Mr. George Grant and Mrs. Grant of Attleboro are leaving Halifax after a stay of several weeks to return home. Mr. Grant left here 33 years ago. He is a Meagher's grant boy. During his long absence only three deaths have taken place in his family.

Mrs. Walter Jones's garden party, arranged for Thursday last week, suffered from the effects of the weather. Mrs. Jones postponed her "at home" until Friday, and had a beautiful if uncertain day. The beautiful grounds at the "Bower" are too well known to need description, and like all country garden parties, the scene was a particularly pretty one. Mrs. Jones also gave a small open air dinner party later in the week.

Beyond a couple of dinners and some cycle parties I have not heard of anything of very great interest going on in the city. People take a languid interest in cricket, tennis and the yacht club, but so one could very well describe these places as being exactly scenes of great festivity. Wherever assemblies youth, beauty and fashion in summer gowns or chignons, according to set, there is always however a certain amount of pleasure and picturesque. There are two large dances, just faint rumors, in the distance, "I do hope for the sake of the young people that they will materialize."
