The gaieties were chieffy confined to teas and skating during the past few days, Saturday particularly was very gay in legard to teas.

Mrs. Brookfield gave quite a large At Home that was very pleasant although there was a terrific crowd as Mrs. Brookfield is very popular; the hostess was charmingly dressed as becomes a hostess, and all the arrangements were of course perfect. The tea table was particularly pretty and everything was beautifully done.

Another tea the same day was by Mrs. W. H. Troop; this was altogether a ladies party no men being favored with invitations. Everything was beautifully managed. The tea was a great success. This is a new departure in Halifax and dates only from the beginning of the winter. It is already most popular and looks as if men were to be politely bycotted at tea time. Mrs. Troops rooms were prettily arranged and were well fil ed at least towards the end of the afternoon.

Monday Mrs. F. Jones gave a ladies luncheon for Mrs. Rutherford of Toronto, and two other functions of a like nature were also given during the week.

General and Mrs. Montgomery-Moore have returned from their short journeyings, but Bellevue lost one of its inmates last week as Miss Matcham left Saturday for her home in England after a stay of several months here. She will be greatly missed in Halifax. Mr. Brush who has be n here for several weeks also leaves in the same ship and later on a number of well known people will, as usual here in spring go to England until the summer gaieties begin; April and May here form what is known as the "dead season" as there is usually no gaiety whatever between the end of the skating season and the arrival of the fleet.

The civilians rink party is postponed until next week and it is to be hoped there will be ace for it then though the prospects are not very good just at

Tuesday afternoon there were to have been two teas but both were cancelled owing to the excellent skating at the rink which was crowded until the last moment of the afternoon.

Wednesday Mrs. James Duffus gave a tea which was about the only thing doing. The tea I believe was particularly nice and the arrangements were all perfect in detail.

Thursday there was nothing except one small dinner at which there was a merry and congenial party. So far it is a well-known fact that Halifax "society" has not 'aken very kindly to the wheel, but it must be remembered that there is so much going on here in summer in that especial circle that bicycling has been rather crowded out.

It is to be a great yachting summer, too, according to the gossips, and rumor says that one lady will own and sail her own yacht; while that there are to be several quite new yachts is, an old story. There was not one night last week without its card party, though none of these were large or very late. In spite of criticism such small parties are an ad . mirable way of entertaining one's iutimate friends at small expense. No one gives elaborate suppers, and a hostess has no responsibility about amusing

Miss Davidson's exhibition of fancy skating wa quite a revelation as to what may be done on skates. Her trick work and pironetting on the very toes of her skates were some hing remarkable. She looked well in her pictures que d'ess and was most graceful in everything she did but her trick work was quite beyond an amateur without months of practice. Throughout her entire performance she was tremendously applauded. I have heard of several engagements which are soon to be announced. It would be premature to give names at present. One is that of a daughter of a prominent government cflicial in high rank rothe son of a leading clergyman from a neighboring city A popular young doctor in connection with the Hospital staff is also to wed shortly.

I hear of two Easter dances to come off in April. One at a private house and one subscription dance If it is true we are to have the navy with us early next month, they will probably bring numerous entertainments in their train.

The Sailors' Home bazaar bids fair to be a great attraction this summer. All the ladies interested are good workers, and a great many of them will prove as great an attraction as any of the pretty articles for sale.

With the Summer Carnival etc., etc., Halifax promises to be quite gay this year, as two marriages are arranged in fashi nable and military society. and there are rumors also that there may come off a third, and in that c se the rink next year will miss one of its best and most graceful skaters.

Mrs. (Rev.) John McMillan had an exceedingly pleasant "at home" at her residence No 1 Fawson street, yesterday afternoon. The guests were re ceived by the host and hostess, and the latter's sister Mrs. R. C. Wright of New Glasgow. The Misses McMillan in an admirable minner did their part to make the afternoon pass enjoyably.

TRURO.

[PROGRESS is for sale in Truro by G. O. Fulton and D. H. Smith & Co.]

Mar. 18, .. A house crowded to the very doors, greeted Mrs. C. W. Harrison last Monday evening . An audience both critical and appraciative, many of whom had listened to some of the world's greatest evening evinced the very keenest enjoyment. Mrs. Harrison's appearance was the signal for storms of applause, which were gracefully ack nowledged. The singer's charms of face and form, were accentuated by a becoming toilette of nie green corded silk, with V shaped front and back of embroidered sequins, and bouffant sleeves of nile green chiffon. Her first number Arditis "La Incontro," was beautifully rendered, and vociferously encored after a generous response from the beautiful singer Mr. W. Karl Vincent presented a handsome bou. quet, which was gracefully acknowledged by the recipient. Mrs. Harrison's every number, showed her a true mistress of song, and increased the enthusiasm of her audience. Though, in all she shone as a thorough'y artiste, in none was the great flexibility and compass of her voice so apparent as in her rendering of the Grand Aria from Traviata by Verdi. Misses Rice and Philips were in perfect voice and had to respond to hearty encores. The work of the orchestra throughout was grand, and a great surprise, cons'dering the short time they have been together. Miss Fitch's work as accompanist, deserves infinite credit. Mr. Fitch is the rec'pient of many flattering encomiums on the complete success of the affair, which was largely due to his skillful conductorship and enterprise, also was it the happy forethought of this gentleman to arrange a reception and impromtee dance in Mrs. Harrison's honor, at the Learment, after the concert. Among those who erjoyed the affair were, Mr. and Mrs. Gourley, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Smith, Mrz. Bligh, Miss Rogers, the Misses I ligh, Miss McKay, Miss Nora Blanchard, Miss Da'sy Oliver, (Halifax) Miss Fitch, Miss Carrie Chisholm, Misses Hyde, Messrs. W. A. Fitch, G. A. Hall, W. F. McKaye, D. ANAGANCE.

MAR. 17 .- The most notable thing of this week was the gossip upon the party on "Apple Hill" last Friday evening, when Miss Davidson and her brothers Messrs. Humphrey and Albert Davidson were to entertain some sixty or so of their friends to a dance, and that a glorious time was anticipated by all who were fortunate enough to be honored with an invitation. But a feeling of disappointment and regret was caused in both the villages of Peti codiac and Ansgance when it was an sounced that Miss Davidson had been taken violently ill, and the party indefinitely postponed. However Miss Davidson after being confined to her bed for a couple of days completely recovered from her sudden illness and the party took place on Monday evening of this week. "Apple Hill" the residence of Messrs. Davidson was prettily lighted and decorated. Miss Davidson had everything arranged carefully and methodically to 'end to the comfort of her guests, as she always does. Dancing was the chief amusement Messrs. Samuel Chapman of Sussex and Fred Davidson, of Portage furnishing some excellent music, although games of various kinds were indulged in by those wao didn't care, to trip the light fantastic. Some cozy corners arranged modestly in twos and were evidently appreciated as they were all occupied between the dances. Among those invited and present were, Mr. and Mrs. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Trites, Mr. and Mrs. Davidson, Mr. and Mrs. Huestis, Mr. and Mrs. Keith, Mrs. Hanson, the Misses Trites, Misses Blakney, Misses Keith, Misses Price, Misses Florence Jones, Lulu McMurray, Julia Smith, Flossie Stockton, Annie Webster, and Messrs. David and Harry Smith, Hugh and Chip Keith, Harry Hughes, Cliff Price, Bernard Ryan, Hort. Price, Kenneth McRae, St. John, Dr. Price, Moncton and others. The ladies all looked exceptionally well and some very pretty dresses were worn. Miss Davidson received her guests in a dainty singers, and whose demonstrations throughout the frock of cream pongee silk with lace and ribbons.
