[Progress is for sale in St. Stephen by Master Ralph Trainor, and at the bookstores of R. S. Daggett, G. S. Wall and J. Vroom & Co. in Calais at C. P. Treat's.]

MAR. 15.—The Harmony club met this week at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. D. Sullivan, their daughter Miss Florence Sullivan, is the secretary and a prominent member of the club. The evening was devoted to Joseph Haydn and Dudley Buck, at the close of the musical programme refreshments were served.

Mrs. Henry Graham gave a very pleasant tea party at her residence on Tuesday evening. After tea, what was enjoyed as usual with Mrs. Graham's tea parties, her guests enjoyed themselves extremely.

Mrs. A. L. Drake entertained a party of friends in a most charming manner at the Windsor hotel last Thursday evening.

Miss Kite Washburn gave a small whist party at her home on Saturday evening. This was a most happy affair and was greatly enjoyed by her guests.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. King entertained a number of friends at dinner on Thursday.

The "travellers" club met at "Thorncroft," the residence of Mrs. E. C. Young on Monday afternoon. To enjoy "traveller" took another trip to California, and most interesting notes of experience in Californian travel, were read by all the ladies present.

The children's ball given in the St. Croix hall on Friday evening by Miss Martha Harris was one of the prettiest ever given in this city. The grand march began at eight o'clock, and was led by Miss Fannie Purrington and Master Harold Murchie.

The different movements of the march were gone through in a most graceful and clever manner and called forth much admiration from the delighted and eager spectators. The baby dance in which Misses Myra Lord, Fannie Miller, Carrie Clarke, Vera Delaney, Alice Delaney, Miss Mungall, Bessie Kimball, and Ethel McKusick, took part was lovely. During the dance, Mrs. H. B. Mason sang a lullaby song which was most pleasing. Grandmas minuet dance by Miss Lottie Hughes, and Miss Genevieve Hogan in hand some court costumes, of brocaded satin and velvet after a style of a hundred years ago; before this dance little Carrie Clarke recited "Long ago," in the sweetest manner that won for her much praise.

The tambourine dance, in Spanish costume, by five little girls, was very pretty. This was followed by the "Clown's Gavotte," which was danced by Nell Cole, Walter Nichols, Rex Lamb, Carl Mason, Phil Lamb, and Hizen Elliott, all were dressed in grotesque costumes, and the dance was a merry one.

The "maids of the mist," was a new and pretty dance. Misses Alice and Lena Delaney, two little girls of five and seven years shone in this dance, their waltzing being most remarkable in children so young.

The "Ariel Ballet," danced by Miss Christine Whidden, Queenie Neil, Bessie Foster and Rita Anderson, was the prettiest and most admired of all the dances. The young ladies, were all attired alike, in dainty costumes of white gauze, their dancing was extremely graceful. Miss Queenie Neil and Miss Christine Whidden received many compliments both during and after the dance.

After the exhibition dancing was enjoyed by the older ones for an hour. Miss Harris receives the highest praise for the way she has instructed the children and is congratulated for the great success of the affair. The children were beautifully dressed, nearly all in white frocks. I have been asked by several of the young ladies to describe their dresses in Progress, and will try to do so although it was impossible to obtain all the names.

Miss Queenie Neil, white potted mull with trimmings of pale pink ribbon.

Miss Christine Whidden, cream and pink brocade landsown frock trimmed with lace and ribbon.

Miss Florence Renne, gray silk mother Hubbard trimmed with pink silk and lace.

Miss Bessie Foster, yellow China silk with sash and bows of cream colored satin ribbon.

MAR. 24.—The parlor concert given at the residence of Mayor Sanderson on Monday the 16th, by the B. Y. P. U. was a very pleasant and highly successful entertainment. An interesting programme consisting of instrumental and vocal music was well rendered. A piano duet by Miss Watson and Miss Atherton, solos by Mrs. A. A. Brewer, Miss Atherton, and Miss M. Bel Jewett, a duet on barjos by Miss Jennie Baird and Mr. Frank Jones, a quartette by four young ladies, a violin solo by Frank Lee and piccolo solo by Frank Jones, with recitations from two little children made up a pleasing programme, after which coffee, sandwiches and cake were dispensed by the ladies of the society who looked charming in their pretty bright dresses.

The Misses Brown entertained a number of their friends at their home, Greenbank, on Thursday evening of last week in honor of their guest Mr. Rankin of Liverpool. The evening passed most pleasantly with euchre for amusement. Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Allan Dibble, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Gaudin, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Connell, Mr. and Mrs. John Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Perkins, the Misses Bull, and Mr. LeBaron Dibble were of the party.

Dr. E. and Mrs. Kirkpatrick gave a pleasant party on Thursday evening last. The evening was devoted to various games, music and other amusements. A dainty supper was served about eleven o'clock. Dr. and Mrs. Kirkpatrick in their role of host and hostess were highly successful, and are to be congratulated on the brilliant success of their first large entertainment.

Mr. and Mrs. Williamson Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. George Balmis, Mr. and Mrs. George Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Holyoke, Miss Stephenson, Miss Peters, Miss Ramsay, Miss Wolhaupter, Miss M. Allan, Miss Duncan, Miss Mame Clark, the Misses Watt, Mrs. Bailey, Miss May Clark, Miss Susan Williams, Miss Carr, Miss Good, Miss Appleby, Messrs. A. E. Melish, F. S. Wilbur, C. A. Appleby, S. D. Holyoke, A. E. Jones, Simmons, J. S. Leighton, Comben and others.

The event of last week was the coming of Mrs. Harrison. She sang in Graham's opera house on Friday evening to an immense audience. The programme was as follows, piano duet, by Mrs. George Mitchell and Miss Nan Bull, solo, "L'Incontro" by Mrs. Harrison, vocal duet, "The Nightingale" by Mrs. Harrison, Miss Lockwood, Mrs. Holyoke, Mrs. Lockwood, Mr. Lockwood and Mrs. Burnham. Reading, Wrenna, an Indian legend, by Mrs. Harrison, solo, grand aria from "Tosca," by Mrs. Harrison, recitation, by Miss Pearl Skilleen. Mrs. Harrison sang in magnificent style. Her voice is simply wonderful and her high notes and trills are entrancing. She sings with the ease and grace of a natural songster combined with the most finished culture attainable. Her three numbers were rapturously applauded and she responded with very sweet songs. The third encore "The Fairies" to which she played her own accompaniment was remarkably sweet and pretty. Mrs. Ernest Holyoke accompanied Mrs. Harrison in good style.

Capt. and Mrs. Du gave a reception on Friday night from ten till twelve in honor of their guest Mrs. Harrison, which was the most enjoyable social function held here for some time. Mrs. Duncan received her guests in a back silk and lace, and was assisted by Miss Mary P. Duncan in a costume of black and white. Mrs. Harrison looked lovely in a dress of white moire and a richly embroidered white silk, with crystal pendants and a most attractive appointment. Mrs. Harrison was the guest of Captain and Mrs. T. J. Smith during her stay in town.

Mrs. C. W. F. Todd and Miss Bessie Todd arrived from Boston on Saturday, Miss Bessie Todd being Boston especially for medical treatment, and returns greatly benefited.

Mr. E. B. Snow is the guest of Captain and Mrs. T. J. Smith during his stay in town.
