ST. STEPHEN AND CALAIS.

[Progress is for sale in St. Stephen by Master Ralph Trainor, and at the bookstores of R. S. Daggett, B. S. Wall and J. Vroom & Co. in Calais at O. F. Treat's.]

MARCH 4.—Invitations were given on Saturday by Madam Chipman and Mrs. John D. Chipman to an At Home at the "Cedars" on Thursday, to-morrow, after tea from four until seven o'clock.

The St. Croix hall, Calais, was filled to its utmost last evening to greet Miss Louie Taylor and the talented ladies and gentlemen who assisted her in giving to the music loving public the most delightful concert they have attended this season. The programme was begun with an overture, violin and piano by Miss Louie Taylor, Miss Taylor and Mr. J. H. C. Bingham. Mrs. C. W. Harrison then appeared and sang most beautifully "The Tourbillon," receiving almost overwhelming applause and kindly responded with an encore; Miss Louie Taylor gave a violin solo, that sweetest of airs, "The Blue Bells of Scotland," that charmed her audience; Miss Ina S. Brown, who is always a favorite with a St. Croix audience, gave a reading entitled "Honour in the Woods," Mr. J. H. C. Bingham's cornet solo, "Les Folles Bergères," was well received and won him a round of applause. The programme was a long one; Mrs. Harrison sang several times, each time winning honors for herself, and it is the opinion here that she has a brilliant musical career for her future. Too much cannot be said for the taste shown by Miss Taylor in her selections for her violin solos. What could be better in an American city than "Away Down in Dixie," and "Sous le Palmier," which is simply "Yankee Doodle," an air that is always dear to a "Yankee's" heart. Miss Taylor leaves to-morrow for Fredericton, where she will give a concert with the same ladies and gentlemen who assisted her here. She will then leave for Pittsburg, Penn., where she will make an extended visit with relatives in that city, and will at the same time devote herself to the study of music.

Mr. W. H. Edwards entertains at his residence to-morrow evening the Neighbourhood Club.

The At Home and Musical given by the ladies of the Harmony Club at the Windsor hotel on Thursday evening was the most brilliant society event of the season. At eight o'clock the Windsor was ablaze with lights, and thronged with elegantly attired guests, the elite of the St. Croix Valley. When the guests had removed their wraps they were received in the reception room of the hotel by Mrs. George Clarke, who is president of the club.

Mrs. John Black, Mrs. Henry McAllister, Mrs. Frank A. Grimmer, and Mrs. Howard McAllister, after entering the dining hall, which was used for the concert room, the guests were met by Mrs. Hazen Grimmer, and a bevy of young ladies who presented them with a programme and provided seats. The dining room was beautifully adorned and arranged for the occasion, much taste being shown. A temporary table had been erected at one end of the room covered with rugs, and portiers were skillfully hung to shut from sight the doors that led to a room beyond—potted plants and jardinières of palms, added greatly to the beauty of the room.

The ladies of the club were all elegantly gowned, and the younger ladies were in full evening dress. The concert began promptly at half past eight o'clock. The programme was a long one and of a very high order, the music all strictly classical. The first piece on the programme was a Glee, "The Wanderer's Greeting," sang by all the ladies of the club; Miss Bertie Taylor then gave a piano solo, "Spinning Song," by Spindler; Mrs. Frank A. Grimmer, who was in fine voice, sang "Waiting at the Brookside," by Torrey; Mrs. Henry McAllister and her daughter, Miss Wilhelmina McAllister, followed with a finely executed duet "Sonata," by Schumann; Miss Florence Sullivan, who looked lovely in a pale yellow silk gown sang exquisitely "The Bedouin Love Song," "Scene De Ballet," by DeBeriot, which was most pleasing; Miss Josephine Hamm sang very prettily "Disappointment," she was daintily attired in a pretty costume of pale blue with overdress of white mull, which was most becoming; Miss Bertie Smith, who was charming in a pale pink silk dress, gave a piano solo, "Ereunde," by Chopin, which showed much practice being well executed; Miss Cora Maxwell in her usual charming style sang "The Wind is Whispering Low My Love," she wore a costume of pale green mull adorned with pale green ribbons which was very stylish; a piano duet by Beethoven, played by Mrs. John Black and Mrs. Howard McAllister called forth much applause; Mrs. George J. Clarke and Miss Louie Taylor then sang "A Night in Venice," by Ardit; Mrs. John Black played the piano solo, "Rondo Capriccioso," by Mendelssohn, most brilliantly, many pleasant comments being made on it; Miss Louie Taylor sang very prettily "O Fair and Sweet and Holy; Miss Carrie Barker then gave a piano solo, "Sonata," by Schubert; Miss Barker wore a pretty dress of pale pink striped silk, which was very becoming to her fair beauty; a trio, "Boating," sang by Mrs. Hazen Grimmer, Miss Jean Sprague, and Miss Sullivan, followed by a violin solo by Miss Taylor, were well received; Mrs. George Clarke sang "The Angels Serenade," by Brjals, most beautifully; she was accompanied by Miss Louie Taylor with the violin; this was thought by many to be the gem of the evening; a piano duet by the Misses Stevenson and Barker was finely rendered; Mrs. Hazen Grimmer, who looked stately in a beautiful dress of black silk and lace richly trimmed with jet, sang "Happy Day," by Stelezki, receiving much applause; she was followed by Mrs. Watson Grimmer, Mrs. George Clarke, and Miss Jean Sprague who sang the trio, "Down in the Dill," by Smart. The programme for the evening being finished, ice cream and cake were served. The evening was a most enjoyable one, and the ladies who arranged and gave it, have received every praise from those who were their guests.

The same evening Dr. and Mrs. J. Walker Moore invited a party of friends to accompany them on a sleigh ride to Moore's Mills, and to enjoy a snow shoe tramp and supper at the "Retreat," a mile beyond Moore's Mills. Mrs. Skillington Murchie, Mrs. George Murchie, and Mrs. Willard H. Pike were "at home" to their lady friends on Friday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. George Murchie. The house was darkened and the rooms brilliantly lighted. The floral decorations were of spring flowers, hyacinths, tulips, and daffodils were used in profusion in the drawing rooms, while the dining room was sweet with the perfume of roses and carnations. Mrs. Skillington Murchie wore a handsome costume of black silk, trimmed with jet ornaments. Mrs. George Murchie was attired in green silk with trimmings of chiffon to match. Mrs. Pike wore a gown of black silk and lace. Mr. C. D. Hill, Mrs. W. Lambie, and Mrs. J. E. Duren, assisted by Miss Mattie Harris, Miss Sadie McAllister, and Miss Mattie Nicols, were in charge of the dining room, and served the guests in a most graceful style. During the afternoon a music box concealed in the library, played a variety of sweet music that was most delightful.

Mr. Wadsworth Harris' friends both in Calais and St. Stephen will be pleased to hear that he recently gave a dramatic recital in the Virginia hotel, Chicago, under the patronage of Count and Countess Boycuta, (Madame Modjeska) of whose company Mr. Harris is a member. It will be remembered that Mr. Harris has at different times given recitals in the Windsor hotel that were extremely enjoyable.

DURING MARCH

Colds and chills are prevalent, and unless the system is strong enough to throw them off, serious illness, often ending in pneumonia and death result.

THE CAUSE

Of colds, chills and attendant dangers is found in the blood, poisoned by uric acid, which should be expelled by the kidney.

THE EFFECT

Of this kidney-poisoned blood is far-reaching. Health and strength are impossible while it exists. The system is being continually weakened, leaving it open to the ravages of colds, chills, pneumonia and fevers.

THE CURE

For such a diseased condition is found in Warner's Safe Cure, which will restore the kidneys to health and enable them to properly perform their functions. There is no doubt about this. The record of the past is
