ANAGANCE.

Sept. 2,-Miss Agnes Ryan of New York city is visiting her friend Mrs. George Davidson at the depot.

Miss Ida B. Davidson of St. John is spending ew days with relatives on "Apple Hill." Mr. Edmund E. Stockton of the auditor general's department, Ottawa, arrived in the village on Sat urday and is the guest of friends on Apple Hill Popular rumor says Mr. Stockton will return to

Ottawa with a fair young bride. The annual picnic of the cat olic churches of Me. channeic, New Ireland, Petitcodiac, and Anagance was held on the Chaudier estate in this village on Tuesday of last week. The fine weather of the forenoon brought a large number from the adjacent districts, while by the time that the excellent programme of sports was giver, between five and six hundred persons from near and far were on the grounds. Father Carson, who had the picnic in charge, is heartily applauded by one and all for the magnificent manner in which the affair was conducted, and he must feel highly pleased and grateful for the grand sum which was realized and which I believe was in the vicinity of ($300 00) turee hundred dollars after clearing of expenses. I understand that the proceeds will be devoted to church purposes. Among the picnicers, in town on that day I noticed Mrs. (Dr.) McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. David Smith, Mr. and Mrs. N. Steeves, Mrs. Huestis, Misses Beatrice Simpson, Mamie Trites, Annie Smith, Webster, McDonald, Lockhart, and Messrs. D. L. Trites, F. W. SEPT. 2 .- The chill mornings and evenings already remind one that Autumn is almost here, and very soon the last of the summer cottagers will be coming back to town, and things will brighten up a little, after the long dullness of summer. The first event of any importance which is piomised in the w.y of excitement, is the meet of the Maritine Amateur Athletic Association, which is to be held in Moncton again this year, and which is being looked forward to eagerly by all classes. I believe very elaborate preparations are being made in order to have the sports on a more e.aborate scale than ever before, and it is expected that the meet will be even more suc essiul than it was last year. Several athletes from Harvard are expected to take part in the sports and also some from Toronto, besides the best known provincial men, in the world of sport. So the event will be one of unusual importance. Mr. C. G. Theal of Chicago, son of Mrs. Theal of this city, who has been spending a week in town the guest of his brother-in-law Mr. C. A. Steeves, o Queen street, returned home last week. Miss Maria Theal accompanied her brother and intends visiting Niagara Falls, New York, Philadelphia and other points of interest during her trip.
