E. G. SCOVIL, AGENT PELEE ISLAND GRAPE JUICE, ST. JOHN, N. B. DEAR SIR, - My family have received great benefits from the use of the PELEE ISLAND GRAPE JUICE during the past four years. It is the best tonic and sedative for debility, nervousness and weak lungs you have ever tried. It is much cheaper and pleasanter than medicine. I would not be without it in the house.

General Warner, Miss Bob Warner, Miss Robinson and Mr. James Warner leave Monday for Halifax, where they will remain during carnival week.

The one hundredth anniversary of the death of Robert Burns was commemorated in a very becoming and successful manner by clausmen and others in the room of Clan Mackenzie, Odd Fellows' building on Tuesday. The exercises were begun a little after 8 o'clock, with the rendition on the violin of several exquisite Scotch airs by Professor White.

Next followed Burns' song, A man's a Man for a that, by Mr. Murray, and then came a song by Mrs. De city, Ye Banks and Braes O' Bonny Doon. Several lessons from The Vision were read by Mr. C. J. Milligan. After this was an address on the genius and influence of Burns by the Rev. Mr. Green, concluding with a poetical tribute to Burns. At the conclusion of this poem, a song written by Mr. Green was sung by Prof. Titus.

Rev. Mr. Rainnie read the Cotta's Saturday Night, and Mrs. Worden sang Highland Mary with good effect. O Wert Thou in the Cauld Blast was sung as a duet by Mrs. McCulloch and Miss Mitchell. The Epistle to a Young Friend was rendered effectively by Mr. J. W. Barnes of New York city.

Mr. George Craig sang O'at the Airs the Win Can Blow in good form. Mr. George Dishart sang My Nanni's Awa very finely.

John Anderson My Jo John was rendered by Mr. Murray, after which the audience united in singing Auld Lang Syne. The anniversary celebration was a most excellent one.
