The 'Current News' club were entertaine by Mr. and Mrs. Almon I. Teed on Tuesday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Neil gave a most delightful progressive whist party on Thursday evening last. Mrs. James L. Thompson and Mr. Frank P. Woods were presented with the "boody" prizes which were a bottle of ketchup each, with the advice' "Catch up if you can" on each bottle. After the prizes were presented, supper was announced, but not until a late hour did the guests bid their host and hostess good night, all wishing to linger long, for seldom is found so genial a host or sucn a graceful hostess, and many pleasant comments have been made upon their charming style of entertaining.

On Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. George A. Curran invited a number of intimate friends to enjoy a game of seven-handed euchre at their home. It was a most pleasant party and enjoyed extremely by all who were there.

A very happy aftar was the gtft tree and supper to which Miss Jenette Rebinson invited the children of her Sunday school class on Thursday afternoon. The children gathered at the baptist church and were driven from the church to the home of Miss Robinson, en arrivi g they were ushered into the drawing room, where a most beautiful spruce tree loaded with gifts and candies stood before them. There were eighty five children present and each received a gift. After the gifts were distributed a treat was given them and the rest of the afternoon was devoted to games, and a jolly romp. Mr. John Boness arrived from Minneapolis on Monday, after an extended visit of several months.

Although expected for several weeks, yet the death of Church Gates MacNichol on Friday morn ing was a sad shock to his family and to his numerous friends, both in calais and St. Stephen. He was the youngest son of the late Hon. Archibald MacNichol. He had been in poor health for more than a year, but was so cheerful and hopeful for recovery that his intimate friends felt he would be recovery, that his intimate friends felt he would be restored to health, and it has only been a short time restored to health, and it has only been a short time that he was confined to his home. He was only twenty-one years of age. The tuneral services took place from his home on Sunday afternoon, and were conducted by Rev. C. G. McCuily, of the Congregational church. The floral tributes were most beautiful, and were sent by sympathizing and loving friends. His mo her and sisters have the sympathy in their double sorrow—the death of a sympathy in their double sorrow—the death of a beloved husband and father, and now a son and brother, of the whole community.

JAN. 29,-I do not think I ever remember Moncton so quiet at this time of the year, as it is now! Perhaps circumstances have been rather unfavorable for much gayety of late, but certainly society has been resting itself for the past ten days. One very pleasant little function which took place last evening is the only society event I have to chronlock; reading, Miss Lois Boad; piano duett, "Tae | icle this week. It took the form of a surprise party given to Mrs. F. W. Sumner by a few of her friends. The party was in honor of Miss Trites of Petitcodiac Mrs. Charles D. Hill has gone to Boston to spend and Miss Pugsley of St. John, who are visiting friends in town. The many friends of Mr. Will Bruce of the Bank of Montreal, who was so severely hurt while play. ing hockey some weeks ago, will be glad to hear that he is able to be out again, and is progressing favorably towards complete recovery.

By the way the apparently harmless, but reilly deadly audinsidious hockey has claimed another victim from amongst our gilded youth, and once more the Bank of Montreal mourns the grievou s injury and temporary disabling of one of its staff. This time it was Mr. Claude Peters who fell in battle, meeting with a most painful, but fortunately not serious accident last Thursday evening during the match between the M. A. A. A., team, and the bank men. Mr. Peters collided with another player and fell heavily on the ice striking on his shoulder with such force as to dislocate it. Fortunately Drs. White and Wilson were spectators and the injured man received the most prompt and skilful treatment. If this sort of thing goes on, I am afraid we shall have the Bank of Montreal placing an injunction on hockey.

I regret to chronicle the death of Miss Maud Mitchell former organist of Wesley Memorial church, and youngest daughter of Mr. U. L. Mitchell of Dominion street, which took place last Saturday night. Miss Mitchell had been ill for some months, and though her friends were not unprepared for her death, the bereavement to her parents is none the less severe. Miss Mitchell was a young lady of most estimable disposition, and her death at the early age of 21, is very sad. Rev.
