

A Treasury of Information

SUNLIGHT ALMANAC

Containing 480 pages of useful information for all members of the household.

GIVEN FREE TO USERS OF SUNLIGHT SOAP

HOW TO OBTAIN A COPY: Commencing November, 1895, and until the books are all given, purchasers of 3 packages, or 9 bars of SUNLIGHT SOAP, will receive from their grocer, 1 SUNLIGHT ALMANAC FREE.

The book contains complete Calendar matter, Biography, Literature, Home Management, Language of Flowers, Fashions, Games and Amusements, Recipes, Dreams and their significance, Poultry, etc.

TO PREVENT DISAPPOINTMENT Buy early

N. D. HOOPER, St. John, N. B., Agent for New Brunswick.

ST. STEPHEN AND CALAIS.

PROGRESS is for sale in St. Stephen by Master Ralph Trainor, and at the bookstores of R. S. Daggett, G. S. Wall and J. Vroom & Co. in Calais at C. P. Treat's.

JAN. 1.—Last evening at the Windsor Hotel, the young society element danced the old year out and the new year in. The ball was a delightful one, and the dancing waxed long and merry. The matrons were Mrs. Leins Dexter, Mrs. W. G. Todd and Mrs. Frank P. Woods, and the committee of management were Messrs. J. E. Ganong, A. T. Petkic, H. P. Graham, N. M. Mills, Edgar Foster, John R. Trimble, John Eaton, George Newton.

The ladies were most prettily and stylishly dressed. Mrs. Leins Dexter, wore a rich white satin trimmed with duchesse lace and pearl embroidery.

Mrs. W. F. Todd, pale pink ottoman silk, trimmed richly with dark green velvet.

Mrs. Frank Woods, yellow satin with trimmings of cream point lace.

Mrs. Charles F. Board, pale green and white silk, trimmed with point lace and violets, ornaments diamonds.

Mrs. Fred Marchie, handsome black silk costume, trimmed heavily with jet.

Mrs. Arthur Corliss, rich black silk trimmed with jet.

Mrs. Ernest T. Lee, pale blue costume trimmed with narrow pale pink ribbon.

Mrs. Katherine Copeland, a dainty dress of white mull, adorned with pale pink and black velvet ribbon.

Mrs. Be. Be. Smith, pink silk, trimmed with lace and ostrich feathers.

Mrs. Lillie E. Ryan, blue and white striped silk.

Mrs. Emma Harris, stylish costume of red crepe, trimmed with ribbons.

Mrs. Carrie Barker, lovely gown of pale blue and white silk, trim and lace, which was most becoming.

Mrs. Josie Hamm looked charming in a dainty frock of mauve mull, trimmed profusely with ribbons of the same shade.

Mrs. May Simpson, red organdie, trimmed with ribbons, which was most stylish and chic.

Mrs. Mame Vose, pink silk, trimmed with ribbons.

Mrs. Ida Smith, pink silk, trimmed with ribbons of the same shade, a most becoming costume.

Mrs. Flora Cooke, pale green silk, trimmed with white lace.

Mrs. Kate Washburne, pretty dress of black net embroidered with gold.

Mrs. Carrie Washburne, scarlet silk with over-dress of scarlet crepe.

Mrs. Mary Foster, pale blue and black costume.

Mrs. Millie Sawyer, stylish frock of pale pink silk, trimmed handsomely with lace.

Mrs. Gardner, pretty dress of pink and white striped silk, trimmed with white lace.

Mrs. Minnie Haycock, pale blue silk, trimmed with white lace.

Mrs. Fannie Lowell, dainty gown of white mull, most becoming to the youthful wearer.

The gentlemen present were: Messrs. Lewis Dexter, W. F. Todd, Chas. F. Board, J. E. Ganong, George Newton, John Eaton, John Trimble, Frank Littlefield, Aubrey Upham, Roy Maxwell, Percy Gilmore, Arthur Murchie, Fred Murchie, Harry Graham, Marks Mills, Howard Murchie, W. A. Mills, Frank Murchie, Dr. Holland, Dr. Byrne, Mr. Wickwire and H. S. Petkic.

Supper was served at half past twelve and was a plentiful one. The dancing continued until an early hour next morning.

A very quiet but happy wedding party gathered at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Henry F. Todd this afternoon at three o'clock to witness the marriage of their only daughter Miss Margaret Todd to Mr. Fredric P. MacNichol, second son of the late Hon. Archibald MacNichol. There were no guests but the immediate relatives of both the bride and groom, owing to the recent great sorrow in the family of the groom. The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. J. T. Bryan, rector of Trinity church. The bride looked sweetly radiant in a handsome travelling costume of dark green novelty cloth with hat and gloves to match. There were no bridesmaids, but the two little nieces of the bride, Miss Mildred Bolton Todd and Miss Rhoda Young acted as tiny maids of honor. After the ceremony, and congratulations, luncheon was served, and immediately the happy young couple drove to the station and left in the afternoon train for Boston, where they will spend their honeymoon. The wedding gifts are most beautiful and numerous. Miss Todd being a great favorite, not only in society, but with those who need kindness and necessities of life she endeared herself for her many kindly words and thoughtful charities, and it is a pleasure to all her friends and acquaintances that she and her husband have decided to always make their home in St. Stephen.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Amisen have given invitations to a party at their residence this evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Durell Grimmer arrived in the Viking today from St. Andrews to spend New Years day with Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Grimmer.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Gilmore were registered at the Windsor Hotel yesterday. They left today for Montreal.

Mrs. J. A. Grimmer intends to leave the first of next week for California where she will spend the winter with relatives.

Trinity church Sunday School enjoyed a tree in their school room last evening. The tree was loaded with gifts for the scholars, and the rector Rev. J. T. Bryan received a purse of money. Christ church Sunday school have their annual tree this evening. The Baptist congregation had a most pleasant festival and treat in their vestry last night which was greatly enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Todd celebrated the twenty fifth anniversary of their wedding day on Monday. They were surprised by a party of friends who came loaded with silver gifts and kindly congratulations.

Mrs. Almon I. Teed most generously arranged and gave a tree concert with gifts to the pupils of her Sunday school on Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Teed is the teacher of the infant class in the Methodist church, and her task is no easy one for the children number some seventy five or eighty. The tree treat was held in the vestry of the Methodist church and was greatly enjoyed both by the children and lady friends of Mrs. Teed, who were present.

Miss Maud Maxwell entertained a party of young friends at her home on Thursday evening.

The "Harmony club" met at the residence of Mrs. Howard B. McAllister on Tuesday evening and as usual at their meetings enjoyed a most delightful two hours of music.

Miss Maud Marks entertained a party of young lady friends at tea on Monday evening at her home. The game of fan-tan was the amusement provided, and was greatly enjoyed by her guests.

The Misses Nelson gave a five o'clock tea on Saturday afternoon at their residence in Calais, which was a most charming affair.

Miss Berta Smith on Saturday evening invited a small party of friends to enjoy that popular and social game of "commerce" at her home.

Mrs. Bolton left on Saturday for Houlton, Maine, where she will visit her daughter Mrs. R. L. Sloggett, for a few weeks before she goes south for the winter.

Miss Birdie Todd, the young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. Todd is suffering from an attack of measles.

Mrs. W. L. Daggett of Grand Manan is spending a few days in town this week.

Mr. C. R. Pike left on Thursday for a visit in Boston.

Mr. Joseph Lechary of McGill college has been spending the holidays at his home here.

Miss Maud Duplessis of Princeton is visiting in Calais, her young friend, Miss Belle Woodcock.

Mr. J. B. Gillespie of St. John is visiting friend in town this week.

Mrs. Thomas and her brother, Mr. Rand came from Nova Scotia to spend Christmas with their brother-in-law, Mr. Henry E. Hill.

Major and Mrs. John Hodgins have returned from Boston, where they were summoned to attend the funeral services of Mrs. Ferdinand Emerson.

Mr. James L. Thompson's friends will be glad to learn he is so far recovered from his injuries that he hopes to return to Waterville next week to resume his studies at Colby college.

Mr. R. H. Seaton of Halifax has been spending the holiday season in town.

Miss Georgie Meredith is spending a few days at Oak Bay with her friend, Mrs. James Millidge.

Hon. A. H. Gilmore, accompanied by Mrs. Gilmore, were registered at the Windsor on Monday, and left on the train at quarter past five in the afternoon, en route to Ottawa.

Mr. and Mrs. Beverly Stevens have returned from St. John, where they spent Christmas day.

Mrs. George Mills of Belfast, Maine have been visiting Mrs. Mills' parents, Dr. and Mrs. Vose.

Mr. Charles F. Board has returned from his hunting expedition.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Tremble of Bangor have been visiting their relatives in Calais.

Mrs. A. E. Neill expects to spend part of the winter in Ottawa, where she will be the guest of Mrs. W. L. Blair.

Miss Katherine Copeland is home from Cambridge, Mass and has been heartily welcomed by her friends.

Mrs. Waterbury, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Ethel Waterbury and her son, Master Willie Waterbury have been spending the past three days in St. Andrews the guests of Mrs. G. D. Grimmer.

Mr. Theodore Murchie and his daughter Pearl, are visiting St. John this week.

Miss Mabel Clarke and Miss Ethel Waterbury, leave on Friday for Boston to resume their studies at their respective schools.

Mr. George Beverly of St. John is in town for a few days visit.

Mrs. Fredric Friese of Houlton and her children are visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. J. Reed Kimball.

Mr. H. M. Sawyer has returned from Boston.

Mr. John Clarke Taylor returned from Boston last week.

Mr. H. M. Bates has been appointed post master. Mrs. Harriet Clerk's friends will be glad to hear she is quite comfortable and not suffering any pain. Mrs. Clerk met with a severe fall on Christmas eve breaking her arm and sustaining other injuries. As she is a very elderly lady her condition is a serious one, but her relatives and friends have great hope of her recovery.

Mr. Martha Swan of Lee, Mass., will celebrate 103rd birthday this week. She is blind, but in excellent health.

Out of Sores.—Symptoms. Headache, loss of appetite, fever, tongue, and general debility. These symptoms, if neglected, develop into acute disease. It is a true saying that an "ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure," and a little attention at this point may save months of sickness and large doctor's bills. For this complaint take from two to three of Parmenter's Vegetable Pills on going to bed, and one or two for three nights in succession, and a cure will be effected.

Maine's game commissioner's estimate that fully 4,000 deer have been killed in the Maine woods this season.

Has La Grippe.—Mr. A. Nickerson, Farmer, Dutton, writes: "Last winter I had La Grippe and it left me with a severe pain in the small of my back and hip that used to catch me whenever I tried to climb a fence. This lasted for about two months when I bought a bottle of Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil and used it both internally and externally, morning and evening, for three days, at the expiration of which time I was completely cured."

Nevada's gold yield for the past year is estimated at $1,220,701, and the silver yield at 990,500 ounces.

A January thaw is always more productive of colds and coughs than a January freeze. Then is the time Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is needed and proves so extremely efficacious. Ask your druggist for it, and also for Ayer's Almanac, which is free to all.

Coal of excellent quality and in apparently enormous quantities, have just been discovered in Arizona, in the Dos Cabezas district, only six miles from the railroad.

Dr. Shields, an eminent physician of Tennessee, says: "I regard Ayer's Sarsaparilla as the best blood-medicine on earth, and I know of many wonderful cures effected by its use." Physicians all over the land have made similar statements.

Maine wheelmen have been experimenting with bicycling on the ice, and are said to be very successful and exhilarating sport in most instances.

Every man having a beard should keep it an even and natural color, and if it is not so already, use Buckingham's Dye and appear tidy.

Charles H. Hutchings.

Sick Headache

CURED PERMANENTLY

BY TAKING

Ayer's Pills

"I was troubled a long time with sick headache. I tried a good many remedies, but was not cured until I began taking Ayer's Pills."

That I received permanent benefit. A single box of these pills freed me from headaches, and I am now a well man."

—C. H. HUTCHINGS, East Auburn, Me.

Awarded Medal at World's Fair

Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the Best

ANAGANOE.

Dec. 31.—Mrs. R. C. Bacon of Hopewell Hill is spending a few weeks with her friends on "Apple Hill."

The Misses McAnespy of Portage entertained some thirty or forty of their friends to a dance last Friday evening.

Rev. Jos. B. Pascoe of Pettitodiac preached to a large and appreciative congregation here last Sunday in place of Mr. Stebbings, who is with his family spending the festive season with relatives in P. E. I.

Mrs. George H. Davidson attended the dance in Oddfellow's hall, Sussex last Thursday evening.

Mrs. Bacon and Miss Bertie Davidson spent Monday in Sussex the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Burnett.

Mr. Beverley D. McNaughton spent Sunday in Apohaqui visiting friends.

Miss Lina Stockton of St. John is spending the Christmas vacation with her parents here.

Mrs. McNaughton and Miss Julia McNaughton spent Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. Byard McLeod at Apohaqui.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Stevens and two children who have been visiting relatives in Woodstock, returned home last evening.

Mrs. John C. Price was in town last Friday visiting friends.

Mr. Bliss Keith is spending today with friends in Sussex.

Mr. Howard McCully, manager of Wilson and McLaughlin's mills here has the heartfelt sympathy of the entire community in his bereavement over the death of his wife, who died last Tuesday after a painful illness of four weeks duration, and who left three small children the youngest of which is only a few weeks old. Mrs. McCully was a woman of noble character and truly hospitable disposition.

She was buried in the F. C. B. burying ground at Pettitodiac on Friday, the Rev. Mr. Simm officiating, the funeral was one of the largest that has been seen here for many years as the deceased lady was highly respected.

Miss Jessie Jonah of Boston, Mass., is spending this week with Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Stockton.

Mr. Lester Stockton spent yesterday with friends in Pettitodiac.

Mosquitto.

RICHIBUCTO.

PROGRESS is for sale in Richibucto by Theodore P. Graham.

JAN. 1.—Miss Taylor daughter of the late Wm. Taylor of Fredericton died at the residence of Mr. D. Percey where she has resided for some time past. Miss Taylor has been a resident of Richibucto for a long time and was well known, she has been an invalid for the past four years and her death was not unlooked for when she passed peacefully to rest on Christmas night. The funeral took place on Saturday afternoon, Rev. Wm. Hamilton conducting the service at the house and grave.

Mr. Geo. McMillan of Truro is spending a few days here with his mother Mrs. David McMillan.

Miss Hattie Ferguson went to Shediac on Monday to visit friends.

The dancing party held in Kingston last Friday evening was a most pleasant affair, the people of that town showing a generous hospitality to their guests from here, a hospitality for which they are famed in catering to their guests. A return party will be given here on Friday night in the Masonic hall.

Mr. Tom Triffin of Chatham is in town.

Mr. S. B. Patterson returned from St. John on Saturday.

Mrs. Alex. Barnett after a severe illness died on Monday morning, leaving two small children and a husband to mourn her loss. The interment takes place this afternoon.

An entertainment confined to the members of the S. of T. lodge takes place this evening in the temperance hall.

The ladies of the Presbyterian s. school give a tea on Thursday night to the school children, after which an entertaining programme will be carried into effect.

AUREA.

THINGS OF VALUE.

An oil-burning locomotive is running in regular service between Los Angeles and Santa Barbara, Cal., and works perfectly and economically.

Why suffer from weak nerves, want of appetite, and general debility, letting the loss of sleep and rest impoverish the system, and thin the blood when such a really meritorious remedy as Northrup & Lyman's Quinine Wine may be had at any drug store. This article is recommended by the highest members of the medical faculty in cases of indigestion, general debility, loss of appetite, and nervous affections of all kinds. It is also specially beneficial to children, and delicate females and to business men, students, and to those who have much brain work. We would say, "Never be without it." It will strengthen you, keep you in regular order, and enable you to successfully grapple with the work you have to do. It is pleasant to the taste and contains nothing injurious to the most delicate constitution. Remember to ask for Quinine Wine, prepared by Northrup & Lyman, Toronto, and we are sure you will be satisfied that you have full value for your money. Druggists sell it.

There are only 360 Chinamen in the whole of New Mexico, according to the registry certificates issued under the new law.

If attacked with cholera or summer complaint of any kind send at once for a bottle of Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial and use it according to directions. It acts with wonderful rapidity in subduing that dreadful disease that weakens the strongest man and that destroys the young and delicate. Those who have used this cholera medicine say it acts promptly and never fails to effect a thorough cure.

After drilling down 5,000 feet in search of water in New Haven, and not finding any, the job was given up last week.

Dyspepsia or Indigestion is occasioned by want of action in the bilious ducts, loss of vitality in the stomach to secrete the gastric juices, without which digestion cannot go on; also, being the principal cause of Headache, Parmenter's Vegetable Pills taken before going to bed, for a while, never fail to give relief and effect a cure. Mr. F. W. Ashdown, Ashdown, Ont., writes: "Parmenter's Pills are taking the lead against ten other makes which I have in stock."

Mr. Martha Swan of Lee, Mass., will celebrate 103rd birthday this week. She is blind, but in excellent health.

Out of Sores.—Symptoms. Headache, loss of appetite, fever, tongue, and general debility. These symptoms, if neglected, develop into acute disease. It is a true saying that an "ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure," and a little attention at this point may save months of sickness and large doctor's bills. For this complaint take from two to three of Parmenter's Vegetable Pills on going to bed, and one or two for three nights in succession, and a cure will be effected.

Maine's game commissioner's estimate that fully 4,000 deer have been killed in the Maine woods this season.

Has La Grippe.—Mr. A. Nickerson, Farmer, Dutton, writes: "Last winter I had La Grippe and it left me with a severe pain in the small of my back and hip that used to catch me whenever I tried to climb a fence. This lasted for about two months when I bought a bottle of Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil and used it both internally and externally, morning and evening, for three days, at the expiration of which time I was completely cured."

Nevada's gold yield for the past year is estimated at $1,220,701, and the silver yield at 990,500 ounces.

A January thaw is always more productive of colds and coughs than a January freeze. Then is the time Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is needed and proves so extremely efficacious. Ask your druggist for it, and also for Ayer's Almanac, which is free to all.

Coal of excellent quality and in apparently enormous quantities, have just been discovered in Arizona, in the Dos Cabezas district, only six miles from the railroad.

Dr. Shields, an eminent physician of Tennessee, says: "I regard Ayer's Sarsaparilla as the best blood-medicine on earth, and I know of many wonderful cures effected by its use." Physicians all over the land have made similar statements.

Maine wheelmen have been experimenting with bicycling on the ice, and are said to be very successful and exhilarating sport in most instances.

Every man having a beard should keep it an even and natural color, and if it is not so already, use Buckingham's Dye and appear tidy.

SACKVILLE.

PROGRESS is for sale in Sackville at Wm. I. Goodwin's Bookstore. In Middle Sackville by E. M. Merritt.

JAN. 1.—Mr. and Mrs. P. Carrille of Spokane Falls arrived on Saturday evening to visit Mrs. Carrille's mother, Mrs. E. B. Knapp, Main street. Herbert Archibald is home from Shediac spending the holidays.

Mr. H. A. Woodworth of Charlottetown spent Friday with friends.

Miss Hattie Sangster spent the latter part of last week in St. John.

Mrs. Inch of Fredericton is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. S. W. Hutton, York street.

Miss Teresa Lee of St. John is visiting her sister, Mrs. A. W. Atkinson.

Mr. Moore Crosskill of Wilmot is spending the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Allison.

Mr. Arthur Lewis spent part of the holidays with his mother, Mrs. Amos Ogden, returning to Port Greville on Monday.

Miss Minnie Copp is visiting her friend, Miss Gertrude Evans, Shediac.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Jas. R. Ayer on the arrival of a little daughter.

Fred Harrison of Woodstock is spending New Year's with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Harrison.

Miss Parlee is the guest of Miss Scriggwa Copp during the vacation.

Mr. T. A. Frazer is filling Mr. R. P. Foster's place in the Merchants Bank during the latter's absence in Dorchester.

On Monday Mr. Walter Black went to Toronto to take a three months course in the military school.

The death of Mr. Chas. Hefler occurred Saturday evening from consumption. Mr. Hefler was in failing health and returned to Sackville about three weeks ago. His remains were taken to St. John for interment on Tuesday. The family have the sincere sympathy of the community.

Miss Mabel Smith of Parrsboro who has been the guest of Miss Winnie Fawcett returned to her home today.

The Baptist Sunday school had their annual concert and Christmas tree in the basement Tuesday evening all having a royal time. The Methodist's hold theirs tonight, and last but not least the Episcopal Sunday school hold their annual tree Thursday evening.

Mrs. Higgins' many friends are pleased to hear of her improving health.

On New Year's eve Mrs. J. W. Webb gave another of her small but enjoyable parties to a number of the young folks.

The most enjoyable party for some time was that given last evening by Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Milner at their pretty residence, Thorne Cottage. Delightful music was furnished to which many feet kept time. Supper was served at midnight and the party closed soon after with Sir Roger de Coverly all having spent an evening long to be remembered. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ryan, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Allison, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Read, Mr. and Mrs. H. Fawcett, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Bennett, Mrs. Casey, Miss Black, Miss Wood, Miss Alice McCall, Miss Ella Copp, Misses Ogden, Misses Winnie and Jennie Fawcett, Miss Willis, Miss Read, Miss Robinson, Miss Mabel Smith, and Miss Masters and Messrs. Henderson, Lee, Wilson, Copp, Walker, Wood, Ford, Black, Crosskill, Black and Harrison.

BARRIS.

B.B.B. unlocks all the secretions and removes all impurities from the system from a common pimple to the worst scrofulous sore.

BURDOCK PILLS act gently yet thoroughly on the Stomach, Liver and Bowels.

INTERNATIONAL

...S. S. Co.

Two Trips a Week

...FOR...

BOSTON

Commencing Nov. 18th the steamers of this company will leave St. John for Eastport, Lubec, and Boston, every MONDAY and THURSDAY morning at 10 a.m. Standard time. Returning will leave Boston same days at 8 a.m. and Portland at 5 p.m. for Eastport and St. John. Connections made at Eastport with steamers for Calais and St. Stephen. Freight received daily up to 5 p.m. C. E. LAECHLER, Agent.

Holiday Meats

THOS. DEAN,

City Market.

SHARPS BALSAM

OF HOREHOUND AND ANISEED.

FOR

COUGH, WHOOPING COUGH, COUGHS AND COLDS