MAY 1 .- Novadays very few people will agree with the lady who wished to be "called early" on the first of May, that it is the "happiest time of all the year" it may be the "maddest" but certainly not the " merriest" day. The sound of the scrub bing brush is heard and the voice of the charwoman is loud in the land, asking for pearline and soft cloths to wipe windows with. Lucky is that flitting. Quite a number enjoyed her hospitality house-keeper to whom the chi nney sweep comes at the time promised, and the white washers and paper hangers come and stay till they have finished their which, by the way did not seem nearly so long on the mover are much greater, particularly so if there is someone moving out of the house you are going

Among the numerous people changing houses today are Mrs. Abbott who goes to "Pine cottage," as Mrs. Graham is one of our most successful and Mrs. William Bullock to Tower road and Mrs. A. Wiswell to Victoria road where her husband has purchased a house. Mr. J. C. Morrison has given up " Clairemont" and is going to move to the old Kinnear house on Hollis street. He has had a great deal added to the house and it is well done up from ready taken by Americans who intend spending | Colonel Clerke, Vice President-Mr. John W. the summer here.

To "hark" back to the news of last week, Cunard's steamer was very late in starting, having been de layed at Richmond loading cattle. Mrs. Dobbin Miss Archbold, and Mr. Ewart were some of the numerous passengers.

Next week we hope to be welcoming back Mrs. Clarkson and her charming daughter Mrs. Hill, who is coming to spend the summer in Halifax. Mrs. and Miss Daly have returned from Washington and Mrs. H. H. Fuller from Boston.

Mr. George Francklyn was a passenger by the "Halifax" on Sunday night.

The Dorr-Norcross company abruptly finished their engagement Friday night. Mr. Norcross was ill and unable to attend to rehearsals and that added to the very poor houses they had, no doubt hastened their departure.

A great many people are rehearsing at present for various entertainments to be given during the lent and received tremendous applause.

The musical burlesque which is being managed by Mr. Compton, organist of St. Mary's, and Mr. "Rupe" Greenwood is arranged to take place on the 17th and 18th of Mav. The performers are all well known and have been working hard at their parts for some time. The affair is in aid of the Church of England Institute. Mr. A. S. Wylde is getting up a concert in aid of the St. Luke's organ fund. He has a new idea I is to be under distinguished patronage and is to be hear for his concert. The music of the opera "The Princess Bonnie" is to be sung through. It has never been sung in Halifax. The music is bright and catchy with amusing words. I have not as yet heard who are to take the solo parts.

H. M. S. Pelican is here at present. She is on her way to Newfoundland. The "Cleopatra" and Buzzard are going down also.

Mr. Edwards, the naval instructor of the "Blake" is returning in the same position on the "Crescent" and Mr. Motton is coming back in the same ship. Major R. M. Brady has received the appointment of military secretary to General Lyons in Bermudaand our well known and much missed friend, Mr. H. E. Marsh has got his company. Many congratulations to hoth. of the Wanderers' grounds is beginning to get them in order. The club hope to have some good cricket this year. A team from the States is coming and perhaps one from Upper Canada. There are several new players to be added to the Garrison team.

The South end lawn tennis club has had its annual meeting and elected its officers for the coming season, so they will soon start to work getting the grounds in condition to play upon. There are still many who regret the old club in the public gardens. The Courts there were much the best we have had here outside of the Wanderers. However the Saturday afternoons at the Yacht club have taken the place of the garden's tennis.

Mr. Stairs has had his little steam yacht "Ulala" taken from the slipp and anchored off the club. The first yacht race is not to take place till early in June. The mayflowers are in now and mayflowering parties are a form of amusement. Mrs. Stairs Duffus had a small one on Saturday afternoon. She has Miss Daisy Oliver staying a few days with ther. I did not hear it many flowers were found, as a rule they are the last thing thought of at a mayflower-ing party. A wedding of interest to Halifax people took place in Montreal last week. It was that of Mr. J. R. Kinghorn to Miss Winnifred St. George. Miss St. George spent a summer in Halifax some years ago the guest of Judge and Mrs. Towshend. Miss May Townshend was one of the bride's maids. Before her return home Miss Townshend is to pay a visit to Miss Norton Taylor in Kingston. MARTHA

(FROM ANOTHER CORRESPONDENT.) Mrs. (Dr.) Kirpatrick and Miss Wickwire went to St. John for a short visit and while there were the guests of Mrs. J. R. Stone. Mrs. Currie is, I believe, enjoying a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robertson, of St. John. St. Mary's dramatic class will present "Rosedale" and the Private Secretary" at the academy next Monday and Tuesday evenings, May 6th and 7th.

The object is a charitable one and the club are receiving offers of assistance and encouragement on all sides. Several leading ladies, of all denominations, have volunteered to sell tickets and Lieut. Pollet will sing the latest hits of the season; lovers of music cannot afford to miss the sple did treat prepared by the band of the King's regiment. No doubt the affair vill be largely patronized. The only form of dissipation indulged in this week has been a few quiet teas. This is of cour the season of moving and housecleaning and every thing, social and otherwise has to give way to that.

A football match on the Riding Ground between the Wanderers and the Garrison attracted quite a number of persons to that spot, but the crowd was very small compared with that which usually watches a game of tootball. It takes a few games at the beginning to work up anything like enthusiasm and besides it is quite a walk out to the Riding Ground, the Wanderers' being much more accessible. The day was pleasant for playing but the spectators found the ground cold and the air very raw. It was a closely contested game, the Wanderers winning by one point.

Mrs. H. W. C. Boak gave a very pleasant tea last Saturday, as sort of farewell, before her summer after the football game and the many dainty edibles served were very welcome, after the long walk, the homeward march. The affair was a very en_ House cleaning is bad enough, but the troubles of | joyable one, as Mrs. Boak's functions always are. One of the most popular houses in the city has just been closed, Judge Graham and family having left for their summer home and intend being absent about five months. This is quite a social calamnity popular hostesses and will be greatly missed.

The south end Tennis club had their annual meeting last week and the officers of the previous year were, with very few exceptions, re-elected. Mr. Kellogg who has been Hon. Secretary resigned and Mr. G. Wainwright has been appointed in his place. attic to cellar. A great many of his rooms are al. The officers for the present season are: President-Smith, Committee-Messrs. W. B. Kellogg, P. Almon and J. Imrie, Hon. Secretary-Mr. G. Wainwharf was quite gav on Saturday afternoon with wright, Treasurer-Mr. F. G. Green, Ladies's Comthe various people who came to say goodbye to their | mittee-Mrs. M. Dwyer, Mrs. Cameron, Mrs. friends who were sailing by the "Numidian." The H. H. Thompson, Mrs. Anderson, Mrs. Green and Miss Boak.

Miss Seaton gave a tea last Friday as a farewell and her four daughters, Mrs. Kenny, Miss Noye, to Miss Violet Noyes who has gone to England for Mrs. Hart, Mrs. and Miss Courtney, Miss Stimpson | the summer. There was a small dance in the even-(who is going to stay with her sister Mrs. Gaussen), ing, at which only young people were present, no married ladies being invited. Mrs. and Miss Cameron are expected back from England by the first of June. The recital at the conservatory last week was perhaps one of the most finished performances which has taken place for a long time and adds the greenest of laurels to those which Miss Louise Tupper already wears. The performance was entirely from memory and displayed great musical ability and versatility. Every number was beautifully reed and at the close Mr. Parker presented Miss Tupper with two volumes of Beethovens sonatas. Miss Metzler sang one of Millard's songs and met with hearty appreciation. Master Max Fyshe's violin solos with his sister's accompaniment were excel-

Major and Mrs. Dorman intend residing at the Arm for the summer. Capt. and Mrs. Long have left their house on Morris street and taken up their residence at 34

The principal event now being talked of is the production of "1492" at the academy this month under the manage ment of R. P. Greenwood and W. F. Crompton as musical director. The affair quite swell. An effort will be made to have it full dress and also to get the garrison and militia officers to appear in full dress. Of course a generous patronage will be extended as is usual when anything local, in this line, is gotten up.

Among the passengers by the Mumidian on her last voyage were Miss Archibald, Miss Courtney, Mrs. Dobbins and family, Lieut. Ewart, Mrs. G. T Hart, Mrs. Hickey, Miss Jardine, Mrs. J. F. Kenny, Miss Noyes, Rev. E. Parry and Mrs. Parry, Rev. A. Palmer and Mrs. Palmer, Sir Arthur Stipney, Miss Stimpson, T. Wells and A. E. Currie. It will be very pleasant to have so many from Halifax going across at the same time, for even if they not acquainted with each other previously there is a sort of freedom on board ship which makes people Mr. John Irons the popular and efficient manager | friendly in spite of themselves and no doubt ere the party mentioned above, separates to visit different scenes they will feel as if they had been acquainted all their lives.

YARMOUTH.

[PROGRESS is for sale in Yarmouth at the stores of E. J. Vickery, Thomson, & Co. and J. A. Craig. APRIL 20 .- The opera "Pirates of Penzance," by Gilbert and Sullivan, which was played on Thursday and Friday evenings by Yarmouth amateurs was a decided success and drew a crowded house both nights. The singing throughout being the finest that has been heard in Yarmouth for some years. Miss Josie Gardner as Mabel, General Stanley's daughter, made the hit of the evening; her beautiful soprano voice and pleasing manner have won for her a foremost place amongst the singers of Yarmouth.

Mr. W. A. Cann now well known as one lof the leading tenors of the provinces took part of Frederic a pirate apprentice, and won tor himself a hearty applause. Mr. W. O. Gray in his usual manner delighted the audience both in his acting and singing. Dr. Gray as an amateur has no equal in Yarmouth and made a typical pirate king. Too much praise cannot be given Mr. Pelton; the admirable manner in which he performed in the character of General Stanley will not soon be forgotten. Mrs. Hamilton as Ruth was also a decided success, her acting being one of the chief features of the evening Both Mrs, McKinnon and Mrs. Saunders won hearty applause by the excellent manner in which they appeared as General Stanley's daughters. The way in which Mr. Allison mustered his policemen greatly amused the audience, Mr. Allison did splendidly as also Mr. Jones as a lieutenant and his pirates, their bright and picturesque costumes greatly adding to the effect. AMHERST.

| PROGRESS is for sale at Amherst by Master A. D.

MAY 1 .- The brief period since Easter, was so redolent with "orange blossoms," is closely succeeded by one of sorrow and sympathy particularly to Christ church congregation which during the week has lost two prominent and zealous members-Mrs. R. H. Tremaine, who was ever among the formermost in all church work, died rather suddenly on Thursday evening, at her home on Havelock street, leaving a husband and two little children to mourn for an amiable and loving wife and mother, who will be missed in a great degree from among the young matrons in Amherst society. The funeral took place on Saturday morning in Christ church; Rev. V. E. Harris conducted the sad service which was largely attended. The pall bearers were Messrs. J. H. Morrison, E. Biden, R. C. Fuller, Dr. McQueen L. Allen, F. Christie and E. T. Sayer.

This morning the sad news was announced of the death of Mrs. R. B. Dickey, which occurred late last evening, after a long and painful illness. This estimable lady was among the oldest members of the church and a most generous contributer to all charitable works, and will be missed by the Igeneral public to an extent which can hardly be realized at present, for it is safe to say that she was beloved by all who knew her. and the sympathy of the entire community is felt for the family in their great sorew. & The services at St. Stephens church yesterday were unusually impressive and very largely attended. The attraction being the fine new Warren organ which is a thing of beauty, and if Prof. Sterne were only spared to always preside would without doubt be a joy forever. The choir is a capital one, well balanced in the different parts and from their work yesterday evinced the fact that Prof. Sterne is fully as good a vecal teacher as he proved an organist just a bit beyond compare. St. Stephens congregation are to be complimented upon their new purchase and I am told that the Prof. intends treating the public to a grand organ recital in the near future. Mr. H.
