The first of the week there was a number of small teas, two tobogganing parties and a number of sleighing and skating. The Citadel hill has been excellent lately for tobogganing and is also very safe. Collins' hill has also been good as it is within easy reach and the going is not too fast.

Mrs. Wythe was among the hostesses of Monday and though her tea was very small it was very much enjoyed. It was quite informal also, the invitations being verbal. Mrs. Montgomery Moore had also a small gathering of intimate friends as it was her day at home.

On Monday evening Mrs. W. S. Fielding gave a very pleasant little euchre party, the prizes were pretty and the supper excellent. The hostess looked charming in a dainty gown and the evening is spoken of as one of the nicest this winter.

Tuesday evening every one went to see Hispania. The S. R. O. sign was out long before the performance began and the house was packed to the doors. Professional sleight of hands were exhibited in the evening in question. Every body was anxious to see how a lady would fill the roll of Isabella and it is safe to say that even the most critical could find nothing to find fault with in Mrs. Hagarty's rendition. Her singing charmed the house and her acting was excellent. She has splendid stage presence and so thoroughly at home is she that she carried the audience with her. "Hisper and I shall hear" was substituted for "Promissio Me" as Isabella's principal solo and it was a wonderful success. It drew forth tremendous applause; a very beautiful bouquet of red and tea roses was presented to Mrs. Hagarty. Mr. Everett made a very good king of Spain and his acting and singing were good. Mr. Lyde as the Sergeant of Police was as amusing as ever and while he was intensely amusing did not overdo his work. Mr. Wythe was in splendid voice and in his solo and the duet with Mrs. Hagarty delighted the audience. Mr. Salter's skit dancing was exceedingly clever. The electric effects were very pretty, but so brilliant that if they had not been so cleverly managed they might have detracted from the effect of the stage. However, as it was they were quite lovely, and the Hispania club were lucky to have enlisted such capable assistants as the electrical firm which supplied one of the newest features in the stage setting.

There were two or three suppers given after the performance at various houses, and a small dinner took place at Bellevue before 11.

Col. and Mrs. Shannon arrived from England by Labrador last week and have been the guests of General and Mrs. Montgomery Moore, at Bellevue. The first three evenings of the week the General and Mrs. Montgomery Moore gave large and pleasant dinner parties for their visitors.

Col. Duley, North chief of the General's staff left last Saturday for a visit to England.

Friday of last week there was a sleighing party from Bellevue, among whom were noticed: Miss Henry, Capt. Semeni, Major and Mrs. Long, Col. and Mrs. Shannon, Miss Matchem, Major Smythe and the Hon. Capt. and Miss Colborne.

On Thursday evening, Mrs. John Strachan entertained a number of young people at a dance at her residence, Rockingham. The Halifax young people took the cars to North street, where a large team was in waiting to convey the party to the scene of festivity. There were also quite a number of young ladies and gentlemen from Bedford and vicinity, and the enjoyment was kept up for several hours.

Friday evening the Misses Boak, 63 Victoria Road, gave a party to a number of their young friends. The handsome residence is admirably adapted for entertaining a large company, and those who accepted the hospitality of the Misses Boak vote the party one of the pleasantest of the season.

NEW GLASGOW.

Progress is for sale in New Glasgow by A. O. Pritchard and H. H. Henderson.

Feb. 27.—The entertainment Monday evening in McNeil hall had a large and appreciative audience. The first part of the programme consisted of a piano duet by Misses Hargrove and Miss Rice, and Mr. Wright; solo by Mr. Musgrave; reading by Miss Riche selected; with piano accompaniment was enthusiastically received and encored; vocal duet by Miss Graham and Mr. Musgrave; and quartette by Miss McKay, Miss Graham, Messrs. Musgrave and Stewart; the second part of the programme was the "Chrononoteletion." The costumes and acting were very good, the only fault being that some of the ancient personages brought it to the "Chrononoteletion" did not speak loud enough for a nineteenth century audience. The "Genius," Miss Jamieson and "Inventress" Miss Fulton both spoke clearly and well. The first character that stepped out as the black dots of the machine slowly opened was "Sarah" (Abraham's wife) Miss Jennie Fraser, then "Pharaoh's" daughter, Miss Rachel Eastwood; both made excellent Egyptian. Miss Jean Mitchell made a charming and happy "Cleopatra"; Miss Gertrude Riche as another Blackerick amused the audience by her quaint dress and wily sayings regarding herself as an equal with the royal personages Queen Elizabeth and Cleopatra; and meeting Pocahontas as an old friend; Miss Annie C. McKay as "St. Cecilia" sang the "Ave Maria" in Latin very sweetly; the other characters were "Cornelia," Miss Rice, Jean d'Arc, Miss A. M. Graham, "Agnesia of Bologna," Miss Underwood, "Frisella," Miss Winnie McDonald, "Hippatia," Mrs. K. Storr, "Queen Elizabeth," Miss Ester Eastwood, "Pocahontas," Mrs. Torry, "Sappho," Miss Annie B. Graham, "Martha Washington," Mrs. Rennie. They all had something to tell of the people of their time and it joined in a chorus "Chrononoteletion" thus ending a pleasant and profitable evening.

Lady Archibald, Truro, paid a visit to New Glasgow Tuesday.

Rev. Mr. Parry of Chester is the guest of Pastor Raymond.

Miss Fulton, Miss Jamieson, and Miss Riche, of Truro are the guests of Mrs. W. H. Rennie's "Black-bonnie."

The annual recital of the pupils of Miss Tweedy and Prof. Logan in the High school convocation hall Tuesday evening was well attended. Both violin and piano pupils did great credit to their respective teachers.

Mrs. J. D. McGroger entertained about fifty lady friends with a five o'clock tea Tuesday last week. A drive to Pictou to attend the rink Thursday evening was much enjoyed by all.

The carnival Friday evening was the best ever held in New Glasgow; over one hundred skaters in costume were on the ice. The Stellation band furnished the music. The prizes for the two most original costumes were given to Miss Jean Mitchell and Miss Mary Eastwood. The following is a list of the lady skaters: Mrs. C. Storr, "Queen Elizabeth," Miss Ester Eastwood, "Pocahontas," Mrs. Torry, "Sappho," Miss Annie B. Graham, "Martha Washington," Mrs. Rennie. They all had something to tell of the people of their time and it joined in a chorus "Chrononoteletion" thus ending a pleasant and profitable evening.

Feb. 20.—Miss Doyle entertained a number of young folks last week. The Guild of Christ church gave another of their entertainments on Monday. The programme was long and varied. The orchestra played well. It has only appeared before the public two or three times and they are to be congratulated on their success. Among the best pieces of the evening were, piano solo by Miss Willette, song by Mr. James Brown, piano solo, by Miss Lily Dakin. These were very much enjoyed. The gem of the evening was a duet, a southern lullaby song "Alabama Coon", accompanied with guitar and autoharp by Misses Pio and Lily Dakin, their voices blended beautifully and they charmed their audience, who enthusiastically encored them. The closing piece of the evening was also much enjoyed; it was moving pantomime "The Mistletoe bough." Mrs. Win O'Brien to be congratulated, as she was very painstaking in getting the young ladies trained for it. I believe it is the intention of the Guild to give another of these entertainments at Easter.

Black Snow in Servia. Bolquet, Servia, and vicinity was recently treated to a real meteorological phenomenon in the shape of a "black snow." In ancient times such occurrences would have been thought to be a presage of a visitation of the plague or some other dire calamity. Nowadays it is known to be due to a species of fungus spore which is caught up by the wind and carried across a wide expanse of country before being finally deposited along with snow or rain.

No Disappointment. Disappointments of one kind and another crop up all along life's pathway, for unfortunately it is the unexpected that always happens. There is at least one article of acknowledged merit that never disappoints. Futman's Painless Corn Extractor is sure to remove the worst corns in a few days, and as no claim is made that it will cure anything else, it cannot disappoint. If you have hard or soft corns destroy it. Beware of articles that list as good.
