E. G. SCOVIL, AGENT PELEE ISLAND GRAPE JUICE, ST. JOHN, N. B.

DEAR SIR,—My family have received great benefits from the use of the PELEE ISLAND GRAPE JUICE during the past four years. It is the best tonic and sedative for debility, nervousness and weak lungs you have ever tried. It is much cheaper and pleasanter than medicine. I would not be without it in the house.

Yours, JAMES H. DAY, Day's Landing, Kings Co.

There is very little of importance to chronicle in society columns so far this autumn, quiet teas and other informal entertainments being about the only gaieties indulged in. Mrs. J. DeWolfe Spurr gave an excellently arranged little dinner last week in honor of Mrs. Drinkwater of Montreal who has been spending the summer in St. John. The list of guests was small but the party was a congenial one and the affair passed off very pleasantly.

Trinity church was the scene of an interesting event last Wednesday afternoon when Mr. Morris A. Doane of Chicago and Miss Grace D. Seely daughter of Mr. D. J. Seely were united in marriage. Although the guests included only intimates and relatives a large number assembled at the church to witness the ceremony, which was performed by Ven. Archdeacon Brigstocke, assisted by Rev. Mr. Estabrook and Rev. S. J. Hanford. The bride made a charming appearance in her wedding gown of white satin, veil and white prayer book. She was attended by her sisters the Misses Helen and Gertrude Seely both of whom wore lovely gowns of green orzardie with white trimmings. Their bouquets of white chrysanthemums were tied on white silk parasols which they carried. Their large picture hats were also made of green and white orzardie. Mr. Walter O. Parry supported the groom while Messrs. John I. Robinson, Arthur T. Thorne and R. Bruce Scovill acted as ushers. The two little pages Masters Sturdee and Moody in pretty white and blue sailor suits performed their duties very gracefully and efficiently. After the ceremony a reception was held at the residence of Mr. Seely and after the young couple received the congratulations of their friends they left for their future home in Chicago, a large number of friends accompanying them to the depot, and giving them a hearty send off. The bride was the recipient of many very beautiful gifts. Her travelling dress was blue cloth with hat to match.
