The second subscription concert of the Orphens Club last week was a very delightful success. Mr. Porter has brought the club to a great degree of perfection. The Cantata "Praise Jehovah," in which Miss F. Lewis, Mrs. J. McD. Taylor, Mr. D. C. Gillis, and Mr. W. Shute, and the club with ladies Auxiliary took part was very beautiful and inspiring. Max Weils violin solo was beauti'ul and received rapturous applause, Miss Metz'ers Av Maria was a magnificent thing beautifully rendered and received a very enthusiastic encore. The Cantata "The Lord is King" is another beautiful production and in this Miss Lewis and Miss Taylor appeared as the soloists and held the audience spell-bound as the rich notes rolled forth. Too much cannot be said of the choruses. There are few cities were such splendid music can be produced, and Halifax should be proud of those who do the News of the death of Dr. Burns, late pastor of Fort Massey presbyterian church, was heard here with deep regret as the doctor and his family were popular with all classes. Mrs. Arthur Troop is a daughter of the deceased clergyman and will have the deep sympathy of a large circle of friends. Miss Grace Harvey left last week on the Labrador for England. Miss Nagle has gone to Toronto in company with Miss Rutherford who has been spending the past six weeks with Mrs. and Miss Nagle. Miss Rutherford's marriage to a western gentleman worth several millions takes place in the summer. Mrs. and Miss Willy leave for England early in Mrs. W. H. Troop who was to have had a tea on Monday of last week postponed it owing to the death of Dr. Burns.

Mrs. (Col.) Leach had a very pleasant tea Thursday of last week at which about one hundred guests were present. The rooms were beautifully arranged and the tea was excellent.

Death during the last week has shrouded another family in grief. Mr. Arthur Thompson left here in November in search of warm weather, after having passed through a very severe illness last summer. But unfortunately he did not regain his health, and died last week at Ba bados, his brother, Mr. Walter Thompson, being with him at the time. To Mr. and Mrs. Thompson and their family all Halifax entends condolence in their great grief and sorrow.

Several walking parties have taken place lately and Mayflowers have been unsuccessfully looked for; but the parties have been gay ones nevertheless and the merry trampers had a pleasant time of it.

The fiend influenza has been laying his hands on many of our fellow citizens, flying on the wings of these pleasant breezes we have been enjoying lately no doubt. General and Mrs. Montgomerv Moore | CORNELIUS GALLAGHER, 99 St. Patrick St and party have delayed their departure owing to the General's indisposition.

It is said that the summer is to bring us many yachts as several new ones are being built in Dartmouth as well as several importations from abroad. There are several who might almost be termed professionals in yachting among the ladies here, and among them might be mentioned Mrs. Fred Jones, Miss Story, Miss Buckley, Miss Dot Salter and a number of others all equally good at managing small crafts with skill and ability. The pretty American wife of one of the offi ers of the garrison is also a lady yachtsman, so perhaps the yacht club would add to the attraction of the season. Halifax, it is frequently averred by every one, is one of the most conservative cities on the continent. I has heretofore set its face resolutely against the bicycle, but the inevitable has come and this year every lady who can marage it will have a bicycle. In Young avenue, Halifax has its Battersea park, and I hear that when certain persons return a definite hour will be fixed for the fashionable folks to take their outing on the magnificen road lately put into shape.

Mr. A. M. K. Doull returned lately from Ber. muda by the Alpha and his friends are glad to know he has greatly improved in health.

The last meeting of the whist club for this season, took place at Mr. Paulin's on Thursday. A very pleasant evening was spent. This institution has been very much enjoyed by the members and has helped to make the winter evenings pass pleasantly. The meetings have taken place once a week and has been wel attended. The friends of Mrs. W. Cur.y and Mrs. Forsyth who have been wintering in Jamaica and Bermuda respectively, are glad to learn that they may look for their return, probably by he next trip of the "Alpha."

Mrs. Clarence and Mrs. Norm in Dimock will also likely be home from their c ntinental trip early in May. So many of our largest and and pleasantest houses have been closed by the absence of these ladies that their return will be hailed with delight. O wing no doubt in part to the backward and changeable weather, there is a great deal of sickness in town, quite a number of people being confined to the house. Notwithstanding this, however, the evangelistic meetings have been very largely attended. OnSunday evening the Methodist chu ch (he largest in town) wa filled to over flowing, a very pleasing feature of the meeting was the singing of a mule sixtette co aposed of Messrs. Shand, Chisholm, McElhinney, Dimock, Curry, and Dakin. The meetings close this week.

Mr. Arthur Sutherland has been quite ill but is recovering.

YARMOUTH. (FROM AN OCCASIONAL CORRESPONDENT)

APRIL 11 .- It is perhaps not generally known hat Yar mouth gives the cleverest amateur perormances in the lower provinces. I have hap sened now to see several of them, operatic and gramatic, and there is a fi lish to them which savors more of St. John people might have an opportunity of see- place. The most pleasing feature of the entertainin and hearing the Yarmouth amateurs present the pretty and well known opera Chimes of Nor | members led by Miss M. Leavitt and Miss Eusie mandy which they gave here last Thursday and Cunnigham. The young ladies were Empire gowns Friday under the leadership of Mr. J. D. The dresses were very beia their pictures que Normandy caps and dresses | coming, the eff.ct being most graceful and the looked charming and acted with a naivete and a perfect ease which was really surprising. To the principals too much praise cannot be given. of the whole aff ir, Mrs. Malcolm's son; "Beauty's Serpolette, in the hands of Mrs. P. St. C. Hamilton | Eyes" was lou'ly encored as was also the duet in was as finished a piece of acting as has ever been given in an amateur company in the provinces and indeed was in advance of the average professional and Miss Glad's R binson and the song in character performance. Her makeup and costumes were excellent and this lady not only has a pleasing mezzo soprano voice, but sings every word with as clear articulation as though it was spoken. Miss J. T Gardner as little Germaine, gave a fine rendition of a role well suited to her, her splendid soprano voice showing to great advantage, while a pretty face and pleasing vivacious manner made the part very fetching. Miss Annie Peterkin was a most attractive Gertrude singing and acting with the greatest spirit throughout. Dr. W. O. Gray as Gaspard. was a surprise. It is a hard part in the hands of an experienced professional, but his impersonation was remarkable. There was the thin sallow faced, blear remarkable. There was the thin sallow faced, blear eyed old miser, with his penthouse eye-brows and sneering cruel scowl, his almost toothless mouth in very deed a "bad old min." His acting, in the chateau scine especiall, was a wonderful piece of dramatic work. Mr. C. S. Pelton as "Grenicheux" was full of rollicking fun, while the old Baili, Mr. H. Jones, was a model pompous old man and Mr. R. G. Allison, as the Notary, made up as fu ny a little old man as one ever sees. Mr. W. H. Cann impersonated Henri, the Hero of the story perhaps might have made a little more of his part in the way of acting, but his singing was indeed excellent. The orchestra was a strong one and well-trained. The chorus consisted of Misses Dora Tooker, Marion Murray, Laura Shreve, Dora Murray, Margaret Woodburn, Annie Peterkin, Alice Clements and Mrs. M. A. Shaw. Messrs. A. Eakins, J. H. Scott, Eugene Campbell, W. Lawson, R. Williams, F. Ross F. Ferguson, J. Baker, Geo Cain, E. H. Bergers and Mr. R. Potter. Ross F. Ferguson, J. Baker, Geo Cal E. H. There was a leap year skating party in the rink last Monday. The large crowd in attendance enjoyed themselves very much.

The first dance since lent was given by Mr. an i Mrs Joe C. Chishelm, a their cos y residence on Main street. I did not know all wao were there but they all seemed to enjoy the "hop" very much. Miss Cassie McLean was ill for a few days but her many friends are glad to see her out again.

I promised last week to give a full account of the singing in the cathedral on Sunday. I may say that it surpassed any previous occasions. Sister St. Leonidas presided at the organ, and was ably assisted by Mr. John Turabull with the cornet. The singing was led by Proflessor Horrigan and the programme was as follows:

Miss M. J. McIsaac's alto voice was heard to great advanta e, and was the first time she had sung alone and was well heard in all the alto pasts. The younger mem-bers of the choir sang very nicely and deserve much credit. The sermon at mass in the morning was preached by Rev. D. McDonald of the college and was a very able effort.

In writing about the Ladies Mock Parliament last week, and trying to do justice to it too hurriedly, the idea was conveyed that a unanimity prevaded the whole "House" on the subject of "Suf frage" and "Enfranchisement." Tais is not so: for, while the Hon Premier, Miss J. C. Smith, and many of her Honorabe Colleagues are ardent partisans for womens' suff age, The Hon. Speaker Mrs. H. T Harding, the Hon. Attorney General, Miss Mai Dimock; the Hon. leader of the opposition, Miss A. T. McKay, are equally averse to the question, and all of its tenets,

The news of Miss Jennie Smith's death, which occurred in Canard, Kings Co., last Toursday was received here with very sincere regret, by her relatives and also by a 'arge circle of friends, who loved and esteemed her, for her many very amiable qualities. The funeral services took place in St. Andrews' church on Friday afternoon. Rev. Mr. Cumming, was assisted in the service by Rev. Mr. Rogers from New Glasgow, whose short address was delivered feelingly and couched in words beautiful and touchingly sympathetic. The flora tributes from friends were beautiful and profuse.

Mr. E W.
