With the cold weather Halifax has grown a little more lively and last week was a more cheerful one than we have had for some time.

Mrs. Pickford gave a large party at home in her pretty home on Inglis street, for which two less than three hundred cards were issued.

The arrangements were of course excellent, and though there was at times a crowd in the tea-room, there was never the appalling crush which usually reigns at large teas.

On the same afternoon Mrs. F. Jones gave a small tea for Dr. and Mrs. Dorman, a farewell entertainment as they leave shortly for England.

The other hostess of the afternoon was Mrs. Hodgson, whose tea was quite large and very smart. There was of course a large contingent of military people, and the rooms were full during the greater part of the afternoon.

It was odd that with so many bleak days these hostesses should have fixed upon Wednesday, but tea is elastic functions as regards time and it is easy to attend two at least in an afternoon.

Mrs. Montgomery had also a small tea last week in spite of being extremely busy with the preparations for this week's Christmas fair, at which she has the sole charge of the evening entertainments.

At the fair proper, there are to be eight or nine tables, including the refreshment table, and the wares to be sold are not only pretty, but cheap.

People who did not see "My Friend from India" last week missed one of the most amusing plays since "Charley's Aunt," Mr. Lyell was simply splendid as the old gentleman, and the audience was kept in roars of laughter through out the piece.

In the last act one of the dresses worn was the prettiest thing possible, with the new "flower" sleeve in several shades of pink. It was a gown to mark, learn and afterwards imitate for evening wear.

The command of the Indefatigable, the new monitor for this station, has been given to Captain Primrose, whom his many friends in Halifax will be delighted to see him next summer.

Mr. Humbolt, R. A., has taken the place of Mr. Elliot, D. A., in the garrison, and several new officers have lately come to view the Berkshire regiment.

Our royal Italian visitor, Prince Luigi of Savoy, was made very little of a lion here, as he could accept no invitations official or otherwise, being in that respect quite unlike our own Prince George who went here there and everywhere to the great increase of his personal popularity.

It is quite on the cards that Halifax will see the latter here again for a visit to Canada is being discussed for the Duke and Duchess of York next year.

Mr. H. McDonald gave the words, and Mr. C. S. McLeod, and Mr. McLavish were the referees when the match closed the presbyterians were the winners by a score of five to four.

The ladies of Christ church Guild served a five o'clock tea to a large number of ladies, in the parish house on Monday afternoon.

The guests were received by Mrs. A. P. McKinnon, Mrs. Fullerton, Mrs. James Brown, Mrs. Phillips, and Mrs. Willshire, and Miss Brown, Miss Manro and Miss Parker assisted in serving tea.

Another tea is to be given next Monday by the young ladies of the church in connection with a sale of fancy articles at

This week she is receiving her visitors and on Monday her receiving gown was white satin and on Tuesday a very pretty toilette of pink silk. Miss Christie and Miss Maggie Christie assisted her in attending to the large number of visitors. Their popularity is certainly well substantiated if one can judge from the many elegant presents they received from their many friends.

A new departure in the way of socials was that held on Monday evening in the Baptist Sunday school hall at which several of the members of the Baptist Young Peoples Union told in poetry their several experiences of the way in which they had earned a dollar towards the fund for the new piano. Each one as they handed in their money was supposed to read their productions. Among those who complied were: Miss Edith Shand, Katie and Blanche McLatchy, Bessie Sharp, Helen Dimock, Barrs, Minnie, Maud and Lucy Mosher, Ester Frizell, Goudey, Alice Worthylake, Burgoyne, Winnie Smith, Mrs. W. W. Robson, Mrs. Albert Sharp, Dr. Young and Rev. A. A. Shaw. Several who were unable to be present sent in their poetry to be read by their friends and presumably their money as well. The amount realized was something over $50. The readings were interspersed with musical selections. Misses Dakin and Vaughan sang a solo, "The Lord is my Shepherd," Miss Nora Shand a solo, "Daddy," and Misses Vaughan and Dakin and Messrs Shand and Dakin, a quartette "Lead Kindly Light" all of which were very much enjoyed. Mr. Shaw, the new pastor of the baptist church, has brought with him a fund of energy which he appears to be using to the best possible advantage.
