DEC. 9 .- All weddings are interesting, we know, but one of more than, ordinary interest, on account of the great popularity of both bride and groom, was this evening [solemnized in the cathedral, when Miss Ida Kathleen Allen, youngest daughter of the late John Allen, and grandaughter of Sir John Allen, late chief justice of New Brunswick, and A. Rainsford Wetmore, Chief Engineer of the Provincial Public Works Department, and son of the late Judge Wetmore were made one, the ceremony was performed by His Lordship the Bishop of Fredericton, assisted by Rev. Sub-Dean Whally, and despite of the very inclement weather the the church was literally packed to the doors by a large congregation of interested spectators all anxious to get a peep at the bride, who looked very charming as she entered the church and was led to the altar by her uncle, Mr. T. Carleton Allen, Clerk of the Pleas; she was beautifully robed in a gown of white gros grain silk with full court train and trimmings of lace and orange blossoms and wore a bridal veil and carried a large shower bouquet of white roses. She was attended by Miss Bessie Babbitt as bridesmaid, who wore a costume of white silk with pink chiffon trimmings and carried a large bouquet of pink roses and wore a pearl dagger, a gift of the groom. Two dainty little maidens, the Misses Lenore and Hazen Allen corsins of the bride were maids of honor, and both were dressed in white silk, with stockings and shoes of pale green and wore "Mother Hubbard" hats with crowns of pale green. They also wore gold chains and pendants and carried pink baskets of flowers the gifts of the bridegroom. The groom had the support of Mr. George Blair jr., of St. John and the ushers were, Mr. A. R. Tipbits. J. Frank Sherman, J. A. Winslow and Harry Chestnut. After the ceremony the bridal party drove to "The Poplars," the residence of Mr. T. Carieton Allen where a reception was held, and luncheon was served, after which the newly wedded couple took the eight o'clock train for Upper Canadian cities. The presents were on a truly magnificant scale: those which altracted most attention, were from members of the Government. The grooms gift to his bride was a ring hoop of diamonds. The large number of invited guests, nearly two hundred, all in rich and handsome costumes added greatly to the brillancy of the occasion, and made it an exceedingly pretty wedding. 1he invited guests were: The Bishop of Fredericton and Mrs. Kingdon, The Dean and Mrs. Partridge, The Sub Dean and Mrs. Whal ley, Mr. and Mrs. E. How They Came to London.

The following conversation took place between two gentlemen the other evening in a crowded London clnbroom. They had been talking about the condition of things when they first came to London: Said Mr. Brown:

'When I first came to London I had only a ragged coat, a knife and a few marbles in my pocket.'

'You were better off than I, then, for I had neither a coat nor a waistcoat, nor a knife, nor even marbles.' 'Nonsense,' was the reply. 'How could that be? 'Well, I will tell you. When I came here I was a baby in long clothes.' The roar of laughter that arose could have been heard to Birmingham.
