THINGS OF VALUE.

The best anodyne and expectorant for the cure of colds, coughs, and all throat, lung and bronchial troubles, is undoubtedly, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, the only specific for colds and coughs a limited on exhibition at the Chicago World's Fair.

In the United States twenty ounces often are used every year to cure an inhabitant.

Neglect of the hair often destroys its vitality and natural hue, and causes it to fall out. Bore it is too late, apply Hall's Hair Renewer a sure remedy.

Bear oil sells for $4 a gallon this year in Maine, and the bears are fat enough and there are enough of them to make bear hunting the most profitable business for the trappers this season.

"Oh, yet ever new, and simple and beautiful, ever," says the poet, in words which might well apply to Ayer's Sarsaparilla—the most efficient and scientific blood purifier ever offered to suffering humanity. Nothing but superior merit keeps it so long at the front.

God puts our most important duties nearest to us.

No person should go from home without a bottle of Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial in their possession, as change of water, cooking, climate, etc., will bring on summer complaints, and there is nothing like being ready with a sure remedy at hand, which oftentimes saves great suffering, and greatly valuable lives. The Cordial has gained for itself a wide spread reputation for affording prompt relief from all summer complaints.

He that giveth unto the poor shall not lack.
