of all diseases arise from deranged kidneys and liver, and it strikes at once at the root of the difficulty. The elements of which it is composed act directly upon these great organs, both as a food and restorer, and by placing them in a healthy condition, drive disease and pain from the system.

For the innumerable troubles caused by unhealthy kidneys, Liver and Urinary Organs, for all Nervous Affections, and physical derangements generally, this great remedy has no equal. Its past record is a guarantee for the future.

A "Winter Picnic" was a novel entertainment, given by the ladies of the Baptist church, Calais in their vestry last week. I think a description of it would be most interesting to Progress readers and perhaps would give an idea to some society, who wish to give an entertainment. The vestry presented a veritable picnic ground, as one entered the door in the centre stood a grove of fir trees, in which were arranged little tables and chairs. In the corners were more trees with inviting seats in and with numerous soft cushions; hammocks were suspended from the trees, and in the corner among the trees a fire was merrily burning and hanging in a crane was a kettle from which the steaming ready to make the tea. The supper was a delicious one, and served in real picnic style. While eating, one could hear the strains of a banjo, which was beautifully played by Miss Charlotte Young. Coffee and cakes were served in a most spirited manner, sang at intervals. It was a charming entertainment and every one, who was fortunate enough to direct their steps to the vestry enjoyed it. FEB. 23.—I believe I neglected to mention in my notes of last week a very pleasant whist party given on Thursday of the previous week by Mrs. H. A. Price, of Bonaccord street. There were six tables and a very pleasant evening was spent.

What seems to be the amusement of the day and the devotees of the grand old game seem to be steadily increasing in number that one seldom hears of a dance now a days. The west end club met at the residence of Mrs. R. A. Chapman of Alma street on Thursday evening and enjoyed themselves as Mrs. Chapman's guests invariably do, and Mrs. W. J. Weldon, of Main street has invitations out for a whist party this evening.

The Faulkner students at Mount Allison ladies' college spent Monday at their home in Moncton.

I regret very much to be obliged to announce the departure from our city of a young lady who can ill be spared from our midst. I refer to Miss Chapman who has accepted the position of organist and choir mistress of St. Luke's church Annapolis, and who leaves to day for her sphere of usefulness. Miss Chapman's departure will leave vacant in Moncton society, and the hearts of her numerous friends, a place which it will be hard to fill. During the several years of her residence here, she has won hosts of friends by her many attractive qualities, and as an artist and musician, as well as an ardent and untiring church worker, her loss will be a very severe one for our city. The congregation of St. Luke's are to be congratulated upon securing the services of one so well qualified for the position, and Miss Chapman enters upon her new duties followed by the hearty and good wishes of her Moncton friends. I believe Mrs. Chapman remains in town until after Easter, when she will join her father in Annapolis.

Mr. Peter McSweeney, and his son Mr. A. E. McSweeney, returned on Saturday for Denver, Colorado, where they intend spending the next two months.

My friends of Miss Upham, who taught class in painting in Moncton last year, will regret to hear of her death which took place at Wolfville, Nova Scotia last Friday. So far no particulars of her death have been received in Moncton.

I am glad to say that Miss Tremblay, organist of Wesley Memorial church, who has been so ill with bronchitis is recovering, but it will be some time before she is able to resume her duties. IVAN.

FEB. 23.—The marriage of Miss Mary Appleby, second daughter of Steven Appleby, and Mr. F. I. Whitworth of Richmond, was solemnized at the residence of the bride's father, Chapel street, on Wednesday the 19th by Rev. James White side.

The bride who was unattended, looked charming in the traditional costume of navy blue with white trimmings. After the ceremony the wedding party who were the immediate relatives of the groom and bride partook of an elaborate lunch. Mr. and Mrs. Watson drove to their home the same evening. The bride was the recipient of many lovely presents.

Mr. and Mrs. John Stewart spent part of last week in Fredericton.

The Old Dominion entertainment, given by Miss Hudson and her pupils assisted by a number of young people in Graham's opera house on Friday evening last, proved very successful and highly entertaining. The readings by Miss Hudson, Miss Lily Jordan and Miss Clara Leighton were excellent. Miss Hudson's, three tones in Mary's lesson were remarkably clear and natural. She wore a black costume of pale blue crepe, and her hair was pinned up in a bun. Miss Clara Leighton gave "The Innocent Drummer" and wore a most becoming dress of white crepe with yellow satin ribbon trimmings. Miss Lily Jordan gave a comedy monologue entitled "When Jack Comes Laid." She wore a dainty dress of pale blue crepe with white lace trimmings.

"The House Trap" a farce was very cleverly put on, showing unmistakable dramatic talent on the part of the performers. Mrs. Amy Sawyer, a charming young widow with "New Woman" ideas was personated by Mrs. A. A. Brewer in a very taking manner. While Campbell a young man given to him. Mrs. Campbell was played by Dr. Manzer, while Miss George Augustus as the Irish domestic Jane, brought down the house with peals of laughter. The prettiest feature of the entertainment was Britanna. Miss Edith Bourne as Britanna mounted on a pedestal draped in British flags, held a scroll in her right hand and in her left a sword. She was flanked by Misses Nellie Beardsley, Lily Jordan, Clara Leighton and Madeline Phillips were through a very artistic scene. Mrs. Wendell Jones, pianist. The Misses Zula and Jennie Hay gave a charming song and dance, and were daintily arrayed in white dresses.

The course of True Love" a pantomime by Miss Hudson and Mrs. Walter Everett in costume of the Golden Age, was a most successful feature of the entertainment. Mrs. Wendell Jones played for the piano music. Two little girls Marie Mathews and Pearl Skidgen gave recitations which were wonderful in their simplicity and were very prettily dressed. Dr. Manzer played for several of the drills. Several drills in melody dumb-bell, bar, and harp with the repetition of five terms features. "The Carnival of Batteries" and "Evels of Sea Nymphe" made a very full programme. The "Evels of Sea Nymphe" intended to represent in Graham's opera house is all of the suffering Acemians. The programme will include solos, duets, recitations, tableaux and instrumental music from our best home talent and the attractions added to the grand object should have power to fill the opera-house to its fullest extent. The concert will take place on Thursday the 28th of March. ELAINE.
