The carnival which took place on Monday evening was very successful although there were not as many spectators as usual; the rink presented a charming appearance, the tutside railing was covered with flags while rows of colored lanterns illuminated the scene instead of the usual gas jets. After the carnival a number went to Artillery Park where an elaborate supper was served.

Among the ladies, one of the nicest costumes was worn by Miss Oliver who r presented winter. It was well made entirely of white; the short cloak was edged with fur and covered with diamond dust while white birds in the hair made a most effective

Miss Forbes, as Poudre, wore a very preity costume of pure white, with tiny powder puffs, which told the name so plainly, one did not need to ask what she was. Miss Connie Story, as Shamrock, looked well, her costume being one of the most effective on the ice. Miss Turner, as Folly, locked very well. Mrs.

Taylor, wife of Captain Taylor of the Berkshire regiment looked remarkably well as a Spanish lady: the skirt consisting of a very pretty shade of yellow with black lace, while the black lace mantilla thrown over the head, with a rose at the si'e-Spanish fashion-looked very effective.

Miss Uniacke, as Good Luck, in red, covered with horse-shoes, also locked very well. Mrs. Fred Jones made a very graceful Trilby.

Miss Lawson made a charming Lady Mephisto. Miss Stairs, who represented June roses, wore a very pretty dress covered with roses, with hat covered with roses to match.

Miss Cory as Fcarlet Geranium, looked very well, as did also Mise Lucy Cady, as Nancy Lee. M ss Hattie Albro looked very well in military

The two "white witches" Miss Cameron and Miss and well carried out. Surgeon-Maj r Lees Hall, as Mandarin was also mest effective.

Mr. Forbes, R. A., was much admired as "a lady" in snow shoe costume.

Mrs. William Bauld gave a very enjoyable dance at her residence on Pleasant street last Friday evening, and was ably assisted by Messrs. John and Robert Bauld. The conservat ry was lighted with Japanese lanterns and fairy lamps whichamong the lovely and numerous flowers had a charming effect. E cellent music was furnished by the harpers. Among those present were: Dr. and Mrs. Kirkpatrick, Mr. and Mrs. R. Metzler, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Kane, Mr. and Mrs. Strickland, Mrs. Deane, Mr. and Mrs. James Mitchell, Dr. and Mrs. Cogswell, Mr. and Mrs. William Lithgow, Mr. and Mrs Everett, Mr. and M. s. A. W. Miss Mabel Boak, white silk. Miss Curren, black satin. MIS. Donne, gray satin, white chiffon trimmings.

Miss Pyke, white muslin. The dance at Hillside Hall last Wednesday evening was one of the nicest arranged things that has been given for some time. The ladies of the house, Mrs. M. Waliace, Mrs. Robertson, and Mrs. Allan received the guests in the large drawing room. There were any number of sitting out rooms and all were beautifully arranged and softly lighted and Tobin and Miss Murphy both giving their hearers were much patronized. The dining room was reserved tor dancing, the floor, was in perfect condition, the music by the harpers was excellent. Light rereshments were provided throughout the evening and an excellent supper was served later in the dining room. Before each dance began a gong was sounded so that those in distant sitting out places need not miss a dance owing to not hearing the music. Among the pretty dresses worn were the following: Mrs. Ferrie very handsome dress of black satin trimmed with jet.

Mis Turner, very pretty pale blue si k. Miss Salter wore a very pretty white dress thread

Mrs. Charles Smith looked well in black satin.

Mrs. Alexander wore green silk. Mrs. Sawyer, black lace.

GREENWICH.

FEB. 18 .- Monday evening the last dance of the season took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. William Richards. Notwithstanding th bad condition of the roads a large number were present. In the early part of the evening a shadow was cast upon the spirits of the young people for a short time owin, to the non appearance of the violinist, but Mr. Domvile Richards manfully came to the rescue with his own violin, and their spirits rose accordingly and dancing was kept up till a late hour. Whist was also a special attraction. At twelve o'clock a supper was served in the dining room. The party broke up after three o'clock. Those present were, Mr. and Mrs. Duval Whelpley, Mr. M. Le B. Lacy, Mr. and Mrs. Odlier Flewelling, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Whe pley, Mrs. W. B. Ganong, Miss Vanwart, Miss Faustine Flewelling, Miss Flo Gorham Miss Blanche Richards, Miss Fan ie Bonnel', Miss Grace Fowler, Miss Edith Belyea, Miss Jennie Holder, Miss Bessie Palmer, Miss Bessie Richards, and Messrs. Lou Fowler, Dr. J. B. Gilchrist, Everad Whelpley, Harry Peatman, Frank Gorham, Fred Short, Jos. Whelpley, Mr. Vanwart. Jos. Richards, Med Richards, Clarence Belyea and

Capt. A. L. Peatman spent Sunday at home. Miss Fannie Bonnell, of Sutton is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. A. L. Pea'man. Mrs. W B. Ganong of the "Cedars" was the uest of Mrs. Duval Whelpley last week.

Mrs. Jos. Richards, sr., friends will be sorry to trimmings, yellow defindils and violets learn that she is again very ill; little hopes are entertained for her recovery this time. Mrs. Geo. Fowler is expected to return home from St. John this week and Miss Grace Fowler will spend two weeks in St John after her mother's mr. Jos. Richards, jr, is expected to return home from Fredericton this week.

FEB. 17 .- The ball given by the I.O. O F. lodge in the masonic hall Friday evening was a decided success in every way. The hall was prettily dc. corated with flags and the music which was furnished by the Moncton orchestra was excellent. The chaperones and committee are to be congratulated on the manner in which the affair was conducted and I think everyone thoroughly enjoyed themselves. Some very pretty dresses were worn by the ladies, and to Miss Jean Thomson who was attied in yellow crepon with black velvet and jet trimmings, is due the honor of being belle. Miss Bessie Bell, wore apple green silk and cream 1.ce fichu, which was both pretty and becoming; Miss Annie Harley, buttercup swiss muslin; Miss Edith Troy, white swiss muslin pale blue trimmings; Mrs. Lee Street, dove colored silk, trimmings of black lace; Mrs. Armstrong, black si k, diamond ornaments; Miss Enma White, black surah silk skirt, cerise bodice, trimmings of black; Mr2. Manning, lemon crepon; Mrs. James Mitchell, looked pretty in a pale bine silk gown, pearl trimmings; Miss Polly Quigley, yellow swiss muslin, cardinal velvet trimmings; Miss Barberie,, Dalhousie, black silk pink ribbons; Miss Sargent, white cashmere pink velvet trimmings; space will not allow me to describe the dresses of the other ladies but I must say that all looked well.

Mr. J. D. Creaghen's friends are pleased to see him out again after suffering from a severe cold Miss Barberie, Dalhousie, was the guest of Mrs. John P. Burchell, Nelson, for a few days last week. Rumor says we are soon to lose one of our fairest daughters, but are glad to know that her home will not be far from us as she would be missed very much both in social and musical circles.

Mrs. W. A. Ferguson, Kingston, spent a few days in town this week the guest of her mother, Mrs. E. Sinclair. Mrs. Adams wife of Hon. M Adams has been confined to the house the past week with a severe cold.

BRIDGETOWN.

[PROGRES3 is for sale in Bridgetown by Miss B.

FEB. 17.-The pri cipal entertainers last week were Mrs. Barnes and Mrs. A. S. Currey, both of which gave a very pleasant dance to a number of their friends. As usual the dance given by Mrs. Barnes on Wednesday evening was a success and every one thoroughly enjoyed themselves. The dance given by Mrs. Curry though not so large was also much enjoyed; everyone knew that St. Valentine's ba'l on Friday evening was the last of the season and I think that is why so many took advantage of it. Of course it was a success as Bridgetown balls always are, Among those who were fortunate enough to be present were, Mrs. Edwin Ruggles, and Mrs. A. S. Currey (chaperones) Miss Elvin. Miss Morse, Miss Kitty Pratt, Miss Grace Hoyt' Miss Rose Healy, Miss Pratt, Wolfville, Miss Dearness, Miss Russel, Miss Minnie Messenger, Dearness, Miss Russel, Miss Minnie Messenger,

HOULTON ME.

Feb. 18 .- To the fact that many degrees below zero does not freeze up the energy of Houlton peo 11°, the magnified success of the third annual bal given by company "L" 2nd Infantry Nationa Guard will abundantly testify. This function took place February thirteenth and in point of attend ance, variety and beauty of dress and decorations and general brilliant effect, proved even a greater success, than the two preceeding very de ightfu assemblies given by Co "L." The decorations o the opera house were tasteful and appropriate, ad ditional lights of 32 candle power having been add ed, the numerous pretty toilete were seen to good advantage. Pullens orchestra (twelve pieces) of Bangor furnished the music, and gave a fine concer t programme before dancing commenced. Tais or ganization is considered the finest in the State and deserves its reputation. Among the various mater ils used in decorating, a display of the flags of all nations was made, those of the United States and Great Britain at the eastern end of the hall, mirrors placed at such angles as to reflect nearly all parts of the room. Pictures of Gettysburg and Antictain hung on the south wall, opposite which were crossed muskets and packed napsacks. In the rea of the hall was a picket scene life size, painted on a large canvas. The porquet and galleries were filed with spectators. At nine c'clook the grand march was announced, led by Col. Philbrook of Augusta and Mrs. Hume, wife of Capt. F. M. Hume of Co. "L" Lieut. Col. Hoyt of Lewiston and Miss Doh. erty, Lieut. Newcouch of Eastport and Miss Ethel Weilington, Capt. Leelof Calais and Miss Kate Wash burn, Capt. Hume of Eastport and Miss Bither Capt. F. M. Hume of Houlton and Miss Deborah Dunn, Lieut. McCulough of Calais and Miss Pearce. Seventy five couples were in the militory march, the handsome uniforms of Co. "L" and the visiting militory gentlemen, combined with the more sombre dress of civilians and charming c us. tumes of the ladiec, made a very pretty picture as seen from the parquet.
