The Old Farmer Did Not Avail Himself of Its Soothing Attractions.

An old, gray-whiskered man, who had lived all his life on a small farm near Ba- ! tavia, stopped at the hotel last Tuesday | evening. He said he wanted a room for one night, He was sent to the third floor. Later in the evening he went out and didn't come back till midnight. He had evidently been enjoying himself. His breath smelled ot whisky. He went up to his room and that was the last seen of him until early in the morning when a boy went to call bim for his train. The boy got no answer when he knocked on the door and he opened it and walked in. The tolding bed had not been let down The boy had to look about for a moment or two before he discovered the old man. Then he heard a husky voice from near the ceiling somewhere. He looked up and there was the guest curled up on top of the bed. rubbing his eves He was fully dressed. with the exception of his big cowhide boots which were standing on the floor. "Say, mister," inquired the boy, "why didn't you get into bed?"

"B'gosh!" shouted the man, angrily, 'there ain't no bed. Here I've been curled up on top of this sidehoard all night without a wink of sleep. Ain't this a nice way to freat a man? Hey?"

A Simile in Smoke.

There's all sorts of grades of tobacco plant. The best comes from Havana. There's all sorts of grades of sarsaparilla plant. The best comes from Honduras. If you want cheap tobacco, all right provided you get value for your money. Cheap tobacco's not as good to smoke—but it don't cost as much.

If you want cheap sarsaparilla . . . But you don't want it. Of course you don't. You are paying for the best. To pay for the best and get anything but Honduras sarsaparilla is like paying for Havana cigars and getting Pittsburg "Stogies." There's only one sarsaparilla made exclusively from the imported Honduras plant. That's Ayer's. Just keep it in mind that you are paying for Honduras sarsaparilla when you are paying for the best; but you don't get what you pay for unless you get Ayer's Sarsaparilla.
