"Fine Feathers Make Fine Birds"

Women are not all Beautiful but all women are attractive who are beautifully dressed.

Beauty unadorned may do in poetry, but the nicely fitting ARE WRAPPED. gown is the desire of every true woman. Priestley's dress fabrics have done much to realize a woman's ideals by offering, in their texture, appearance, fit and wear, a character and distinction, which no other derss goods, however excellent, have quite attained to. And now Priestley's have something new. The "Eudora" is all the rage. It is even better than the Henriettas so much admired. The "Eudora" has something which the Henrietta lacks—to wit: greater width, greater weight, and a superior dust shedding quality.

And then it has an exquisite surface which gives it an almost regal presence. Wrapped on "The Varnished Board," and the name, Priestly, stamped on every five yards.

Skating, and skating parties have helped to fill in the week very nicely; On Monday evening the ever popular Victoria rink was opened for the first time this season, and a large number of skaters enjoyed themselves hugely as they skimmed over the ice to excellent music furnished by a selected band often peices under Mr. MeIntyre. The presence of so many society people gave a great deal of eclat to the opening and the various made up parties almost made it an event of social importance, as in deed the opening of this rink had been eagerly loked forward, to by the ladies especially, for several weeks. A monopoly of the ice by the small boy, with his unexpected dodgings and turnings to mar the skaters pleasure, and endanger his or her personal safety is not allowed there, and this goes far towards giving the Victoria the popularity it enjoys. The cosy dressing rooms seem more than usually comfortable this season and the most courteous attention is given the visitors. Private afternoons or evenings have never been introduced here though no doubt they will in the course of time; they are one of the great winter amusements of society in several other cities in the lower provinces, and the subscribers to these private days get a great deal of thorough enjoyment out of them. A few prominent society people have been quietly discussing the matter for several weeks, but it is not at all likely that any definite move in that direction will be made
