Capt. Sinclair and the two sons of the governorgeneral, Lord Haddo and the Honorable Dudley Gordon arrived from England on the Vancouver the week before Christmas and after hurried visits to Lieut, Governor Daly and General Montgomery-Moore, they left for Ottawa.

General Montgomery- Moore entertained the Brigade staff to dinner at Bellevue on Christmas day.

The event of Monday night, was the entertainment given in aid of the Sailors home. The programme was made up by Mi-s Madeline Homer, soprano, Mr. George Boak, baritone, Harmonica quartette and the band of the Berkshire regiment which was heard to wonderful advantage and succeeded 10 charming even the most exacting critics. A great feature of the evening was the feats of Mr. Sahlstrom of Sweden who gave exhibitions in sught of hand, spiritual searce, etc. The whole aflair was excellent and well managed, and quite a sum was realized,

The Maritime Travellers Association held a very successful ball last week, and a very pleasant evening was spent by all; a number of society people were present. The ladies were exceptionally well dressed and the rooms at the Halifax were a very bright scene.

Last week was decidedly the childrens week and they had any amount of teas, parties, and Christmas trees, The grown ups are resting after a particularly busy autumn and earty winter and will no doubt soon be breaking forth with renewed vigor to attack the social citadel.

On 'Thursday' of last week there was good outdoor skating almost everywhere. Numbers went to Frog lake, and the ice there was perfect. As usual numbers of parties were arranged for the next day, and as usual it rained; had it not done so, it would, of course, have promptly snowed. In despair one exclaims, "It is ever thus," and as it is, we can never depend on our outdoor skating. If the rink does not soon open, we shall all die of ennui, and there seems small likelit ood of its doing so at present, that is if the weather remains as mild as it has been during the last week.

The private afternoons' session is supposed to begin next Friday, but whether it will or not depends, of course, on his lordship the clerk of the weather. I hear that we are to have only one set of lancers during the afternoons this year, and that one piece will be reserved for figure skating. Although 1 daresay many will growl (even at the suggestion) it seems almost as if a waltz could better be spared than the lancers, to judge by the number who skated them last year. There was always such a rush for them, that if you had not secured a vis a vis

WOODSTOCK.

[PROGRESS is for sale in Wookstock by Mrs. Loane & Co.

DEC. 31 .- The "At Home" given by the Free and Accepted masons of Woodstock lodge on the evening of St. John's day was the most brilliant social function held in Woodstock for some time. The entertainment was given in Graham's Opera House and consisted of a fine musical and literary programme followed by dancing. The Hall was very artistically decorated with bunting and greenery, and the beautiful costumes of the ladies mingling with the gala array of the gentlemen, who wore the Masonic aprons, and in many cases the insigma of the Royal Arch; made a wonderful festive scene as they went through the various figures of the square dances, or waltzed in mazy circles of ever varying hue.

Robinson's Orchestra furnished very inspiriting music. An address by Rev. C. T. Phillips was highly entertaining and well received, Mrs. A. A. Brewer's song "Mona" was beautifully rendered, and received enthusiastic applause, Miss Hudson gave a very clever reading, "A Boat Race"-and being recalled delighted the audience with a very taking selection. Songs by Mrs. Holyoke, Miss Henderson and a quartette by Messrs Wright, 'Anderson, Taylor, and Burnham, with a reading by Mr. McLean, completed the interesting programme.

A Running Supper was served during the evening, the supper room being thrown open at ten e'clock. Tables supplied with many delicacies and prettily decorated were spread in rooms downstairs.

The reception committee were J. T. Allan Dibblee, M. P. P., and Mrs. Dibblee, Dr. and Mrs. Rankin, Mr. and Mrs. J. Norman Winslow, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Munro, Mr. and Mrs. W. Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. John McLauchlan and Mr. Grenville James, Mr. and Mrs. Allison Connell.

forehand, you stood a very slim chance of getting in a set at all. There was usually about seven sets of lancers going on at once, when to have room to do them properly, there ought never to be more than five-some say three would be better-but then some people want the earth or in this case the rink. The death occurred at Keith hall last Friday evening of Mrs. Alexander Keith, widow of the late Hon. Alexander Keith. She was noted for her hospitality, Keith hall having been 'the resort of society people, many of the largest entertainments in the city having been given there. The deceased leaves three daughters, one being the wife of Dr. Wickwire. The late Mrs. Keith was of a very kindly disposition and never failed to remember friends and acquaintances, who were afflicted or in distress. Her death will be widely felt and the deceased lady's family will have the sympathy of a very large number of friends in their bereavement. AMHERST. [PROGRESS is for sale at Amherst by Master A. D.

Campbell.] Jan. 1 .- The Masonic Service in Christ church on Friday evening, St. John's Day was not so largely attended as usual by the public in general, but those of the mystic Order looked in excellent form and made a good showing as to numbers. Rev. J. Roy Campbell of Dorchester, preached a very eloquent sermon. The music during the service was very good indeed. At the close the members marched to the Terrace Hotel where they had dinner. The names on the programme for their entertainment included some of our best male solo. ists among whom were Mr. H. J. Logan, Prof. Sterne, Mr. W. M. Chesley, J. M. Curry, Mr. D. T. Chapman and others.

Miss Pipes and Miss Grace Pipes gave a dance on Friday evening to their many young friends that was highly enjoyed. Miss Pipes wore a very pretty frock of cream cashmere and was assisted in her duties as hostess by Mrs. C. W. Hewson who wore a very hands me black gown, Miss Grace Pipes looked well in a dress of cream trimmed with helitrope. Among the guest who comprised the merry number were, the Misses Purdy, Miss Alice Mackinnon, Miss May Love, Miss Fuller, Miss Chapman, Misses Munro, Miss Pugsley, Miss Gertie Hillcoat, Miss Florence Hewson, Miss Welling, Miss Helen Gass, Mr. Joe Douglas, J. R. Dougles, T. S. Sayre, Mr. Boyd Morse, Mr. Mnrray Mr. Hincman, Mr. Harry Biden, Mr. Garnet Chapman, Mr. Chas. Purdy, Mr. Hal Purdy, Mr. Geo. Douglas, and Messrs. McLeod.

The first dance of the New Year is at Mrs. A. P, Mackinnon's, Laplanch street, and those who are fortunate enough to have invitations will no doubt have a pleasant time.

The annual reception of the Y. M. C. A. takes place this afternoon from three to seven. A suit able programme will be rendered during the after. noon and refreshments will be served.

The many friends of Mrs. B. D. Bent will regret to hear that she and her children are ill with the scarlet fever at their home on Eddy street.

The many Amherst friends of Mr. and Mrs. Arch McColl of New Glasgow will be pleased to hear of the arrival of a wee lassie in their home.

A small dinner party was given by Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Douglas on New Year's night at their home on Victoria street. Among the guests, who were the immediate relatives of the family, were Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Pipe, Mrs. Sleep, Misses Sleep, Mr. and Mrs. Hickman, Dorchester, and Mr. Joe Douglas.

Miss Embree and Miss Morrison returned to their home in Port Tupper on Friday alternoon. Mrs. S. F. Huestis and Mrs. Dawson of Halifax, were among our visitors in town last week. Rev. J.
