaited pink chiffon waist with large green sleeves and tiny flower bonnet of pink and green to match. Mrs. M. R. Morrow, wore a most becoming costume of golden brown, with large brown hat with Mrs. A Doull, a very delicate shade of green. Mrs. Clarkson, a very handsome costume of striped grey silk.

Miss Nagle wore a very pretty dress of pale pink Miss Oliver looked well in a pink striped gown with black ribbons. Miss Cady wore a very pretty dress of striped

Miss Beamish looked very well in pale blue and Miss Willis also wore pale blue with white lace Miss Bullock wore a very pretty gown of white

Miss E. Stayner and Miss Stubbing, in white, also looked very well.

There were the usual number of ducks and crepons, all looking very tresh, and helping to give a pretty effect to the whole. Keith hall will be the scene of a large at home

This is what the New York Advertiser, of a late date, has in reference to persons who are known to many here:

"Lieutenant Findlay Dalziel, late of Her Brittanic Majesty's Dragoon Guards and brother of Davison Dalziel, proprietor of the Dalziel,s Cable News, died at Brighton, England, Friday morning, July 12, of heart | disease, from which he had been suffering for many years and which was the cause of his premature retirement from the British Army Lieutenant Dalziel was well known in the city. Five years ago he married Miss Claudia West, of Halifax, daughter and heiress of one of the wealthiest bankers in Nova Scotia and the leading belle of military, naval and civil society in that gay

Korns, Korns.

There are more than one sort of korns. Some korn is planted in the ground and the other sort don't need planting; they grow quite naturally on men's toes and don't need hoeing. This kind of korn has two sorts—one gentle or tender like until Bill Jones steps on your foot, when it gets boiling mad and swears like everything; 'he other is hard headed and makes a row all the time, especially when your boots are on. I don't like korns, and use the extracting medicine, Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor, which removes them painlessly in twenty-four
