

A con bination of finest Lama Braid and Celebrated English Wakefield Leather.

I am tired of Velvet and Wool bindings. These frayed and ragged edges are the torment of busy women's live. When I am out today I will get "ENGLISH WAKEFIELD LEATHER BINDING" for all my skirts. My friends assure me it is all the manufacturers represent it to be and endorse fully all its claims to popular favor, many of them after wearing it on their street costumes for six months or more. When soiled rub with a damp cloth and a little shoe or tan polish to restore it to its pristine freshness.

At all Dry Goods Stores. In all weights and shades for summer dresses.

"Wakefield Skirt Binding" veil and orange blossoms, and carried a lovely bouquet of white roses, carnations and smilar. She was attended by her little nieces Misses Gladys, Annie and Willa Stamers, the two first mentioned wearing dainty dresses of pale blue crepon with cream lace trimmings and the last mentioned, a tiny maiden of two years in pale yellow cishmere and cream lace; all three carried baskets of flowers; as the bridal party entered the parlor, the bride lean ing on her father's arm, the little bridesmaids sang "The Voice That Breathed o'er Eden" very sweetly. Master Dexter Reid, a 1 ttle nephew of the bride acted as page, and the four performed their duties very gracefully. After the cere mony the newly wedded pair received the congratulations of the guests, and later on an elaborate supper was served, the table being elegantly decorated with roses, carnations smilax and other cut flowers. Mr. and Mrs. Hud. son took the 10.15 p. m. train the same evening for a two weeks wedding trip to P. E. Island and Nova Scotia; they will also spend a week at Mr. Hudsons home in Richibucto. A large number of friends were at the depot to see them off and as the train moved out the brides bouquet was thrown among the young-ladies all of whom made a desperate effort to obtain possession of it. Confetti was freely used, one or two prospective grooms coming in for a share of the shower. The brides travelling dress was of linen colored cloth, tailor made, trimmed withdark brown braid, with hat and jacket to match. The groom's present to the bride was a solid silver toilet set and to the bridemaids gold chain brace'ets. Mr. Hudson's fellow clerks in W. H. Thorne's sent a beautiful silver tea service while W. H. Thorne and Co., sent a magnificent lamp, which was supported by a tall figure of polished brass. Among the numerous and handsome presents received were the following, Mrs. Elliot, and Miss Elliot, china dinner sett and table mats; Mr. and Mrs. B.A. Stamers, cobblers chair ; Miss Gladys, Annie and Willa Stamers, Dutch clock; Master Dexter Reid, piano lamp; Mr. and Mrs. W. F. S. Steeves, Salisbury, silver cake basket; employees o W. H. Thorne, silver tea service; W. H. Thorne and Co, brass banquet lamp; Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Colpitts, Wolfville, half de zen sliver table spoons; Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Steeves, Elgin, pair blankets; Mr. and Mrs. George E. Baker. Chipman. cut glass and silver olive dish; Mr. and Mrs. Crandall, silver berry spoon; Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Boyd, souvenir bor-bon spoon; Mr. and Mrs. N. Riley, Kentville, five o'clock chocolate set; Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Dykeman set of carvers in handsome case; Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Reed, fairy lamp; Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Thomson, Moncton, silver berry spoon; Miss Cooper, gold pin set with pearls; Mrs. Urquhart, pocelain meat tray, bedroom slip pers; Mr. and Mrs. Sands, Moncton, Hungarian chocolate pitcher; Mr. and Mrs. Essington, cut glass perfume and toilet bottles; Mrs. Hoare Miss Moore and Miss Daniel onyx table; Master Abert Hoare, silver spoon; Miss Stevenson, fancy pink and gold horn; Miss Grace Jamieson, fancy pink and gold bell; Miss Holt, Dorchester, set of doilies; Brussels street church choir, Hungarian vase; Miss Godard, celery dish; Miss May Myers, Boston, centre piece; Mrs. Trites, Salisbury, cheque; Mr. and Miss Colpitts, Petitcodiac, cheque; Miss Grace Smith, fancy china plate; Mrs. E. R. Slader, silk table scarf; Misses DeWitt, Boston, wedgewood pitcher; Mr. Leonard, Boston, silver fruit dish gold lined; Mr. A H. Chipman, decorated cup and saucer; Mrs. Jones. and Misses Steeves, Salisbury, silver pickle dish; Mr. and Miss Hopper, wedgewood cracker jar; Mr. Murray Foss, silver pickle castor; Mr. Frank Hawes, oak rocker; Mr. Mrs. and Miss Henderson, cherry and plate glass mantel oval; Mr. W. H. Underhill, banqu t lamp; Mr. E. M. Sipprell, dozen silver teaspoons; Mr. James Moulson, silver chafing dish; Mr. Walter Golding, handsome pair water color pictures; Mr. Thomas Slader, japanese ewel tray; Dr. McFarlane, brass and ebony five o'clock tea kettle; Mr. L. Hopper, wicker chair; M'ss Melvin, handsome oil painting; Miss Grace Melvin, pot pourri jar; Misses Marsh, brass and ebony five o'clock kettle; Mr. J. B. Hamm, hungarian vase and magnificent bouquet of roses; Miss Lillie Belyea, 'Boston, white ostrich feather fan; Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Gowland, cut glass and silver syrup pitcher; Miss Annie Rhodie, hand |worked kerchief; Mrs. J. McSinty, fancy centre piece, pudding dish covers and cake doilies; Mr. Will Colwell, jewel case; Mrs. D. W. Beverly, Machias, china cheese dish; Captain and Mrs. McDonald, amber and ruby water set and tray; Miss Rand, vienna statuettes; Miss Robins, cracker jar; Miss Cahill, Sackville, handsome fruit doileys; Mr. Rudderham and Mr. Rankine barquet lamp; Mr. and Mrs. Barbour, silver salt and pepper jugs in case; Mrs. Thomas Curry, pretty doileys; Mrs. Stetson, pair of towels; Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Titus, St. Martins, gold candle stick and shade; Mr. and Mrs. H. Mott, china tray; Mr. and Mrs. James Read, silver berry spoon; Mrs. O'Brien, Boston, salt and pepper dishes; Miss Clara Clarke, half dozen coffee spoons; Miss Goodwin, solid brass knights head. Mr. and Mrs. Hatch left Monday for Boston where they will visit Mrs. Hatch's sister. Mrs. R. B. Colwell and little daughter Berta are in Anagance for a few weeks visi's to relatives.

Mr. James A. Grant of Toronto is in the city. Mr. and Mrs. George A. Plummer Mr. F. H. Plummer, Mr. R.C. Goudey, Mr. Horace B. Sergeant, Mrs. and Miss Butterfield, and Miss Watson were a party of Boston people who were here this week and enjoyed themselves very much. Mr. S. H. Stevenson of St. Stephen was here for day or two lately.

Dr. J. G. Calkin of Sackville is in the city. Mr. P. B. Wallace of Toronto is in the city. Col. Wood of Portland who his been in the city for a few days left last night for home. Dr. J. Bennett Morrison who was here this week attending his brothers' wedding returned to New York Wednesday to resume his work at Mt. Sinai hospital. Mrs. George F. Baird returned Tuesday from a trip to Boston.

Mr. W. B. Dixon of Sackville is in the city visiting Mr. R. B. Emmerson.

Among several engagements mentioned in Carleton is that of a young lady graduate of Sackville University to a teacher in the same institution. And still another is that of a young lady residing on Prince street to a gentleman prominently connected with the C. P. R. here.

Mrs. Henderson of Woodstock is visiting friends here.

Miss Danie O'Brien of St. George was here last week to consult an oculist. Sir Leonard and Lady Tilley have been in a grand chance to fit themselves out with the Best German White, White and Blue and White Agate Ware, at remarkably low prices. Everything in our large stock of this ware, S use-pans. Tea Kettles, Fry Pans.

Fish Boilers, Pitchers, Rice Boilers. Basins, Ladles, Soap Dishes, Pails, Teapots, Coffee pots, Cul'enders, Pudding Dishes, etc etc. Remember the date, May the 26 to June 1. inclusive. This will be a chance for real bargains in a line of goods that bargains are not offered in every day.

Successors to Sheraton & Whitlaker.

Telephone 358.

TETLEYS TEA

VERY GOOD, - 40C. PER LB.

EXTRA GOOD, - 50C. ...

STILL BETTER, 60C.

Agent for LOCHLEANA SCOTCH WHISKEY, our special brand. Try it

TELEPHONE No. 925 M

Mrs. Ormond Jones. Mr. Bate of Lordon, England is in the city. Mr. Robert Magness of Hamilton, Ontario is stay. ng here for a lew days.

Mr. Cleaveland is in Anagance visiting Mr. and Stephen visiting the latter's mother, Mrs. Chipman. Mrs. George J. Clarke of St. Stephen is here visiting relatives. Mr. M. S. Scovil went to St. Stephen this week to attend the wedding of Mr. Walker Scovil and Miss Lena Markee. Mrs. Bliss Ward of Moncton is visiting city rclatives. The engagement is announced of a young lady residing on Lancester street West End to a Dorchester gentleman. Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Borner late of this city are w comfortably settled in Annapolis. Mr. and Mrs. Clark are in Bridgetown guests of their daughter Mrs. Norman Rumsey.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Carrol of Johnstown N. Y. re in the city.

Dr. R. J. Robertson left this week on a brief holi day trip. Miss Blaine left this week for a visit to Ottawa.

Mr. and Mrs. James Leetch of Halifax are in the

Mr. Morris Scovil of Gagetown is in the city. Miss Mary L. Brock of Arlington N. J., is visitng St. John.

Mr. Joseph L. Black of Sackville was here for a day or two lately. Mrs. W. C. Crockett of Frederic on 18 staying in the city. Mr. James Barnes of Buctouche was here for a short time this week.

Mr. and Mrs. James Thom and Mr. D. Mou:ce of Montreal were here for a short time this week. Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Clarke of Holyoke Mass., were among the visitors to the city this week. Sheriff Sterling of Fredericton was here for a day

r two lately. Mr. H. B. Clarkk of Halifax is in the city. Mr George King of Louisville, Kentucky is visitng St. John.

Hon George Harbury of London England, is in St. John and will likely spend the summer here. Mr. and Mrs. David Watson of Medicine Hat, who have been here for a month visiting relatives have returned home.

Mr. Douglas Troop has been confined to his resid. ence on Orange street, through illness this week. Dr. J. O. Calkin and Mr. George Matthew of Sackville were in the city this week. Mr. Arthur Clarke of Boston was a guest of Mr. W. E. Vroom, St. James street this week on his way home from the Ingleside fishing clnb. Mr. L. L. Hopkins and Mr. M. E. Cobb of Boston were also here Wednesday on their way home from the same fishing club. On Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Elkin were pleasantly surprised by a large party of friends gathering at their residence to celebrate the twentieth anniversary of their marriage. The evening was pleasantly spent in games, vocal and instru. mental music and social intercourse. After partaking of refreshments served about midnight the party dispersed having left behind them a reminder of their visit in the shape of a polished brass table and a jardiniere of hammered brass.

A few of the friends of Mr. George McLean whose marriage to Miss Healey was noted in PROGRESS last week, entertained him on Monday evening at the Cafe Royal and presented him with a handsome silver tea service, the presentation being made by Alderman McGoldrick. The occasion was a very enjoyable one to all present.

In St. John's church at four o'clock on Monday, J. Otty Sharpe, was united in marriage to Miss Charlotte P. McKean, only danghter of John T. C. McKean. Rev. J. deSoyres performed the ceremony. The bride was attired in a travelling dress of cadet blue. She carried a large bouquet of white roses. Her bridesmaid was her cousin, Miss Lottie McKean of Boston, who wore a handsome cream and white crepon gown, with hat to match, trimmed with pink roses, and carried a bouquet of pink roses. Little Miss Blanche Sharp, sister of

The groom was assisted by James L. McAvity.

USE ONLY the'groom made a charming maid of honor. Her dre:s was cream crepon, and she wore a large cream hat. Pelee Island WineCo's Wines.

