There has not been much going on in the social world recently the holiday having taken many people out of town for a day or two. On Wednesday Mrs. Howard D. Troop gave a picnic at Hampstead, the party going up in the "Dream" at ten a. m. and returning at 8 o'clock. Dinner and tea were served on board the yacht and the afternoon was very pleasantly spent. Among those who enjoyed the little trip were, Mr. and Mrs. Troop, Dr. and Mrs. White, Mr. Douglas Troop, Miss Troop, Misses Skinner, Messrs. Skinner, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hall, Mr. E. Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Ned Peters, Mrs. Coster, Mr. S. Hall, Mr. Hanington, Miss Edge, Miss Furlong, Miss Kathleen Furlong, Mr. James Harrison, Mr. Sandy McMillan, Misses Millan, Judge King, Mrs. King, Miss Roma King.

Miss Edge is visiting Miss Hanington this week. A party of ladies went out to Rothesay on Wednesday and spent the day; they dined at the Bellevue and returned to town in the evening. Among those who went out were Mrs. Andrew Jack, Mrs. James Jack, Miss Tuck, Miss Lottie Harrison, Misses Blair and others.

Mrs. D. P. Chisholm spent a day this week at Rothesay as a guest of Mrs. Downie.

Among the many Dominion day excursions or private picnics that left the city on July first was that held at the Wilnot homestead at Rothesay. The party which numbered over sixty embarked on a steamer at Indiantown and after a delightful sail reached their destination and were met by many of their friends who had gone up by train. Upon reaching the picnic grounds everything was found in readiness for games of all sorts, and it was not long ere lawn tennis, base ball, and croquet was being indulged in. After about two hours fun and recreation a luncheon was served on the grounds and in the arbors. Unlike other picnic parties this one went with a prepared bill of fare which was arranged in a novel way and called for many dishes that when sampled, proved to be the seasons best delicacies.

The afternoon was pleasantly spent in rowing about the river after which an impromptu programme of vocal and instrumental music was given.

The numbers on the programme that are deserving of special mention were the selections on the London pipes by Mr. Ernie Smith; the mandolin and guitar selections by Messrs. Tuts and Cook and the recitation by Mr. B. Jordan. The days outing was not brought to a close until the boat had arrived at Indiantown wharf at ten o'clock when every body present voted the time a most enjoyable one to mar it but the loss of a becoming sailor hat which one of the young ladies lost overboard. Among those who were present were, Dr. and Mrs. Bonnell and Master Percy Bonnell, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Wilnot, the Misses Wilnot, J. A. Estey and the Misses Estey, W. J. Parks, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Harding, Miss Aggie Harding, Miss Francis, Miss Bessie Allingham, Miss Flossie Robertson, Misses Estey of Boston, Miss Clara Gerow, Misses Estabrooks, Miss Ethel Esty, Miss Lulu Esty, Miss Fannie Everett, Miss Georgie Currie, Miss Nan McDonald, Miss Bertie Barbour, Miss Jean Barr of Montreal, and Miss Thair of Fredericton, J. W. Manning, E. Tuffs, E. Everett, F. Estey, W. Manning, H. Wass, B. Jordan, F. Keirstead, A. Estey, F. McKay, S. Francis, E. Smith, J. Wisley, W. White, W. Barbour, Vernon McLellan, W. McDonald, W. Davis, B. Gerow, A. Cook, Dr. Wheeler and others.

The many friends in this city of Miss Lizzie B. Olive will be pleased to learn that she made a decided impression in Boston on June 15th when she sang at a concert given in that city under the auspices of the Suffolk lodge of I. O. G. T. at Berkeley Temple. Miss Olive was second on the programme in a piano solo afterwards she rendered two vocal selections all of which she had to respond to with energy.

A juvenile party of over fifty assembled at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. James Osborne, Red Head on Wednesday, to celebrate the birthday of their little three year old daughter, Miss Maggie. Supper was served on the lawn at five o'clock. A very enjoyable time was spent from 4 to 8, when the young folks departed for their respective homes. The charming little 3 year old hostess performed her duties admirably.

Mr. V. L. Alward principal of the Fairville school will spend his vacation at his home in Queen's Co.

Miss Simpson of St. Stephen and Miss Kirk of Kings Co., both of whom have been teaching in Fairville left this week to spend the holidays at their respective homes.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Stackhouse entertained a party of friends at their residence, Portland street, on Tuesday evening in honor of their guests Mr. and Mrs. Beauzard and daughter of Eastport. Refreshments were served during the evening; delightful music rendered.

On Monday morning at Holy Trinity church, a very pretty wedding took place, in which the contracting parties were Mr. John Crowley, late of Boston, son of Mr. Simon Crowley of this city and Mary T. Murphy, sister of Michael Murphy, B. A. The bride was attended by her cousin, Miss Methie Flaherty, while the groom was supported by his brother, Simon Crowley. Rev. T. T. Walsh performed the ceremony, after which the party repaired to the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. Lawlor, Spring street, where breakfast was served after which Mr. and Mrs. Crowley left on the steamer State of Maine for Boston where they will reside.

DEAR SIR—My family have received great benefits from the use of the PELEE ISLAND GRAPE JUICE during the past four years. It is the best tonic and sedative for debility, nervousness and weak lungs you have ever tried. It is much cheaper and pleasanter than medicine. I would not be without it in the house.

Miss Josie Withers of Granville Centre who has been visiting city friends has returned home. The two colleges at Rothesay have closed for the summer and the pupils have all gone to their homes for the summer holidays. The closing exercises were very brilliant and were attended by large numbers from the city. The music during the afternoon was excellent and the programme was as follows:

Band selection	College Band
Indian Clubs	Students
Battalion drill	Boys
Foil exercise	Girls
Sword drill	Boys
Fencing	Boys
Sword melees	Boys

After addresses had been made by Geo. Lloyd, Rev. W. O. Raymond, Rev. Mr. Daniel, Mr. S. S. Hall and others and dinner served, the visitors attended the exercises at Kingsbury. The programme was rendered in a very finished and artistic manner.
